National Trophy Rifle Matches

A Message from the DCM:

The CMP is pleased to provide this souvenir printed edition of the Final Results of the 2007 National Trophy Rifle Matches. 3,179 individual shooters participated in CMP rifle events and schools during the 2007 "Camp Perry Centennial" National Matches. Overall, a record 4,123 individuals participated in the CMP rifle and pistol events of the 2007 National Matches. We thank all of you for coming to Camp Perry and making this year's matches another great success.

2007 highlights included record numbers in the Rimfire Sporter, Hearst Doubles, M1 Carbine, Springfield Rifle and Vintage Military Rifle Matches. Your cooperation helped us effectively manage waiting lists and ranges filled to capacity in the Rifle Small Arms Firing School and the Springfield and Vintage Military Rifle Matches. The 1,371 competitors who turned in scorecards for the 2007 John C. Garand Match made it the biggest National Matches event ever since the days of full military support in the 1960s.

The 2007 National Matches shooting heroes included:

- o SFC Grant Singley, who won the Mountain Man Trophy to establish himself as the overall top service rifle shooter in the 2007 National Matches.
- o SGT Kristopher Friend, USAR, who won the President's Rifle Match in a new final stage format that put unprecedented pressure on the top competitors, but that also brought unprecedented television and Internet exposure to service rifle shooting.
- o SSgt Jason Benedict, USMC, who predicted his victory in the National Trophy Individual Rifle Match and then won it.
- o Kevin Trickett, who was the top junior shooter on the Deneke Trophy National Junior Team list.
- o Marine Reservists GySgt Julia Watson and Sgt Eric Swearingen, who won the Hearst Doubles Match.
- o USAMU teams that won both the Infantry Trophy and the National Trophy Team Matches.
- o CMP Games Matches winners Robert Elka and John Merges Jr. in Rimfire Sporter, James Morris, M16 EIC; David Chase, M1 Carbine; James Sinclair, Springfield Rifle; Mark Looney, Vintage Military Rifle; and Jeff Banz, Garand Match.

The CMP extends sincere thank yous to everyone who made significant contributions to another great National Matches, especially:

- o The Army Marksmanship Unit and coaches representing Active and Reserve teams from the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force and Coast Guard who led a superb Rifle Small Arms Firing School.
- o The USMC Rifle Team for getting the juniors off to another outstanding start in the Junior Highpower Camp.
- o The NRA staff and range volunteers who operated the ranges with efficiency, courtesy and skill.
- o The National Match Armory; Compass Lake Engineering; Bushmaster Firearms, Arrington Accuracy Works and Rock River Arms for their splendid presentation rifles.
- o Bill Gordon, Photomaker, Port Clinton OH, for photo support.
- o The Ohio National Guard Camp Perry staff headed by Fort Ohio Commander COL Jim Chisman; the USAR soldiers who handled transportation, medical, signal and other duties and certainly the CMP staff who continued their tradition of dedicated service to shooters.

We sincerely hope all of you had a great experience at the 2007 "Camp Perry Centennial" National Matches and we hope to see you back at the 2008 National Matches.

National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

Mr. John McLaurin III Opens the 2007 “Centennial” National Matches

CAMP PERRY, OHIO – Over 600 officials, competitors and spectators gathered at Camp Perry’s Rodriguez Range for the 2007 National Matches First Shot Ceremony Monday afternoon.

The First Shot Ceremony is the traditional opening for the National Matches. This year’s speaker was Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army, Mr. John McLaurin III.

The National Matches, created by the U. S. Government in 1903, have a proud heritage that looks back to the National Rifle Association’s ‘Annual Matches’ that began in 1871 and to the establishment of Camp Perry in 1907.

The ceremony began with a parachute jump by MAJ Larry Henry and SFC Ronald Piwarski of Company B, 2nd Battalion, 19th Special Forces Group of the Ohio National Guard, that brought an American flag onto Drop Zone Camp Perry from a UH-60 Blackhawk piloted by CWO4 Rob Diamond of the 137th Aviation Battalion also of the Ohio National Guard. This flag was then passed to the master of ceremonies, CMP Director Gary Anderson, and then to a color guard that raised it on the main Camp Perry flagpole to begin the ceremony.

Congresswoman Marcy Kaptur provided the flag, which was flown over the U.S. Capital in recognition of the Camp Perry Centennial National Matches.

Members of the 122nd Army Band, under the direction of CWO3 Robin Kessler played the National Anthem. They also performed a concert for the audience prior to and after the ceremony.

At the end of the National Anthem, two F-16 Fighting Falcons, piloted by Col. Richard “Rooster” Lohnes, Commander, and Col. Craig Wallace of the 178th Tactical Fighter Wing, Ohio National Guard, flew over Rodriguez Range in a salute to the opening of the Camp Perry Centennial National Matches.

The Governor of Ohio, Ted Strickland, was scheduled to speak and present two resolutions during the ceremony. Unfortunately, Governor Strickland had a family emergency and could not attend. In his place, Maj. Gen. Greg Wayt, the Adjutant General of Ohio and a member of the Governor’s cabinet, spoke and presented the two resolutions commending the NRA and the Civilian Marksmanship Program.

CMP Director Gary Anderson then introduced the First Shot Speaker, Mr. John McLaurin III, Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army. Mr. McLaurin holds a Juris Doctor Degree from the University of Mississippi and is a graduate of the Army War College. He retired as a Colonel in the U.S. Army Judge Advocate General’s Corps.

Mr. McLaurin aims Bushmaster Limited Edition Camp Perry National Match DCM-XR Series Rifle, serial number one of 100, as he prepares to shoot the ‘First Shot of the 2007 matches.’

Mr. McLaurin was actively involved in the creation of the CMP. In 1995, while working for the Congress, he drafted a bill that established the CMP as a federally-chartered non-profit corporation.

He was sworn into the Senior Executive Service in 1995. In his current position as Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army – Human Resources, his areas of responsibility include Active, Guard and Reserve Component’s personnel matters and Accessions programs.

Mr. McLaurin began by inviting the crowd to take off their jackets due to the hot weather. He spoke of the early marksmanship of the pioneers that gave birth to America and the values that were taught by the shooting sports such as discipline and obedience to orders. “Were it not for the marksmanship of our forefathers, there would be no United States of America,” he stated.

He fondly recalled attending the 2007 National Junior ROTC Air Rifle Championship. He said, “the values displayed by [those] young men and women can raise goose bumps on your arms and bring tears to [your] eyes.”

“Without shooting sports in America,” said McLaurin, “it would be a whole lot more difficult to mold the future leaders of America. What you see in the press about what is happening with America’s youth is not what’s happening with American’s youth who are in marksmanship.”

After McLaurin’s speech, Anderson invited him to step to the firing line to fire the ceremonial first shot to officially open the 2007 National Matches.

The rifle that was used to fire this year’s First Shot is serial number one of 100 Bushmaster Limited Edition Camp Perry National Match DCM-XR Series Rifles. Anderson described it as “a prime example of the high quality competition service rifles that are used in the National Matches.”

Bushmaster is selling the remainder of the series at the 2007 National Matches and will contribute $100 from every Limited Edition Camp Perry National Match DCM-XR Series Rifles sold to the CMP’s Junior Highpower National Match Support Program. This program is used to help pay travel and competition expenses for junior shooters who participate in the National Trophy Rifle Matches.

The First Shot Ceremony ended with a Mr. McLaurin posing with competitors, spectators and several military teams.

National Matches Juniors Learn Advanced Highpower Skills from Marine Shooters

By Wendy Sedlacek/CMP Journalism Intern

On 27-29 July, during the first three days of the 2007 National Trophy Rifle Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, 117 junior highpower rifle shooters from across the country participated in classroom and on-the-range instruction given by the U.S Marine Corps Rifle Team. The CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Camp, which was coordinated by the CMP and conducted by the Marine Corps Team, has become a traditional start of the National Matches as well as a learning opportunity that the country's best junior highpower service rifle shooters look forward to each year. The clinic includes classroom presentations, on-the-range demonstrations and lots of one-on-one coaching from Marine Corps team members. In order to attend the school, participants must have previously attended a Rifle Small Arms Firing School or achieved an advanced highpower rifle classification.

Camp registration took place on Friday morning, 27 July. The first afternoon was spent in classroom instruction where Marine shooters gave presentations on the shooting positions and techniques for firing the highpower course of fire. Everyone moved to the range on Saturday morning for a full day of on-the-range instructional sessions and demonstrations followed by practice firing at 200 and 300 yards. Instruction and practice for 600 yard firing continued on the following morning. Each shooter also had opportunities to get personal instruction from the Marines to address their specific training needs.

The three-day camp closed with a pizza party sponsored by Bushmaster Firearms. Gary Anderson, CMP Director, and GySgt Tim Hamler, Marine Corps Rifle Team NCOIC, presented certificates to each participant. Every junior in the camp also received a Marine Corps Rifle Team sweatshirt and a USMC Junior Highpower Clinic T-shirt as well as souvenir items from Bushmaster. After the camp, most of the juniors approached Marine Corps Rifle Team members to offer thanks for their instruction and assistance. The CMP certainly wishes to offer its commendations and thanks to the Marine Corps Rifle Team for their superb work in making this year's CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Camp a success!

The USMC Junior Highpower Rifle Camp began with members of the Marine Corps Rifle Team giving classroom instruction on shooting positions and techniques.

Juniors in the camp received individual coaching from USMC shooters while they were practicing.

The President's Rifle Trophy Match Was An "On The Edge Of Your Seat" Show For Everyone!

By Wendy Sedlacek/CMP Journalism Intern

The President's Rifle Match was first fired as a military rifle match in 1894. When the National Matches were established in 1903, it was incorporated into the National Matches program and has become one of the most important of all National Matches events. The winner of the President's Match receives a congratulatory letter from the President of the United States, the President's Rifle Trophy and a presentation M1 Garand rifle. In 1904, Theodore Roosevelt began the tradition of providing a letter of congratulations to the winner and most U. S. Presidents since have honored this practice, including Presidents Clinton and Bush.

On Monday, 30 July, 2007, the President's Rifle Match kicked off with 85 degree temperatures and a light breeze coming off of Lake Erie. 1,258 eager participants began shooting on Rodriguez and Viale ranges at 7:00 A.M. All competitors fired the first 30 shots of the course of fire to determine the 100 shooters who would make the President's 100 and the top 20 shooters who would advance to a final stage of ten additional shots. The first 30 shots were 10 shots standing at 200 yards, 10 shots rapid-fire prone at 300 yards, and 10 shots slow-fire prone at 600 yards. For the first time this year, a shoot-off for the top 20 competitors was conducted that extended their course of fire to 40 shots. The shoot-off took place on Rodriguez Range where the top 20 competitors fired 10 additional shots in the prone position at 600 yards, one-shot-at-a-time. Their final stage scores were added to their scores from the previous three stages to determine their final placing. The fourth stage format took place in front of several hundred spectators and a television crew from Shooting USA. It was designed to showcase the top service rifle competitors in a pressure-packed match ending that added additional drama, excitement and visibility to this match and to service rifle shooting.

The last stage lived up to its advance billing. 21-year-old SGT Kristoffer Friend, a U. S. Army Reservist from Cheshire, Connecticut started the fourth stage in third place, but he fired a 99-4x in front of the large crowd and with the outcome of the match on the line to vault into first place. SGT Friend was a member of the Connecticut Junior Rifle Team, coached by Brad Palmer, until last year, when he joined the USAR team. The entire Connecticut Junior Rifle Team, his USAR teammates and many friends were there to support him through the final stage. Friend said he was extremely nervous and even had nightmares the night before about bringing the wrong gun or the wrong ammo to the match, but that did not stop him from hitting the X and 10 rings nine of his ten shots.

SGT Friend's 40-shot total, including his fourth stage score, was a very impressive 392-10X. His began the match with a 94-2X in 200-yard standing. He added a 99-2X in prone rapid fire and a perfect 100-2X at 600 yards. He began the last stage with a 293-6X, three points behind the leader and one point behind second place. Even when the leaders at the start of the final stumbled on their first three shots, Friend did not have an easy road to victory because there were nine other shooters who began the final stage just one point behind him with 292s. Friend, handled the pressure exceptionally well. He opened with 10-X-X-10 and then shot his only 9. By the fourth shot he had moved into a lead that he never relinquished. Once declared the winner, Friend was surprised; the first words out of his mouth were, "I can't believe it! I have to call my mom!"

Directly behind Friend, coming in second was Thomas Rider of Bellefonte, PA. Rider also fired a 99-4X in the final to total 391-11X. Rider started the final one point behind Friend and kept the match extremely close. Third place went to Justin Utley of Mineola, TX, who fired a total score of 390-12X, just one point away from second place. Utley began the final in 17th place, but he also fired a 99 in the final to climb all the way to third.

After the shoot-off, Lt. General John S. Crosby, U. S. Army Ret., and a member of the CMP Board of Directors, presented awards to the top 20 shooters and the President's Rifle Trophy to SGT Friend.

SGT Kristopher Friend, USAR, holds the facsimile target kept by his scorer during the final stage to display the locations of his ten shots. Friend's final stage was an excellent 99-4X that vaulted him from third into first place at the end of the match.

SGT Kristopher Friend, USAR, poses with the President's Rifle Trophy after it was presented to him immediately after the final stage by Lt. General John Crosby, USA (Ret.). General Crosby is a member of the CMP Board of Directors.

Marine Corps Shooter Wins National Matches Daniel Boone Trophy

By Gary Anderson, DCM

Marine Corps Staff Sergeant Jason Benedict was in CMP Headquarters a few days before the National Trophy Rifle Matches to plan a clinic the Marine Corps Rifle Team was to conduct during the Matches. While he was there, he wrote a prophetic message on a large whiteboard the CMP staff uses to list important tasks to be accomplished. Benedict's message stated, "prepare M1 Garand for SSgt Benedict." It referred to the special presentation M1 Garand that the CMP and the National Match Armory of Rendon, Texas would award to the winner of the National Trophy Individual Match that took place at Camp Perry on 31 July.

Benedict's prophetic message came true when he fired a 497-22X score in the 2007 National Trophy Individual Rifle Match that not only won the prestigious Daniel Boone Trophy, but also set a new National Matches record. The old National Matches record was set by SFC Grant Singley, U. S. Army, who fired a 497-21X score in 2000.

Even though his score was a new record, Benedict did not win an easy victory. Civilian shooter Robert Modica from Peekskill, New York, also fired a 497, but with 14Xs. Just behind Modica in third place was the former record holder, SFC Singley. He also totaled 22Xs, but had one less point with a 496.

The outstanding scores could be attributed not only to great shooting by many of the top shooters in this year's National Matches, but also to ideal weather. Temperatures were in the mid to high 80s, with light, steady winds. Altogether, over 1,200 competitors fired in the 2007 National Trophy Rifle Individual Match. The National Trophy Individual Rifle Match is not only a contest to see which shooters win one of several important national trophies, but it is also a national Excellence-in-Competition match where the top ten percent of the Non-Distinguished shooters receive EIC points that count towards earning the Distinguished Rifleman Badge. The top Non-Distinguished competitor was the winner of the President's Rifle Match that took place on the preceding day. SGT Kristopher Friend, USAR, had a 493-22X score in this match that not only made him the high Non-Distinguished shooter and the 13th place shooter overall, but the EIC points he earned gave him the 30 points he needed to earn his Distinguished Rifleman Badge.

A total of 90 Non-Distinguished shooters earned EIC points in this match. 14 of them including two junior shooters "legged out." That means the points they earned in the National Trophy Individual Match plus the EIC points they previously earned totaled the 30 or more points needed to now receive their Distinguished Rifleman Badges. Twelve of those badges were presented at the National Trophy Award Ceremony on Friday evening, 3 August.

Marine Corps Staff Sergeant Jason Benedict set a new National Matches Record of 497-22X enroute to winning the National Trophy Individual Rifle Match and the Daniel Boone and Coast Artillery Trophies.

National Matches Team Matches

By Gary Anderson, DCM

Team Matches are a big part of the National Trophy Rifle Matches program. Many shooters and coaches regard the National Trophy Team Match, in particular, as the most important trophy and team championship in American marksmanship. The National Trophy, which was commissioned by the U. S. Congress in 1903, goes to the overall winning team in the National Trophy Team Match, but the Soldier of Marathon Trophy for the top Civilian team, the Hilton Trophy for the top Reserve Component Team and the Minuteman Trophy for the top Junior team, along with the Infantry, Hearst and Whistler Boy Trophies represent especially prestigious team titles that service rifle teams all over the country put great effort into trying to win.

Three days of the National Trophy Rifle Matches schedule are dedicated to team competitions. After three days of individual competition in the M16EIC, President's and National Trophy Individual Matches are over, the first team day is for two-person team matches. The Hearst Doubles Match is for open teams where shooters can choose any partner they wish. Hearst Doubles team members may coach each other, but they cannot have a separate coach. The Whistler Boy Match is for junior teams that represent clubs. Whistler teams can have coaches with them on the line.

242 teams with nearly 500 individual competitors completed the 2007 Hearst Doubles Match. Each team member fired 10 shots standing at 200 yards, 10 shots rapid fire prone at 300 yards and 10 shots slow-fire prone at 600 yards. Team members must pair fire the slow-fire stages.

Hearst Match results featured a close contest between two Marine Corps Reservists and two Army Marksmanship Unit shooters. The Army's SFC Grant Singley and SGT Brandon Green combined 295-10X and 294-12X scores to total 589-22X. Marine Reservists GySgt Julia Watson and Sgt Eric Swearingen combined 297-14X and 293-3X scores to total 590-17X and gain a one-point victory. Watson's 297-14X total was the top individual score of the day.

The Whistler Boy Junior Team Match was also highlighted by close competition where only two points separated the top three teams. Ryan Castonguay and Amanda Elsenboss of the Connecticut Palmer team fired 485-15X and 484-12X to total 969-27X. Elsenboss teamed with Julie Coggshall to win this match in 2006. Two teams, the California Grizzlies Gold and Washington State Rifle and Pistol Associations "Bad Applettes" both posted 971 totals. Kathryn Bugg fired 486-10X and Jason Case totaled 485-13X for the California team. Kelsi Unangst shot 486-13X and Jennifer Nyberg had 485-14X for the Washington team. The Washington team, which was coached by Jonathon Shew, had 27Xs to 23Xs for the California team to win the trophy. Shew is the CMP State Junior Director in Oregon. Jim O'Connell coached the California team, while Brad Palmer coached the Connecticut team. For the second consecutive year an all-girls team won the Whistler Boy Trophy.

The National Trophy Team Match is often called the "Big Team Match" by experienced service rifle shooters. Teams go on the line with six members, a coach and a team captain. One of the six firing members must be a "new shooter" who has not previously fired in this event. Developing a new shooter who can perform well under so much pressure is often a key to winning this match.

The U. S. Army Marksmanship Unit "Praslick" team used a strong performance at 600 yards to win the National Trophy in 2007. SSG Emil Praslick (right front) was the team coach. SGT Walter Craig was the team captain. Team members were SFT Grant Singley, SGT Brandon Green, SFC Lance Hopper, SFC Kyle Ward, SFC Lance Dement and SPC Matthew Sigrist (new shooter).

After winning both the six and ten-person team matches at the Interservice Matches immediately before the National Trophy Rifle Matches, the U. S. Army Marksmanship Unit team was the favorite to win this year. It was not to be an easy victory, however. In past years it was the Marines that challenged the Army team; indeed, in 2006, the Marines won big while setting a new National Matches record. The Marines started strong again this year. Their 579 six-person standing total, 597 sitting rapid fire and 591 prone rapid fire gave USMC Scarlet the lead after each of the first three stages. Going into the 600 yard stage, the Marines held a scant four-point lead over the Army and Army Reserve teams. But at 600 yards where the wind doping and coaching skills of team coach SSG Emil Praslick began to make a real difference, the USAMU team fired a combined 1174 total to gain a 13 point lead over USAR Gold that finished second. At the same time, the Marine team that was in the lead had a cross-fire and no single 600 yard score over 195 to drop all the way to sixth place.

One of the major trophies awarded during the matches is the Pershing Trophy that is awarded to the competitor who fires the highest individual score in the National Trophy Team Match. SFC Grant Singley, who led the Army Marksmanship Unit team, topped the Pershing Trophy list this year with a 496-22X total.

The Pennsylvania Rifle & Pistol Association Team won both the Soldier of Marathon Trophy for being the high Civilian team in the National Trophy Team Match and the Leatherneck Trophy for being the high Civilian team in the Infantry Team Match. Team captain was David Little, the team coach was William Gelet. Team members were Thomas Rider, Mark Heff, Bill Bowers, James Potter, Michael LaRuffa and Ron Smith, Jr.

By finishing second overall, the Army Reserves won the Hilton Reserve Component Trophy by ten points over the All-Guard team. The Pennsylvania State Team finished fourth overall with a 2908-81X total to take a 13-point victory in the Soldier of Marathon Trophy contest for the top Civilian team for a third time in the past three years. In the contest for the Minuteman Trophy that goes to the top Junior team, a Washington State team was once again victorious. The Washington State "Bad Apples" Junior Team finished with a ten-point 2849-67X to 2839-64X win over California Grizzlies Gold.

The final National Trophy Rifle Team Match is the Infantry Team Match. This team competition simulates a six-person infantry team that must distribute fire at eight different targets at distances of 600, 500, 300 and 200 yards. F silhouettes are used at 600 and 500; shorter E silhouettes are used at 300 and 200. Hits at 600 count four points, at 500 three points, at 300 two points and at 200 one point. Each team receives a bonus at each yard line equal to the square of the number of targets with six or more hits. Teams start with 384 rounds and must distribute them among their six team members according to their "fire plan." Firing stages at each of the four yard lines last 50 seconds. Strategies vary, but with the low recoil, rapid fire capabilities of the M16 rifle, top teams like the Army and Marines now strive to fire all 384 rounds at 600 and 500 yards where hits count the most. That's an average of 32 accurate shots in 50 seconds for each team member.

USAMU Hopper won this year's Infantry Trophy Match and the Infantry Trophy by a 119 point, 1330 to 1211 margin over USAR Gold. The USAR Gold team won the Celtic Chieftain Trophy as the high Reserve Component team. Pennsylvania finished third overall with a 1158 total to take the Leatherneck Trophy that is awarded to the high Civilian team. The Washington State R&PA "Bad Apples" junior team was fifth overall and won the Junior Infantry Trophy as the top Junior team.

USAMU Hopper easily won the 2007 Infantry Trophy Match. Team coach was SFC Lance Hopper. Team captain was SFC Lance Dement. Team firing members were SFC Kyle Ward, SFC Grant Singley, SSG Emil Praslick, SGT Brandon Green, SPC Elliot Farro and SPC Tyrel Cooper.

47 Shooters Earn Their First EIC Points During the National Matches M16 EIC Match

By Wendy Sedlacek/CMP Journalism Intern

The annual Rifle Small Arms Firing School took place at Camp Perry on 28-29 July 2007. More than 500 students participated in the classroom instruction, which was followed by a practice firing on Camp Perry's Viale Range.

The CMP administers the school and the U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit conducts SAFS training, range practice and the M16 EIC Match that concludes the school. The USAMU, along with military coaches from other services, are outstanding, experienced instructors and they work hard to give SAFS students two full days of instruction, assistance and guidance. Most students are new to target shooting, but many experienced shooters come back to the school for several years. SAFS students do their firing with rack-grade U.S Military M16 rifles. 5.56 mm ammunition for the practice and competition is provided as well as a SAFS t-shirt, and certificate.

On the second day of the school, Sunday, 29 July, all students were able to fire an M16 EIC Match, with all firing at 200 yards on the SR target. Competitors fired five sighting shots and 10 shots for record slow-fire prone, with a 15 minute time limit. The second stage is rapid-fire prone, where they shoot 10 shots in 60 seconds and rapid-fire sitting, which also consists of 10 shots in 60 seconds. The final stage is slow-fire standing where participants fire 10 shots in 10 minutes. The winner of the M16 EIC Match was James Morris of Pinson, AL, who shot an overall score of 381-6X. Morris is a Sergeant with the Trussville (Alabama) Police Department. This was his first time to attend the matches at Camp Perry and only his sixth rifle match. Morris shot a 98-3X in Prone SF, 97-2X in Prone RF, a 92-0X in sitting, and an excellent 94-1X in standing position. Coming in second, and just two points behind, was Duane Rubendall of Sycamore, IL, who ended the match with an aggregate score of 379-11X. Rubendall also had a great day, scoring a near perfect 99-3X during Prone SF, a 95-3X for Prone RF, an excellent 98-4X in sitting position, and an 87-1X during standing. Chris Bradley of Northfield, VT took third place with an aggregate score of 374-6X.

The M16 EIC Match is a "Special EIC Match" where the top ten percent of all competitors who have not previously earned any EIC points receive 4-point "introductory" legs. A total of 47 shooters earned EIC credit points to start them on their quests to earn the prestigious Distinguished Rifleman Badge. The cut-off for 4-point introductory legs was 349-6X. Pictures can be downloaded at <http://www.odcmp.com/Photos/07/RifleSAFS/index.htm>.

Sergeant James Morris of the Trussville (Alabama) Police Department was the 2007 M16 EIC Match Winner.

Military coaches were on the firing line to instruct SAFS students during the practice firing.

2007 “Camp Perry Centennial” National Matches Close

By Gary Anderson, DCM

National Matches Highpower Match Director Jim Hill had the honor of firing the canon that signaled “colors” at the Matches one last time on 14 August as the 2007 “Camp Perry Centennial” National Matches came to a close. It was Hill’s last day as Match Director after serving in that capacity for the CMP and NRA highpower rifle championships for the past 13 years. It was a memorable ending to a great National Matches and one more special experience in one of the most remarkable careers in marksmanship.

Hill began his career as a Marine Corps marksman where he won a series of Marine Corps, national and international titles in rifle competitions. Highlights included the National Highpower Rifle Championship in 1956, an Olympic Silver Medal in 1960 and the NRA National Smallbore Rifle Championship in 1964. He is one of just 36 Triple Distinguished shooters in the history of American Marksmanship, having won his Distinguished Rifleman Badge in 1956, his Distinguished International Shooters Badge in 1960 and his Distinguished Pistol Shot Badge in 1986. After his retirement from the Marine Corps he returned to Camp Perry many times where he won a series of Civilian service rifle titles. He also founded a successful shooting sports business, Creedmoor Sports Inc. in Oceanside, California. While in that business, Hill made significant contributions to the design of shooting clothing and equipment. For the last 15 years, Hill has served as an official in the National Matches, having been Highpower Match Director for the last 13 years.

The brief, but memorable ceremony that ended the 2007 National Matches began with Hill firing the canon that is fired each morning to signal colors and start the day’s firing. The USA, Ohio and Ottawa County flags were then lowered for the last time during the 2007 Matches as two buglers played taps. The Matches began on 9 July with a special First Shot Ceremony and continued for 37 days. Over 6,000 competitors participated in National Matches competitions that included Pistol and Rifle Small Arms Firing Schools, the NRA National Pistol Championship, CMP National Trophy Pistol Matches, NRA National Smallbore Rifle Championships, CMP National Rimfire Sporter Match, the CMP National Trophy Rifle and CMP Games Matches and the NRA National Highpower Rifle Championships.

The 2007 National Matches were unique because they celebrated 100 years of National Matches at Camp Perry. The Matches were established by the U. S. Congress and President Theodore Roosevelt in 1903. They came to Camp Perry for the first time in 1907 after Ohio Adjutant General Ammon Critchfield founded Camp Perry and convinced the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice that what was formerly swampland along the Lake Erie shore was an ideal site for the Matches. Since then, 83 National Matches have been held at Camp Perry and it is now regarded as the permanent home of the Matches.

After the flag lowering, representatives of the three National Matches partners, COL Jim Chisman, Camp Perry Commander, for the Ohio National Guard; Mr. Mike Krei, NRA Competitions Director, for the NRA and Gary Anderson, Director of Civilian Marksmanship, for the CMP; unveiled a plaque commemorating the planting of a Centennial Oak tree. The tree, a swamp oak, is located just north of CMP North headquarters.

Chisman, Krei and Anderson each made brief comments on the closing of the Centennial Matches. CMP Director Anderson noted “three significant things about the Camp Perry Centennial: first, that the National Matches are still at Camp Perry after 100 years; second, that we have now evolved an effective, true partnership involving the Ohio National Guard, NRA and CMP in the conduct of the Matches and third, that so many good things are happening at Camp Perry to give us confidence that just as the Centennial Oak will grow, the National Matches also will continue to grow.”

The 2007 National Matches are now over. After successfully completing 100 years of National Matches competitions at Camp Perry, the stage is now set for many more decades of National Matches at Camp Perry.

Retiring National Matches Highpower Match Director Jim Hill stands ready to fire the canon that will signal the lowering of the colors to end the 2007 National Matches.

NRA Competitions Director Mike Krei (l.), Camp Perry Commander COL Jim Chisman, OHNG (center) and CMP Director Gary Anderson (r.) unveil a plaque memorializing the planting of a Centennial Oak tree that commemorates the 2007 Camp Perry Centennial National Matches.

At the end of the 2007 National Matches closing ceremony, American flags that had flown over Camp Perry during the Matches were presented to Jim Hill (far right), who was retiring as Highpower Match Director, and Chuck Delano, (2nd from right) who was retiring as Range Director.

“M1 for Vets” Camp Perry 2007

By JJ O’Shea

The “M1 for Vets” project concluded another successful trip to Camp Perry, Ohio. Fifteen fine young veterans participated in the M1 Carbine, Springfield, and M1 Garand Matches. Many medals were won, and some excellent marksmanship skills were exhibited during the three days of competition.

The week began with a dinner at Nick’s Roadhouse on Wednesday evening, and a presentation of a “Key to the City” by Mayor Brown of Port Clinton. Our veterans and their coaches had time to meet and socialize, and a fine dinner was provided by Nick’s. Luckily, we never had to use the “Key”.

At 0Dark30 on Thursday, we assembled at Rodriguez Range to participate in the M1 Carbine Match. The first relay saw our coaches compete, and our veterans assist in scoring. Then the young men took their positions and shot the second relay. Caylen Wojcik, firing the Carbine for the first time, placed sixth overall. We figured all that training as a USMC Scout Sniper had something to do with it. All the guys shot well, and had a great time.

On Thursday evening, we traveled over to the VFW Post in Sandusky for a fine perch dinner. After dinner, we presented an M1 to Sgt. Stan Mayer, USMC. This rifle was donated by Ken Stein, who assisted in the presentation of the rifle. The young Marine could not take his hands off this rifle, and was overwhelmed with this special gift. Stan shot his M1 on Saturday, was coached by Ken, and scored a 272-2x. This M1 represented our 100th presentation. A special thanks goes to Dan Keating and the staff at the VFW Post.

Friday afternoon saw our group compete in the afternoon relays of the Springfield Match on Viale Range. Our coaches and veterans faired well, and many medals were won. The heat took a toll on our young men, but they all held tight and shot well. After the match, we headed over to Mel’s Crows Nest for a great meal.

After a delicious breakfast at the Port and Starboard Restaurant in Port Clinton, our group assembled on Viale Range to shoot in the afternoon relays in the M1 Garand Match. By this time, the winds coming off Lake Erie had let off, and the guys set to work on putting them in the black. Again, many of our guys shot well, and secured medals. Dale Beatty, USA(R), placed 35th overall, and won a gold medal.

During the closing ceremonies on Saturday evening, we presented our 101st rifle to Aaron Kibby, USA. Aaron competed with this M1 earlier in the day and won a silver medal. This rifle was made possible by a donation from the Brighton, Michigan VFW Post 4357. Four members of the post assisted in the presentation. Aaron received a standing ovation from all those in attendance. Thanks to Gary Anderson and CMP for allowing us this special time. We hope to do it again in 2008.

After everyone dispersed on Saturday evening, we kept our group of coaches and veterans together to make plans for dinner. I was approached by a young man and his father with a question concerning how many of our fifteen veterans had received rifles from our project. I informed him that three young Marines had yet to be presented rifles. He said he would take care of this situation, and went over to his vehicle and retrieved two rifles. Both these rifles were used by him in the Springfield and Garand matches, and he wanted to give them to our young veterans. I called LCpl. Travis Johnson, USMC, and let this donor hand Travis the 1903 Springfield. I then called up Cpl. Ron McKeirnan, USMC, and again let this donor hand the M1 Garand to Ron. We then had a donation that made it possible to present a 1903A3 to GySgt. Cory Willis, USMC. By this time, many of us had a few tears running down our cheeks. This was an unexpected, but wonderful way to finish off the day.

I want to thank all the coaches, volunteers, pit pullers, Team Mom Deb Larson, CMP staff, and everyone that helped make this trip possible. We received donations from the following clubs, organizations and individuals to help cover all costs involved with this event. If I have omitted any organization from this list, please contact me.

The “M1 for Vets” Project is not affiliated with CMP, NRA or any large firearms organization. It is a small, grassroots group of shooters and collectors that want to show their appreciation and respect for our young men and women that are serving our Nation. Almost all M1 recipients have been combat wounded, and want to continue to use the marksmanship skills they have acquired. We do not accept self-nominations, but rely on nominations from fellow brothers-in-arms, volunteers working at military hospitals, and prior recipients. Any and all help is greatly appreciated. Contact JJ O’Shea at jjoshea@msn.com.

The Michigan VFW Post 4357 presented Aaron Kibby, USA, with an M1 Garand. This was the 101st rifle presentation since the “M1 for Vets” program started.

CMP Communications & Information

www.odcmp.com The CMP maintains a large, detailed web site as a primary means of communicating with constituents. This web site may be viewed at <http://www.odcmp.com>.

clubs.odcmp.com The CMP Competition Tracker web site is a valuable resource for competitors. This web site may be viewed at <http://clubs.odcmp.com>. Eastern CMP Games & Creedmoor Cup Matches

Camp Butner, NC
3-11 May 2008

The 2nd Eastern CMP Games and Creedmoor Cup Matches are co-sponsored by the Civilian Marksmanship Program and Creedmoor Sports and hosted by the North State Shooting Club. The Western CMP Games and Creedmoor Cup Matches will be held 11-19 October 2008 at the Ben Avery Shooting Facility, Phoenix, AZ.

All interested shooters, including new shooters, experienced competitors, recreation-oriented shooters and national championship contenders, are invited to participate in these unique, national-level competitions.

- The 2008 Eastern CMP Games will take place on 3-6 May. They start with a CMP Garand-Springfield-Military Rifle clinic. The program includes Garand, Springfield and Military Rifle matches plus an as-issued M1 Garand EIC Match. CMP will also have a supply of .30-06 and .30 cal carbine ammunition for sale. We expect to have Kimber .22 cal rifles, M1 Garands and some M1 carbines available also. These rifles can be inspected and tagged for purchase. For more information on the Eastern CMP Games, contact the CMP at lhanelle@odcmp.com or call (888) 267-0796, ext. 1107.

- The 2008 Creedmoor Cup Matches will take place on 7-11 May, starting with a Highpower Rifle Clinic offering lectures, demonstrations and dry fire training. Creedmoor Cup Matches include an NMC practice match, an EIC match, an 800 aggregate, a team match and a banquet/BBQ sponsored by Bushmaster Firearms with over $20,000 in door prizes. For more information on the Creedmoor Cup Matches, contact Dennis DeWille at dewille@creedmoorsports.com or call (800) 273-3366.

For on-line registration and a complete match program, visit <http://clubs.odcmp.com/matches> after 1 December 2007 and click on "Registration and Information" for the 2008 Eastern CMP Games and Creedmoor Cup Matches.
