Target Explodes as LTG William Ingram Jr. Fires Ceremonial First Shot of the 2012 National Matches

By Brooke Fleming, CMP Support Staff

Following his remarks, LTG Ingram fired the ceremonial first shot of the 2012 National Matches with a CMP Special Grade M1 Garand rifle, which he later purchased.

CAMP PERRY, OHIO - The traditional First Shot Ceremony took place July 9, 2012, marking the opening of the National Matches, held annually by the Civilian Marksmanship Program, the National Rifle Association, and the Ohio National Guard. The ceremony marks the beginning of the national pistol, smallbore rifle, and highpower rifle championship and CMP Games events.

This year's ceremony also marked the 87th National Matches occurring here, and 140 years of competitive shooting sports in the United States. During these five weeks competitors will arrive on post from all over the country to compete in more than 100 different matches.

After a brief introduction from the master of ceremonies, Gary Anderson, Director Emeritus of the Civilian Marksmanship Program, the ceremony began with the delivery of the American Flag that will fly over the ranges throughout the 2012 National Matches. This special flag was delivered by troops emerging from two armored personnel carriers that traveled down the range access road by the 812th ONG Engineer Company, based in Wooster, Ohio.

Upon arrival, soldiers exited the carriers and set up a perimeter around the flag exchange area near the grandstand. It was first presented to Mr. Anderson and transferred to an awaiting color guard that raised it on the flagpole in Shooters Memorial Plaza, where it will fly until the final shot on August 14.

Judith Legerski, Chairman of the Civilian Marksmanship Program Board of Directors, introduced featured First Shot speaker LTG William Ingram Jr., Director of the Army National Guard in Washington D.C.

Mrs. Legerski concluded her welcome of the National Guard's second in command and said, "General, you honor us with your presence."

LTG Ingram, originally born and raised in North Carolina, said he has spent much of his early life around firearms, as his father was in the Army while he was growing up.

"This is an amazing event and I'm truly proud to be a part of it," he said. "I cannot imagine how many shots I have taken in my lifetime, but I know one thing for sure, no shot ever fired will be more important than this one coming up," he said.

Soldiers from the Ohio Army National Guard 812th Engineers, based in Wooster, emerge from their armored personnel carrier and secure the parade ground for delivery of the American Flag during a combat demonstration.

LTG Ingram recapped the history of the National Matches and applauded the event's planning, saying "it's a great partnership between the NRA, CMP and the National Guard.

"It's easy to see how this has become the World Series of the shooting sports," he followed.

Upon completion of the ceremony LTG Ingram was presented with a commemorative 'thank you' coin from the Civilian Marksmanship Program and it was announced by Mr. Anderson that "the 2012 National Matches are now officially open."

After ending his speech, LTG Ingram fired the ceremonial first shot of the 2012 National Matches with a CMP Special Grade M1 Garand rifle, which he later privately purchased. As the first shot was taken, the target 600 yards away on Rodriguez Range disintegrated into a cloud of colored smoke – thanks to pyrotechnics installed by range personnel.

National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

MSgt Craig Shepard Wins Overall and Non-Distinguished M9 EIC Match in First Shot Opener in 2012 Pistol Matches at Camp Perry

By Steve Cooper, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OHIO – Air National Guardsman, MSgt Craig Shepard, 49, of Dearborn Heights, MI, was the overall winner of the M9 EIC Service Pistol Match and was also the high non-Distinguished shooter, which earned him his first EIC leg points toward his Distinguished Pistol Badge in the opening match of the 2012 National Matches.

The M9 EIC match follows the Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) for Pistol, sponsored by CMP and conducted by the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit. The M9 EIC match was fired in the afternoon of Monday, 9 July following classroom and hands-on instruction on the firing line.

The top 10 percent of the 381 eligible shooters earned their first four introductory points in the match, including Shepard. Overall there were 400 shooters in the match, which is a 25-yard event fired in three stages – slow fire, timed fire, and rapid fire. Shepard fired 79-2X, 95-2X and 89-2X in those stages, respectively.

David Neal, 37, of Oak Harbor, OH, placed second in the EIC intro points chase, firing a 258-1X. Rob Castner, 48, of Scott Township, PA, took third with an aggregate score of 257-3X.

The M9 EIC match serves as introductory proficiency match for shooters participating in the SAFS course. The class welcomes many new shooters each year, but it's not uncommon for several veteran pistol competitors to repeat the class to learn the latest developments from the AMU in the classroom and get experience in the EIC match that follows.

The Department of Defense first conducted the Small Arms Firing Schools (SAFS) as part of the National Matches at Camp Perry in 1918. Federal law continues to require the annual offering of the schools, which now instruct over 1,000 pistol and rifle shooters a year in firearms safety and fundamental marksmanship skills. The Schools are open to all U. S. citizens who are over the minimum age. Firearms are provided, students must bring eye and ear protection. In the Schools, USAMU instructors, assisted by Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marine and Navy Active, National Guard and Reserve shooting team members teach basic marksmanship techniques geared to meet the needs of new and less experienced shooters as well as shooters who want to learn new ways to improve their scores.

There are three courses available: Rifle SAFS, Pistol SAFS, and an Advanced Pistol Marksmanship Course that is part of the Pistol SAFS. Both the Rifle and Pistol SAFS offer beginning shooters special hands-on instruction that starts from the beginning with safety, nomenclature, clearing, loading and unloading, shot technique and basic firing positions. Intermediate SAFS instruction focuses on teaching and practicing competition techniques.

The Advanced Pistol Course is open to any competitor who has a minimum of 10 EIC points or at least an Expert NRA classification. In this course participants can expect to focus on the fundamentals, understanding training methods, and building a mental approach to competitive shooting. For advanced Service Rifle shooters, separate Advanced CMP-Remington Highpower and USMC Junior Highpower Clinics are available.

Rifle SAFS is a two-day program and will be conducted 28 and 29 July this year. Rifle students fire prone, sitting and standing position slow or rapid-fire exercises. On the second day, Rifle SAFS students, while still being assisted by their coaches, have a unique opportunity to test their new marksmanship knowledge and skills by firing an M16 Rifle EIC Match that uses the course of fire practiced on the range the previous day.

The Pistol and Rifle Small Arms Firing Schools offer U. S. citizens at all levels of shooting experience, from new and beginning shooters to advanced competition shooters, outstanding opportunities to receive top class marksmanship instruction from many of the country's best instructors in one of shooting's most historic settings.

A Small Arms Firing School student receives feedback from her coach while viewing her target. The Pistol school allows students to receive hands-on instruction from the best pistol shooters in the world.

Joseph Totts Wins Junior President's Pistol Match and Leads Juniors in Aggregate Scoring at Camp Perry

By Steve Cooper, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OHIO – Joseph Totts, 20, of Mogadore, OH, the defending 2011 Junior Individual Pistol champion, won the 2012 Junior President's Pistol Match with an aggregate score of 366-3X on a warm, sunny, yet breezy Sunday, 15 July. While Totts did not repeat as Junior Individual champ, he finished four points behind the winner, Alexander Chichkov. All junior matches are fired using .22 caliber pistols.

Totts fired 172-0X, 94-0X and 100-3X in the 20-shot slow fire, 10-shot timed fire and 10-shot rapid fire stages, respectively, and added his name to the prestigious Junior President's Pistol trophy. The pistol matches were the first part of the CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches fired here each summer. The rifle portion of the National Matches begins on 22 July.

Totts also finished as the leader in combined scoring, with an overall aggregate total of 913-16X, compiled in the Junior President's, National Trophy Junior Individual and National Trophy Junior Team matches. Brett Tucker, 15, of N. Canton, OH, finished second overall in junior aggregate scoring (877-9X) and Glenn Zimmerman, 15, of St. Mary's, OH, placed third (861-9X).

Ryan Nichols, 20, of Rootstown, OH, placed second in the Junior President's Pistol Match (347-5X) and Michael Soklaski, 15, of Ringoes, NJ, placed third (345-2X).

Chichkov, 18, of Tampa, FL, who outlasted Totts in the Junior Individual Pistol Match, won the event with an aggregate score of 280-5X, out of a possible 300 points. Chichkov shot an 86-1X in slow fire, 99-1X in timed fire and 95-3X in rapid fire. Tucker and Totts fired matching scores of 276, but Totts took second place from Tucker in an X-ring tiebreaker, 276-6X to 276-4X.

In junior team competition, the Ohio Rifle & Pistol Association swept the top three places. ORPA Jr. Gold, fired by Totts and Nichols, took first with an aggregate score of 523-8X. ORPA Jr. Orange, fired by Zimmerman and Bryce Tucker, 16, of N. Canton, placed second (521-5X) and ORPA Jr. Black placed third (516-4X) and was comprised of Shane Creekmore, 20, of Atwater and Brett Tucker.

In the Service Pistol Warm-Up Match, fired early in the week, Joseph Storch, 19, of Piscataway, NJ, was the high junior, firing a 313-1X. It was Storch's fifth year of competitive shooting and fifth appearance at Camp Perry. He teamed up with fellow Old Bridge Rifle & Pistol Club, NJ, member Nicolai Greco, 17, of Atlantic Highlands, NJ, in the Junior Team Trophy Match where they finished seventh.

Greco said this is his second year of competitive shooting and it was his first trip to Camp Perry. He finished 27th overall of 381 non-Distinguished competitors in the M9 EIC Service Pistol match following the Small Arms Firing School on 9 July.

Lyuda Andrianova, 18, of Schaumburg, IL, competed for the first time in bull's eye shooting this year at Camp Perry and said she came away with a great learning experience. Despite having some equipment issues, she said she was happy with her first trial at the National Matches.

Mentored by her father, Anatoly, a Certified Level II coach, Andrianova said she is looking forward to a return trip in 2013 with her sister Irina, who couldn't come to this year's matches due to a school commitment. The Andrianova family is a member of the Arlington International Airgun Club in Illinois.

Alexander Chichkov, of Tampa, Florida, won the Junior Individual Pistol Match with an aggregate score of 280-5X, out of a possible 300 points.

Joseph Storch, 19, of Piscataway, NJ, was the high junior shooter in the CMP Warm-Up Match at the outset of the pistol phase of the National Matches. He teamed up with Nicolai Greco, 17, of Atlantic Highlands, NJ, in the Junior Team Trophy Match.

U.S.M.C. Sgt Luis Esparza Wins President’s Pistol, U.S. Army SSG Patrick Franks Jr. Captures the National Trophy Individual Pistol Match and USAMU Blue repeats National Trophy Pistol Team Match Victory

By Steve Cooper, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OHIO – To the applause and shouts of “Oo-Rah” from fellow Marines at the National Trophy Pistol Match Awards ceremony at Hough Auditorium on 15 July, Sgt Luis Esparza charged up the stairs to the stage and was recognized for winning the 2012 President’s Pistol Trophy, among a field of 544 competitors.

Esparza, 23, fired a 386-12X aggregate of a possible 400, in a highly-competitive match among many of the nation’s top service pistol shooters. Esparza held off three U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit competitors, SFC James Henderson, 45, SFC Thomas Rose, 36, and SPC Greg Markowski, 38, all of whom were tied for second at 384, separated by X-ring tiebreakers.

Henderson (384-12X) posed the closest challenge to Esparza, matching the Marine’s 100 in timed fire, but Esparza’s strong 190 in slow fire proved to be the difference. Rose fired a 194 in slow fire and a 99 in timed fire, but he dropped nine points in rapid fire.

Robert McIlhaney, 63, of Allentown, PA, was the high M1911 shooter in the match (366-12X); Judy Tant, 62, of E. Lansing, MI, was high woman (357-5X) and Philip Hemphill, 60, of Clinton, MS, was the high senior in the match (379-12X). The top 100 shooters, known as the President’s Hundred, were also recognized at the awards ceremony and this year’s cut-off was 345-8X, fired by Alan Toler, 51, of Richmond, VA.

U.S. Army SSG Patrick Franks Jr., 34, won the 2012 National Trophy Individual Pistol Match with an aggregate score of 291-11X out of a possible 300. Franks’ name will be added to the General Custer Trophy, signifying the highest overall score in the match. Highlighted by a pair of 99’s in timed fire and rapid fire, Franks opened his performance with a 93 in slow fire.
