First Shot Ceremony 2015 – Part I: True “Rosie” Rivets the Crowd

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – The 2015 National Trophy Matches are now officially underway as the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) First Shot Ceremony kicks off another exciting season of friendly and expert competition. Though those in attendance were once again wowed by sensational special effects and visual performances, it was the quiet resilience of an extraordinary American hero that stole the show.

A perfectly sunny sky blanketed the historic Camp Perry ranges on the morning of July 6 as a crowd of dignitaries and eager guests awaited the opening of the matches at the Ohio National Guard facility for the 108th year.

A demonstration of Thunderbolt, a World War II (WWII) M4 Sherman Tank (of the Allen County Historical Society, Lima, Ohio), led a parade of military vehicles towards the crowd. Those in attendance watched as the powerful machines slowly moved down the gravel road towards them, unaware of the precious cargo it was protecting.

Carefully tucked within one of the military vehicles was real-life “Rosie the Riveter,” 91-year-old Minnie Bennett of Lorain, Ohio. During WWII, Minnie worked for three years in a steel plant – manufacturing materials for the battlefield in place of the men who could no longer work there because of their involvement in the war effort.

The “Rosie” character stood as a symbol of women’s strength in the workforce during WWII, to encourage them to join the war effort in their own way. Minnie was one of the brave women who decided to roll up her sleeves for her country.

“I think the most important thing is we supported the veterans. I said it then, and I’ll say it today – we were behind them,” she said. “That was the war, and we were there. We believed in it very, very much.”

She spoke of using War Bonds as a down payment on her first house, collecting stamps (which she still has in a cellophane envelope) for coffee and meat, and she also told stories of her husband and her four brothers who were in the service during the time.

“They were fighting to save our country and they were fighting for us,” she said. “We really supported them. They were giving their lives up for us.”

Women of the time were only able to work if they were 21 years of age. Minnie, at only 18, was too young to work, until too many men were being drafted with too few women to fill their spots in the workforce. It was then that the age was finally lowered to 18, and Minnie could become involved.

“I did it, and I was happy to do it, even though I didn’t know what I was doing,” she joked. “But the men helped.”

Generations later, being asked to appear at the First Shot Ceremony to represent all of the women who sacrificed their lives on the home front during the war was something that surprised Minnie and deeply touched her.

“It was an honor. I laughed and I cried,” she said. “I couldn’t believe it. It brought back so many good memories of that time.”

When the First Shot Ceremony commenced, a cluster of fans formed around Minnie – shaking her hand and asking for photos as they thanked her for her assistance towards her country. She posed for every picture and gladly grasped every hand.

One Marine took a knee next to Minnie, who was sitting on the bottom bench of the grandstands, and thanked her for her service. She proudly told him stories of her time working in the plant, and she intently listened to the Marine describe his experiences in Iraq and his young family. As the man slightly paused in a moment of emotion during his story, Minnie put out her hand – proving that even 70 years after her work during WWII, she would do anything to help a soldier in need.

Minnie was accompanied by her husband of 72 years, Bruno Bennett. Bruno is a WWII veteran, having served in the U.S. Marine Corps in the South Pacific. Other honored WWII veterans present during the ceremony included Joe De Luca, Jr., who served as an Honor Guard for General George S. Patton when he laid in state in Heidleberg, Germany, and Lloyd Boyer, who served in Field Artillery in General Patton’s Third Army.

At 91-years-old, Minnie was still strong enough to walk herself (with just a little help) to deliver the colors. The crowd cheered and clapped for the true American hero before them.

“We had to support our boys and we were happy to do it.” Minnie (Cambria) Bennett, Pit Recorder, No. 3 Blooming Mill, 1943-45

National Trophy Rifle Matches

A Message from the COO:

The CMP is pleased to provide this souvenir printed edition of the Final Results of the 2015 National Trophy Rifle Matches. We hope this publication with its special information and photos will be a memento of a fantastic National Matches experience for you.

The 2015 National Match rifle events began on Tuesday, 14 July with our fun and informative rifle clinics. Adults and juniors alike increased their knowledge in both maintenance and competitive techniques during the Marine Corps Junior Clinic, Rifle Small Arms Firing School and Advanced Service Rifle Clinic. Our competitions really took off on Friday, 17 July when the National Trophy Junior Match, Hearst Doubles and Vintage Sniper matches were fired. This year's Vintage Sniper Match was so large, it nearly filled to capacity. When the matches concluded on 22 July, 2,900 individual shooters entered in 6,696 CMP rifle events and clinic entries.

As always, the matches featured lots of great shooting by 2015 shooting heroes that included:

- MSG Robert Mango of the U.S. Army Reserve, who was this year's recipient of the coveted Daniel Boone Trophy for claiming the overall position in the National Trophy Individual Match with a score of 494-22x for the win.
- Jeffrey Lindblom of Moscow Mills, MO, who was the high civilian in the National Trophy Individual Match with a score of 492-18x. Lindblom earned second place behind MSG Mango overall in the event and received the Nathan Hale Trophy.
- SSG Amanda Elsenboss of the Army Marksmanship Unit who recorded a score of 490-19x to earn the Women's Rifle Trophy as the highest ranking woman of the NTI. SSG Elsenboss landed in fourth place overall.
- USMC Scarlet, which was the overall winner of the National Trophy Infantry Team Match (Rattle Battle) with a score of 1270. Firing members of the team are Sgt. Tanner Bauer, Sgt. Jeremy Benjamin, Sgt. Antonio DiConza, Sgt. Joseph Dukich, Sgt. Joseph Peterson and SSgt. Chad Ranton.
- Pennsylvania Skragglies, who won the National Junior Rifle Team Match with a score of 954-25x. The team consisted of Matthew Lovre and Joseph Hendricks. Hendricks also fired the highest individual score during the match – 480-12x.
- Team "Double D," consisting of Douglas Armstrong of Lexington, NC, and Glendale "Don" Rutherford of Tallapoosa, GA, whose members fired an aggregate score of 393-19x to win the Vintage Sniper Match for the third time. Armstrong finished first overall as an individual in a group of 519 competitors.
- Victor Betzold of Bel Air, MD, who set a new National Record in the Carbine Match with a score of 375-6x. Also setting a new National Record was the high junior of the Carbine match, Mark Stout of Waterford, MI, with an outstanding score of 362-5x. Betzold also was the winner of the Three Gun Aggregate in the GSM Games events.
- SFC Brandon Green and SGT Joseph Hall, who won the Hearst Doubles with a score of 591-18x – beating out the second place team by nearly 10 points. Both are members of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) Service Rifle team.
- John Watson of Perry, OH, who was the winner of the M16 Match with a score of 387-15x. During his impressive performance, Watson managed to clean both the Prone Rapid Fire and Sitting portions of the match – firing 100-3x and 100-4x, respectively.
- Forrest Greenwood of Ceres, CA, who claimed the Golden Eagle Trophy as the highest ranking junior in the rifle National Trophy Individual Match with a score of 484-16x. The talented young competitor finished in 33rd place out of 1,017 competitors.
- SSG Kristoffer Friend of the U.S. Army Reserve, who earned the prestigious President's Rifle Trophy after firing a finals score of 97-5x during the President's 100 Match Shoot Off. Paired with his qualification score, he reached an outstanding aggregate score of 395-15x.
- Matthew Lovre of Jeannette, PA, who was the high junior of the President's Rifle Match with an exceptional aggregate score of 391-14x – a new National Record. He also finished in eighth place overall.

The CMP extends sincere thanks to everyone who made significant contributions to another great National Matches. National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

Also representing the strong women of WWII was “Rosie the Riveter” reenactor Dawn Rumbutis. A member of the Firelands Military Vehicle Group, the ceremony was the first event she decided to take on the role of Rosie. The only one within the group without any real military experience, she felt she needed to come up with a way to revere the era outside of a uniform.

“I felt for me, as a civilian, it wasn’t as honoring to reenact as an enlisted officer because I’ve never been involved in it,” she explained. “So this (Rosie) was my choice.”

After Dawn and the real “Rosie” met, Minnie began pouring out stories of when she worked in the steel mill, and Dawn couldn’t have been more fascinated by them all.

“It really brought things to life. Because I never lived it, to meet people who actually did it – it makes it more real,” Dawn explained. “[The war and women entering the workforce] did happen, and it changed a lot of people’s lives.”

During the ceremony, Minnie and Dawn were escorted to the stands by the military vehicle parade to deliver the colors to the 555th Honors Detachment of Wooster, Ohio. The 555th then solemnly raised the flag that will watch over the ranges through the duration of the matches.

Dawn Rumbutis (left) and Minnie Bennett (right) stood as representatives and reminders of the hard working women of World War II.

Read about the rest of the First Shot Ceremony events in Part II: Vietnam Vet Receives Medals More Than 40 Years After Battle.

Dawn clutches the colors close to her heart as she is driven to the ceremony site.

Minnie’s husband of 72 years, Bruno (white hat) was also present during the ceremony. Bruno served as a Marine during World War II.

First Shot Ceremony 2015 – Part II: Vietnam Vet Receives Medals More Than 40 Years After Battle

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – In addition to the two charming “Rosie” women and the military vehicles present during the 2015 First Shot Ceremony, one of the most significant acts of the day was carried out over 40 years late by First Shot speaker, Congressman Robert Latta. The congressman was given the privilege of presenting military awards to a veteran who was long overdue in receiving recognition for his bravery during Vietnam.

Mark Kovach, 68, of Oak Harbor, Ohio, served in the U.S. Army’s 9th Division (riverine patrols) in the Mekong Delta near Dong Tam, South Vietnam, in joint operations with the Navy, in 1967-68.

At that time, the Navy would transport Army patrols up river by boat and insert them at strategic points. Kovach’s group was one of two that were backed up by a helicopter. During the transport, they were informed there were snipers in the area, but the “snipers” were really an entire battalion of North Vietnamese regulars. Soon, a firefight ensued.

Congressman Robert Latta presented military medals to Vietnam war veteran, Mark Kovach.

Though he normally walked the point of his patrol, Kovach was temporarily assigned to work with engineers using explosives to clear obstacles, and when the battle broke out, he had a band of 10 blasting caps on his helmet. After his squad's M-60 machine gunner went down, Kovach volunteered to take over the M-60.

While manning the machine gun, an explosion hit, and it simultaneously set off three of the blasting caps on his helmet. The helmet saved his life, but he suffered recurring concussions and sustained shrapnel wounds on his head, neck and torso. Laying in a field hospital bed, a commanding officer woke him to pin him with the Purple Heart medal, but no paperwork followed.

Officially, the Purple Heart and other service medals never made it to him. Congressman Latta's office pursued the medals, and they were finally awarded to him at this year's First Shot Ceremony.

The medals he received were: the Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster, Meritorious Service Award, Combat Infantry Badge, Vietnam Service Medal and Good Conduct Medal.

"I am very grateful for Congressman Latta's work on this – it means a lot to me," said Kovach. "The Combat Infantry Badge is the most important of them all. The others are great, but the CIB is the most prized to me."

With his medals officially awarded, his outstanding courage for his country will now forever be remembered, as well it should be.

Back to the vintage military show during the ceremony, a flyover by Yankee Lady, a fully-restored WWII B-17G bomber (courtesy of Yankee Air Museum, Willow Run, Mich.), and a U.S. Navy TBM Avenger aircraft (from the Liberty Aviation Museum in Port Clinton, Ohio) captured the attention of the crowd as reenactors on the ground simulated German soldiers retaliating against the air raid with anti-aircraft weapons and full sound effects.

As the planes made a second pass, the bomb bay doors opened, and large explosions vibrated the range from pyrotechnics provided by Robert Gillmor from Gillmor Ordnance. Smoke momentarily disguised the advancing "German soldiers," but the Sherman soon emerged from the bellowing cloud, accompanied by a precession of American reinforcements.

A "battle" arose, complete with even more pyrotechnics, and when it was all over, the Americans once again defeated the German soldiers – rewarded with thunderous applause from the grandstands.

For those wanting a closer look at vintage military vehicles, a static display of eight WWII vehicles, brought in by Tom Price of Bowling Green, Ohio, was also available for viewing by guests throughout the morning.

Congressman Robert Latta of Ohio's Fifth Congressional District served as the First Shot speaker and fired the traditional shot down range to officially open the Matches. A talented marksman himself and a veteran competitor at Camp Perry, he was thrilled to be given the honor.

After the medal presentation to Kovach, a Benediction was given by Ohio State Chaplain Colonel Andrew Aquino. Then, the Ohio National Guard 122nd Army Band honored all of the Armed Forces with the traditional medley of service salutes, and the National Matches were officially underway.

Special thanks to Captain Pat Thompson and the Firelands Military Vehicle Group for providing support and bringing in the "Wolverine Division" of the U.S. Naval Sea Cadets of Monroe, Mich., to serve as honor guards and additional reenactors.

Congressman Latta fired the traditional first shot down range to officially open the National Matches.

A battle between the Americans and the Germans broke out during the ceremony. Of course, the Americans came out on top.

The bomb bay doors of the B-17G bomber opened above the range as large explosions on the ground simulated a successful drop.

SSG Friend Wins President's Rifle Match, Lovre Sets New Record at the 2015 National Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – SSG Kristoffer Friend, 29, of the U.S. Army Reserve, earned the prestigious President's Rifle Trophy after firing a finals score of 97-5x during the President's 100 Match Shoot Off at the 2015 National Trophy Rifle Matches. Paired with his qualification score, he reached an outstanding aggregate score of 395-15x.

SSG Friend got his start in shooting by joining up with the Connecticut shooting program in 2001. Showing promise in the sport, he had already been enlisted on the Army Reserve shooting team in 2006 – picking him up after his junior season was over. In 2007, he served his first full year on the team.

Since then, he's become a Distinguished High Master and has reached the President's 100 numerous times. This year's President's 100 Shoot Off was his second, and it was his second time winning.

Going two-for-two in Shoot Offs, SSG Friend must know the formula for success in winning the prestigious match.

"It's never going to be routine," he said. "But I definitely was not as nervous as I was that first time. Being up near the top of the shoot off is a little nerve wracking, but I know that I had good zeroes on the gun, and the wind wasn't doing anything crazy, so I had good confidence going into it."

He continued, "It's like the Boston Marathon of shooting. Everybody wants to make the top hundred. Winning it is a big deal. It's just one of those trophies that if you're a highpower shooter, everybody knows about it. And with the shoot off, everybody watching, it can be pretty nerve wracking."

The President's Rifle Match is one of the most celebrated events during the National Matches. Competitors fire 30 record shots during the qualifying match, with the Top 100 competitors receiving special medallions for being named to the "President's 100." The Top 20 competitors compete in a 10 shot Shoot Off style match to determine the overall winner – making this match unique to others.

Even though the historical value and significance of the Shoot Off can give a few butterflies to even the most experienced marksman – especially settling into the moment with the very first shot, according to SSG Friend – remembering the fundamentals is key to successfully overcoming the tension and staying focused.

"Practice as much as possible, and it all comes down to the basics," SSG Friend said. "You know, everybody tries to buy new equipment, the best ammo, but it really comes down to sight alignment, trigger control, position, and that's really what everybody needs to practice on – the basics."

SSG Kristoffer Friend of the U.S. Army Reserve, earned the prestigious President's Rifle Trophy after firing a finals score of 97-5x during the President's 100 Match Shoot Off and reaching an outstanding aggregate score of 395-15x.

During the Shoot Off, official scorers mark each shot on large targets for spectators to see – making the event an exciting viewing opportunity.

The Top 100 competitors in the President's Rifle Match are named to the "President's 100" and receive medallions. The Top 20 participate in a Shoot Off to determine the winner. This year, a total of 1,091 competitors entered the match.

Though at the head of the pack in the President's Match, SSG Friend admitted that he's been in a competitive slump of sorts this year. Now, with his win on one of the most coveted stages in the shooting world, he's gained back a little more self-assurance for the future.

"I had that on my mind this morning, just trying to do my best today, and get rid of all the bad shots I've had so far this week. And it worked," he said. "I think building off of today, going forward to the next few matches, I'm going to have a lot more confidence."

High junior of the match was Matthew Lovre, 18, of Jeannete, PA, with an exceptional aggregate score of 391-14x – a new National Record. After missing the President's Hundred last year by one point, Lovre did more than make up for that point lost by finishing this year in eighth place overall.

With his remarkable Shoot Off performance of 98-3x, Lovre managed to keep a calm demeanor throughout the competition – even alongside some of the best marksmen in the world.

"It's an honor to see some of the nation's greatest shots here all on one line, competing for such a magnificent trophy and championship," he said.

He went on, "I enjoy what I do very much. I don't get nervous. I'm out here for fun."

In the past, Lovre has taken advantage of the educational opportunities offered by the CMP during the National Matches, such as the Small Arms Firing School and the USMC Junior Highpower Clinic. He's also connected with the PRPA (Pennsylvania Rifle & Pistol Association) and traveled with the group to Camp Perry for the fourth year.

"Now, I'll just hang my plaque on the wall and get ready for next year," he said. "I want to thank the CMP for holding these matches. I enjoy them very much, and so do all of our juniors."

High junior of the match was Matthew Lovre of Jeannete, PA, with an exceptional aggregate score of 391-14x – a new National Record. He finished in eighth place overall.

Green, Hall Take Hearst Doubles Match at 2015 National Trophy Rifle Matches

Written by Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Leading the two-man team Hearst Doubles Match at this year’s National Trophy Rifle Matches was the team of SFC Brandon Green, 30, and SGT Joseph Hall, 29, with a score of 591-18x – beating out the second place team by nearly 10 points. Both are members of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) Service Rifle team. Individually, Green finished second overall, while Hall also finished in the top five – in fourth place.

The two have shot every team match together so far this year, giving them plenty of insight on each other’s weaknesses and strengths. Between the two of them, SFC Green has had the most experience with Service Rifle – now into his 12th season with the AMU. SGT Hall is (no pun intended) green on the team – having only been involved with Service Rifle for a little over a year after switching from the AMU International team.

Speaking on Hall’s positive qualities, Green said, “He’s just an all-around good shooter. You know he’s going to put the shots in the middle. You know he’s going to break the best shot he possibly can. You know he’s never going to take a bad shot.”

He went on, “It’s nice to know that your partner isn’t going to let one go and shoot one by accident when he knows he can take it down. And he’s not scared to take it down. He’s not scared to hold and wait a condition out or to make his hold slow down. He’ll work it until the time is done. It’s nice to have a partner who will put every ounce of effort they have into a match.”

With a strong background in International style shooting, Hall uses some of his knowledge of that sport in his Service Rifle shooting today – but he’s still learning. And Green (who has won numerous awards and accolades, such as being named Soldier of the Year, as well as the National Rifle Association’s overall Highpower competitor in 2013 and the Overall Individual Service Rifle competitor at CMP’s National Trophy Rifle Matches in 2014) is easy to learn from.

“Brandon’s been doing this so long he could write the book on Service Rifle,” Hall said. “I’ve mimicked half of the things I do off of him. It was watching him, watching how he controlled the recoil and how he fought with the elements and did all of his things that got me even close to where I am. His strength is his knowledge in this sport.”

Apart from their praiseworthy skills as individuals, the two talented marksmen have also found strength as a pair. Their confidence within each other has allowed them to be more comfortable on the firing line, knowing that no matter the environment, they both can rely on one another.

“Two pairs of eyes in the scope all the time, watching conditions – when you’re calling your shooter’s rapid fire as a coach – having a guy who knows what to look for in the wind, knows what to look for in bullet trace, can tell where the shots are going – it really helps you keep it centered,” said Green.

Their communication and natural connection as shooting partners has made them fierce competitors on the firing line, but their win during the Hearst Doubles was derived from more than just their physical game – credit can also be given to their powerful mental game.

“We both have a strong drive to win,” said Hall. “We wanted it. We fought hard together. We strove through it together. If he dropped a shot, we talked it out, figured it out and got right back into it.”

He continued, “Each yard line, we continued to check each other and make sure that we had what it takes to win. We watched each other and kept taking care of each other.”

Also giving a credible performance during the Hearst Doubles was PV2 Verne Conant, 21, of Billerica, MA, who fired a score of 279-4x to finish 89 out of 502 competitors to become the high junior of the event.

Clinics Stay Popular at 2015 National Rifle Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – A total of 443 entered this year’s Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) – held in Camp Perry’s historic Hough Theater and Viale Range during the 2015 National Trophy Rifle Matches. The clinic is designed for new and experienced shooters alike. Beginners learn the basics of marksmanship and competition shooting, while the more advanced will have the chance to learn more specific instruction on how to improve their skills.

DJ Maier, 36, and his wife Keiko, 34, of Lake Villa, IL, participated in SAFS for the first time. DJ, a former Marine, had been to the matches before but hadn’t returned since 2000. His wife, who he met in Japan while he was stationed there, is totally new to the shooting game – but with the help of the SAFS instructors, she was able to catch on quickly.

“She did fine today. I think it’s something we’re going to do from here on out,” DJ said. “She’s new to it. She’s from Tokyo . . . for her to come out here, really her first time to pick up a highpower rifle – she was shooting 9’s and 10’s, so the instruction had to have been awesome. She did very well.”

“I enjoyed it a lot,” Keiko added with a smile. “First of all, I was really nervous because I had never touched a gun, even a small one, but I got a really good coach . . . I really enjoyed it.”

The course is led by members of the Army Marksmanship Unit and other highly qualified military shooting team members and CMP instructors. At the end of live-fire practice on the range, all students are able to compete in a true EIC Match – with the chance to earn points towards becoming Distinguished marksmen.

John Watson, 47, of Perry, OH, was the winner of the M16 Match with a score of 387-15x. During his impressive performance, Watson managed to clean both the Prone Rapid Fire and Sitting portions of the match – firing 100-3x and 100-4x, respectively.

Micaela Wojnar, 16, of Milan, OH, was the high junior of the match – finishing in fifth place overall with her outstanding score of 385-8x.

Along with SAFS, a junior highpower clinic and advanced clinic was also held on the Camp Perry ranges. The clinics catered to those who wished to acquire even more fundamental teaching as well as those who were looking for more progressive instruction.

The CMP-Remington Advanced Highpower Clinic offers in-depth learning through classroom and dry-fire exercises on the range. The course is led by members of the Remington-Bushmaster Team and headed by retired U.S. Marine and former non-commissioned officer in charge of the Marine shooting team, Ken Roxburgh. This year, over 50 students took the course.

During the CMP-USMC (United States Marine Corps) Junior Highpower Clinic, members of the USMC shooting team provided classroom instruction and also conducted live firing practice on the range from the 200, 300 and 600 yard lines. The group of over 140 juniors learned many variables of the sport including effects of weather, maintenance, positioning and sight alignment.

“We take what we know from being on the Marine Corps shooting team and basically teach them what we know,” said Sgt. Mark Windmassinger, staff non-commissioned officer in charge.

This year’s clinic was somewhat different than past years, with the removal of the EIC match. However, the absence of the match brought an exceptional learning opportunity for the junior marksmen – actually allowing the instructors to give even more personal attention to each junior.

“It gives us a lot more time to work with the shooters one-on-one – slow down, take a little more time. And it's a lot more effective – we've seen a lot better results this year," Sgt. Windmassinger said.

John Watson was the overall winner of the SAFS M16 EIC Match.

Micaela Wojnar was the high junior of the M16 match, finishing in fifth place overall.

Andrew Miller, 15, of Fallbrook, CA, is a member of the California Grizzlies junior team and participated in the USMC Clinic with his teammates. Having shot highpower for two years, he knows the fundamentals of marksmanship and now uses the clinic as a way to prepare for the events ahead during the National Matches.

"It's a good chance to get your zeroes confirmed because when you're at a different range, your zeroes will change. So this is practice," he said. "The instructors are also very helpful."

And the best part about taking the clinic at the revered Camp Perry?

"It's fun. This is way nicer than my range," Andrew said with a smile.

Team of Rutherford, Armstrong Win Vintage Sniper for Third Time at 2015 National Games Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Winning the Vintage Sniper Team Match at the 2015 National Matches was team “Double D” – consisting of Douglas Armstrong, 55, of Lexington, NC, and Glendale “Don” Rutherford, 63, of Tallapoosa, GA. The duo fired an aggregate score of 393-19x. Armstrong finished first overall as an individual in a group of 519 competitors.

The two men are used to winning the match now – having won three of the five times it's been shot at Nationals. In 2012, they set a new National Record of 398-17x. The next year, they decided to team up again and landed in second place, only to reclaim their spot at the top of the pack again in 2014, with a vengeance – setting a new National Record of 398-23x.

The way they shoot, it would seem the two have been next to each other on the firing line for decades. But, in fact, it was the Vintage Sniper Match that brought them together in the first place.

Four years ago, Doug made a trip to CMP South to buy some tight-fitting Garand stocks two weeks before the National Matches at Camp Perry. Assisting Doug at the store was Don's brother, Leon, who works for the CMP. It was there, in the CMP South Store, that one of the most significant conversations in Doug's shooting career happened.

Leon said, “Hey, Doug – you got a partner for the sniper match?”

Doug replied, “Nah, I don't, but I'll find someone when I get there.”

Leon went on, “Oh, why don't you shoot with my brother, Don? He's a good shot – All Guard guy, he's been shooting for a long time.”

Doug, somewhat reluctantly, said, “Well, I don't think I know him – but okay.”

Once they met up at Perry, Doug and Don realized they had actually known each other for years – recognizing the faces, just not the names. But even more so than finding a new old friend, they realized they have an incredible bond and strength as shooting partners.

“And we've never looked back since then,” Doug said with a smile.

During their time as partners, they've won three of the four years. The year they lost was by one point, partly because of one bad shot dropped at the 300 yard firing line – which Don says should always be shot clean.

This year, the duo was down four points coming off of 300 after dealing with terrible wind conditions. Don, at first, was nervous before going back to the 600 yard line for the final phase, but Doug's reassurance and Don's confidence in their bond as a team kept him optimistic.

Don explained, with his low Southern drawl, “I thought we were done, momentarily, but then I turned back and looked at the 600, and I said, ‘The only hope we got is to go back there and shoot the eyes out of it’ – and we had a 99 and a 98.”

With that, the two squeaked out their third win – and only by two “x” shots.

So, with so many victories under their belts, what's their secret?

According to Don, it's, “Doug Armstrong,” he said with a laugh.

“I'm bleeding from the heart,” Don said. “I can put a steel plate out at 300 and lay it flat, and I can tell Doug Armstrong, ‘Doug, hit that steel plate on the left side, and we're going to skip it into the x-ring at 300 yards,’ and he'll do it for me. That's how much confidence I have in him. He's amazing.”

Doug had a different theory. “There's really no secret. But to get the rifle to shoot really well, the stock has to fit really well.”

One of the rifle's the men use during the Vintage Sniper is Doug's own creation – a sort of Frankenstein monster out on the firing line – constructed from many different rifle parts and obviously capable of some devastation.

When figuring out a new rifle to build, Doug just happened to have an old 1940 Springfield C Stock – a real 1940

C Stock – that fit his action perfectly. The action itself is from another rifle, and the barrel is an old Palma barrel that had been re-chambered by a gunsmith friend of Doug's to fit .30-06 ammo. In addition to that, Doug purchased the scope off of eBay.

With his rifle finally together, all that was left was to find a sufficient load – a task that became a difficult one for Doug.

"I couldn't figure it out," he said. "It was a month before the Eastern Games, and I still had no load that would shoot."

During that time, he happened to be ordering some new M1903 Springfield parts from a gentleman in California. Through a series of email conversations, the man suggested creating a hand load that might work. Luckily enough for Doug, after trying it out, it did.

"And that's what we've been using ever since," said Doug. "A lot of weird things came together like that."

Along with their equipment, the two credit each other and their performances behind the rifle for their accomplishments. They just can't seem to give one another enough compliments.

"Our success is right here – seriously," said Don, pointing to Doug. "He does so much."

Turning that finger around, Doug pointed to Don. "Don's very modest. He's a master wind reader – one of the best I've ever seen at reading the conditions. He's way better at it than I am, and he communicates really well."

Don continued on about Doug's talent as a marksman, saying, "He does the homework on the range with our load and our plan. He's a machinist by trade, so he's very detailed – a perfectionist, and it pays off."

Another thing Don credits is their ability to interact with each other. Both men constantly talk, discussing every key element – right down to the target number. The two also alternate between using each other's rifles for different reasons, with each having its own strengths at different yard lines.

Don added, "It is a combination of both of us, but Doug does the real legwork. He really does. I'm telling you like it is."

With custom equipment, precise communication and two extremely gifted marksmen pulling the triggers, Don and Doug make winning look easy. But now that the match is close to reaching its peak in popularity – nearly filled to capacity at this year's Matches – the members of "Double D" know they'll have their work cut out for them in the future.

This year's turn out for the Vintage Sniper Match was even larger than last year's – filling almost to capacity.

The Vintage Sniper Match is a team event fired from sandbags at 300 and 600 yards. Communication is key between partners in this challenging and fun match.

"This match is getting harder and harder to win every year," said Doug, speaking of the other talent alongside him on the firing line. "You've got to pick up your game every year."

"It's a lot of hard work," Don said.

"That's all there is to it," Doug added.

Special thanks to Krieger Barrels, who provided a new barrel for both Don and Doug for their win in the Vintage Sniper Match.

Betzold, Stout Set New Carbine Records During 2015 National Games Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Victor Betzold, 60, of Bel Air, MD, left the 2015 National Matches with more than just memories – he also left with a trunk full of plaques and donated rifle supplies after placing or firing a high score in virtually every CMP Games Match during rifle week.

Betzold is no stranger to shooting – beginning in junior high and firing well into college, then taking his love for guns into the Army. After the years went on and work and family became higher priorities, he fell away from the sport he loved. But now that he’s retired, he’s had time to practice again – practice that has certainly paid off.

“It feels great,” he said. “I’ve been working at this for a long time.”

During his remarkable showing at the National Games Matches, he set a new National Record and won the Carbine Match with a score of 375-6x. He was also the high senior of the event.

Also setting a new National Record was the high junior of the Carbine match, Mark Stout II, 17, of Waterford, MI, with an outstanding score of 362-5x.

Victor Betzold was the overall winner and High Senior of the Carbine Match – setting a new record. He was also the overall winner in the Garand Match and earned the Three Gun Aggregate honor. COL (promotable) Gordon Ellis presented Victor with his trophy plaque.

In the National Garand Match, Betzold fired a score of 290-7x to become the overall winner of a field of 1213 competitors. Betzold was also the high senior of the event. Gabe Rampy, 17, of Bremen, GA, was the high junior of the match with a score of 287-8x.

Mark Ausieker, 44, of Wenona, IL, was the overall leader in the National Springfield Match, with a score of 294-7x. High junior of the event was Joseph Albany, 20, of High Point, NC, who fired a score of 282-2x, as Victor Betzold again overtook the high senior honor. A total of 739 competitors entered the Springfield Match.

During the Vintage Military Match, Matthew Slocum, 34, of Philadelphia,

Gabe Rampy, 17, of Bremen, GA, was the high junior of the Garand Match with a score of 287-8x. COL (promotable) Gordon Ellis presented Gabe with his trophy plaque.

Victor Betzold was the overall winner of the Carbine Match – setting a new record. He was also the overall winner in the Garand Match and earned the Three Gun Aggregate honor. Mrs. Judy Legerski, Chairman, CMP Board of Directors, presented Victor with his trophy plaque.

PA, used his M1917 to fire a score of 289-6x for the win. Sean Stuckey, 16, of Van Wert, OH, was the high junior of the match, firing a score of 271-2x with his K31. Donald LaBeff, 60, of Saginaw, MI, earned the spot of high senior after firing a score of 288-3x – also with a K31. The event saw 488 entries.

Victor Betzold, with his outstanding performances in the Garand and Springfield Matches, as well as an exceptional seventh place finish in the Vintage Military Match, claimed the 3-Gun Aggregate title for the second year in a row – with a combined score of 865-19x.

Payne, James Set New Records at 2015 National Rimfire Sporter Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – On August 1, the National Rimfire Sporter Match was held on a hot, sunny day to a group of over 300 competitors. With last year’s event cancelled due to weather, competitors were eager this year to get on the firing line and take part in one of the Civilian Marksman Program’s most popular events.

Competitors in the match fire smallbore sporter rifles in three different classes: T-Class (telescoped rifles), O-Class (open sights) and Tactical. A winner, high junior, high woman and high senior is awarded from each class, based on scores.

Samuel Payne, 16, of Kingston, GA, was the match winner of the T-Class with an exceptional score of 599-46x. He was also the high junior and the high 4-H junior.

Back at the Eastern CMP Games in May, Payne became the first competitor to ever fire a clean score of 600 in the Rimfire Sporter Match. At the National Matches,

Samuel Payne of Kingston, GA, was the match winner of the T-Class with an exceptional score of 599-46x. He was also the high junior, the high 4-H junior and set a new National Record.

Payne arrived with the hopes of duplicating his Eastern Games performance with another historical win.

“I wanted to shoot a 600 because I didn’t want to do so good there (Eastern Games), then come out here and do worse at the bigger competition,” he said.

The one point he dropped in the match was during his standing rapid fire – his third shot. From his scope, he thought the shot may have been close to the 10 ring, so he continued on as if he was still on track with his perfect performance.

“I didn’t know until after I finished shooting [that I didn’t make the 10 ring], which is probably good because it would’ve messed me up a little more,” he said with a smile.

Although he didn’t reach his goal of repeat perfection, Payne still made history by setting a new National Record – beating the previous score of 598-35x previously set by Jacob Guay in 2012.

“It’s awesome,” he said. “It’s almost as good as a perfect score because it’s the thing to beat. It feels pretty good.”

Next year, Payne plans to come back to set a new record – a perfect score at Nationals.

Scott Schindehette, 70, of Saginaw, MI, was the high senior of the T-Class with a score of 588-28x, while Amy Trombley, 50, of Canton, MI, earned a score of 585-31x to become the high woman.

In the Tactical Class, Theodore James, 36, of Woodville, OH, fired an outstanding score of 595-37x to claim the match winner title. His performance also set a new National Record, beating the previous score of 593-30x set by Ron Villanueva in 2012.

High junior of the Tactical Class was Brianna Toikkanen, 17, of Conneaut, OH, with a score of 563-24x. Roger Burdick, 59, also of Conneaut, OH, was the high senior of the match with a score of 592-35x. Burdick was the third place finisher overall. Rene Baldwin, 50, of Ellwood City, PA, earned the high woman honor with a score of 568-10x.

Winning the O-Class was Don Moore, 65, of Chattanooga, TN, who fired a score of 585-30x. Moore was also the high senior of the class. Amanda LaBeff, 33, of Saginaw, MI, was the high woman, with a score of 560-13x.

Samuel Payne was the high junior with a score of 583-23x. Payne also was the second place finisher in the O-Class and the high 4-H junior.

AiR 15 Challenge Grows Over 100 Entries at 2015 National Match Air Gun Events

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – The Top 20 competitors of the AiR 15 Challenge met on the firing line at the world-class facilities of the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center for a Shoulder-to-Shoulder shoot-off and a chance to earn prize money. With 100 more entries into this year’s Challenge than last year’s, the popularity of the event is clearly growing.

Competitors qualify for the shoot-off in a 20 Shot re-entry match. During the final, shooters receive a 5 minute sighter period, followed by 20 record shots in a time limit of 22 minutes. The marksman with the highest score derived from those 20 shots is deemed the winner of the shoot-off.

This year’s winner, with an outstanding score of 199-7x, was SFC Brandon Green, 30, of the Army Marksmanship Unit. With his win, Green also received a check of $700 from the CMP.

An accomplished Service Rifle competitor, SFC Green actually got his start in competitive shooting in sporter air rifle for a JROTC unit in Louisiana. After shooting sporter for a few years, he switched to precision in high school before joining the Army and becoming a member of the Service Rifle Team, which he has now done for the past 12 years.

Often seen on the line during the AiR 15 Challenge at the National Matches, he has placed every time he’s shot the match – giving him hundreds of extra dollars during his trips to the National Matches.

“I think, mainly, people come in here to train,” Green explained. “It’s convenient to train and compete – get a little of that match pressure. That’s the reason that I come in to do it. Just to get time on the sights – time on the gun. Plus, it’s exciting to come in and shoot for a little bit of money.”

“Come out and try it,” he added. “It’s a good time.”

Coming in second place and receiving $500 was SSG John Cogshall, 30, of the Army National Guard, with a score of 197-9x. Civilian Thomas Holm, 46, of Sioux City, IA, claimed the third place spot with a score of 196-4x. Holm received $350 from the CMP. Monetary awards were also given to competitors in fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh place.

to center. Out of 86 competitors, this year’s winner was Chris Mollis, 70, of Fremont, OH, who fired a 10.9 within 6.2718 mm of center. For his win, Mollis will receive a monetary prize from the CMP, based on the number of entries. The next seven closest competitors will also receive money for their efforts.

Jaren Nofzinger, 11, of Fremont, OH, won the Novice Prone Sporter Match – cleaning the phase with a score of 200-5x. The event is designed for young shooters aged 8-12 who are just beginning their shooting careers. Novice Prone introduces them to the exciting world of competitive shooting in a safe and fun way.

Winning the 60 Shot Air Pistol event was Alexander Chichkov, 21, of Tampa, FL, with a score of 579-1x. Chichkov also won the event at last year’s National Match Air Events as a junior.

High woman of the event was Lyudmila Andrianova, 21, of Schaumburg, IL, with a score of 517-3x. Gary Peterson, 67, of Levittown, NY, fired a score of 548-8x to become the high senior, while Robert Yarrito, 18, of Phoenix, AZ, shot a 520-6x to earn the spot as high junior.

A Top Center Shot is also awarded during the 30 Shot Air Pistol Match to the competitor who fired the closest shot to center. As with the 20 Shot Sporter Match, the top eight competitors closest to center will receive monetary prizes. Winning the Center Shot Contest was Konstantin Pitsoulis, 45, of Brooklyn, NY, who fired a 10.9 within 0.1140 mm of center. With 377 total entries, Pitsoulis will receive nearly $200 for his win.
