

2019 Gary Anderson Invitational Match Program 7 - 8 December 2019

Hosted by:
Civilian Marksmanship Program
CMP Competition Centers
Anniston, Alabama & Camp Perry, Ohio

Invitation: You are invited to participate in the 2019 Gary Anderson Invitational, to be hosted at both the CMP Competition Center South in Anniston, Alabama, and at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center at Camp Perry, Ohio. The match is a junior three-position air rifle match that is a sanctioned CMP Cup Match and an outstanding competition opportunity for every school or junior club shooting team.

This event is named after the former Director of the Civilian Marksmanship Gary Anderson, whose influence and guidance has significantly impacted the success of three-position air rifle shooting. We sincerely hope you and your team will join us in Anniston or at Camp Perry in December for a great competition.

Gary Anderson: Gary Anderson earned two Olympic gold medals, seven world championships, six world records and 16 national championships. No other American has won more Olympic and world championship three-position rifle titles. Anderson eventually transitioned from world champion to mentor - authoring, instructing and leading thousands of US shooters, young and old, civilian and military alike down a path of marksmanship, firearms safety and sportsmanship.

Anderson, who was appointed Director of Civilian Marksmanship in 1999, announced his retirement in December 2009. Today Anderson serves a DCM Emeritus where he provides occasional instruction and consulting. He remains busy in the US and abroad as Vice President of the International Shooting Sports Federation (the first American to serve in that capacity) and as President of the Board of USA Shooting. On July 7, 2015 the newly renovated competition center located in Camp Perry, Ohio was dedicated in honor of Mr. Anderson.

Gary Anderson Invitational History: This junior competition began in 1996 as the Atlanta 500 Air Rifle Championship. From 1997 through 2000, it was known as the Wolf Creek 600. In 2001, the match location changed from the Wolf Creek Olympic Complex near Atlanta to the Army Marksmanship Unit ranges at Fort Benning, GA. That year the Wolf Creek Young Shooters Association renamed the match the Gary Anderson Invitational. In 2009 the CMP took over the sponsorship of the Gary Anderson Invitational and conducted the match at the CMP Marksmanship Center - South in Anniston, Alabama. The match is now hosted at both CMP Competition Centers. The National Three Position Air Rifle Council sanctions this three-position air rifle invitational as an open CMP Cup match.

CMP COMPETITION CENTERS.

Both ranges have 80 firing points equipped with electronic targets. All shots are instantly displayed on monitors beside each shooter and on display screens visible to spectators in the center area of the range. All firing is controlled by a computer operations center in the middle of the range. The events at each range will be run simultaneously and all scores will be uploaded to the CMP's Competition Tracker website. Scores from both matches will be compiled to determine winners.

Three-Position Air Rifle Tournament: This tournament has four competition events: Individual Sporter, Individual Precision, Team Sporter and Team Precision. All competitors will fire a three-position 3X20 course of fire and a 10-shot final that will be fired immediately following each relay. For individual rankings, the 10-shot final round scores will be added to the 60-shot scores of the competitors who had the top eight sporter and precision class 60-shot totals (Rule 10.1.3.) The individual 3X20 scores fired by the four members on each team will be used to determine team winners. Final round scores are not used for team totals.

RULES AND SANCTIONING: The competition will be governed by the 2018-2020 National Standard Three-Position Air Rifle Rules. Copies of the rules may be downloaded from the CMP website at <http://thecmp.org/wp-content/uploads/Rules.pdf?ver=101818>. The match is sanctioned by the National Three-Position Air Rifle Council as a CMP Cup Match so that scores may be recognized as National Records and competitors can earn EIC credit points that count towards earning the Junior Distinguished Badge.

Eligibility – All competitors must be school-age juniors (grade 12 or below) who comply with Rule 3.1 of the National Standard Rules. Team entries may represent schools or clubs.
