2013 CMP National Trophy Matches Open with a Bang

By Steve Cooper, CMP Marketing Manager

CAMP PERRY, OH – As soon as the smoke cleared from the firing of Bob Gillmor’s replica War of 1812 cannon, marking the close of the First Shot Ceremony, the doors to the 2013 CMP National Trophy Matches were thrown open.

LTG John Crosby, U.S. Army (ret.) fired the ceremonial first shot of the matches using a .30 caliber WWII M1 Carbine rifle after addressing a crowd of more than 400 as this year’s featured speaker. Upon Crosby’s shot, a sizable hole and smoke ring appeared on LTG Crosby’s target 600 yards away beyond the Rodriguez Range berm, compliments of Dave Rohrbacher and the Ohio National Guard.

LTG John Crosby prepares to fire the ceremonial first shot of the 2013 National Matches with a WWII M1 Carbine rifle. CMP Board Chairman Judith Legerski later presented the rifle to him as a token of appreciation for his First Shot participation and service to his country.

The cannon firing capped this year’s First Shot Ceremony which featured multiple appearances by Georgie’s Gal, an award-winning, fully restored WWII B-25 Mitchell bomber from Port Clinton’s Liberty Aviation Museum; a color guard provided by the WWII Re-enactment Society of Port Clinton and four vintage military vehicles and personnel in uniform by the Firelands Military Vehicle Group of Sandusky. In addition to the cannon, Gillmor Ordnance of Old Fort, Ohio provided ground-based pyrotechnics.

Judy Legerski, CMP Board Chairman, served as master of ceremonies for this year’s First Shot program which was attended by special guests Ohio Adjutant General, MG Deborah Ashenhurst, National Rifle Association President, James W. Porter, II, LTG Joe Inge, U.S. Army (ret.) and Ohio Lt. Governor, Mary Taylor. The audience also included distinguished guests including community and government leaders from Ottawa County and the State of Ohio.

Members of the Firelands Military Vehicle Group of Sandusky, Ohio, escort the American Flag to the parade ground.

Robert Gillmor of Gillmor Ordnance, Old Fort, Ohio, fires a cannon salute in tribute to the bicentennial of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry’s victory over the British in the War of 1812 as part of the 2013 First Shot Ceremony.

LTG John Crosby, featured speaker of the 2013 First Shot Ceremony and past CMP Board Member, makes a few remarks about growing up as an outdoorsman and lifelong supporter of the shooting sports.

National Trophy Rifle Matches

A Message from the COO:

The CMP is pleased to provide this souvenir printed edition of the Final Results of the 2013 National Trophy Rifle Matches. We hope this publication with its special information and photos will be a memento of a fantastic National Matches experience for you.

The 2013 National Matches rifle events began on 21 July with a soggy National Rimfire Sporter Match. They continued on 26 July when the Marine Corps Junior Clinic, the Rifle Small Arms Firing School and an Advanced Service Rifle Clinic kicked off. When the matches concluded on 3 August, 6,338 individual shooters had participated in the 2013 CMP National Matches rifle events and schools.

As always, the matches featured lots of great shooting by talented heroes that included:

- Troy Lawton of Columbus, GA, who won the President's Rifle Trophy with his score of 395-18X. Lawton beat out last year's winner and record breaker, Jared Perry, in the final stage of the President's Match.
- SSgt Eric Swearingen, USMCR, who won the overall Daniel Boone Trophy in the National Trophy Individual Rifle Match. SSgt Swearingen also set a new Citizen Soldier Trophy record and a new Coast Artillery Trophy record with his score of 497-23X.
- The USAMU team that again won the National Trophy Team Match and the Infantry Trophy Team Match.
- 19-year-old Isaac Dow of Grand Junction, CO, who was the overall junior in the 2013 National Trophy Rifle Matches. Dow fired an aggregate score of 1273-41X. He was also the High Junior in the President's Rifle Match for the second year in a row.
- CMP Games Matches winners Mark Looney, M1 Carbine; Daniel McSorley, Springfield Rifle; Christopher Beal, Vintage Military Rifle; Ryan Vander Poppen, John C. Garand Match; and SSG Jonathan O'Neal (ARNG), Unlimited Garand Match. In Rimfire Sporter, Ben Cleland, 20, of Swanton, OH, won overall in the O-Class, while Ron Villanueva of Parma Heights, OH, claimed first in the T-Class as well as the Tactical Class.
- 15-year-old Robert McClain of Walkersville, WV, who was the overall winner in the M16 EIC Match.
- 18-year-old Morgan Fadeley of Phoenix, AZ, who won the CMP-USMC Jr High-power Clinic EIC Match.
- The Hornady Over the Hill Gang, consisting of Robert Schanen and Jerome Van Treeck, who won the Vintage Rifle Sniper Team Match with a score of 394-13X.
- SSG Tyrel Cooper and SGT Augustus Dunfey, USA, who won the Hearst Doubles Match and set a new National Match Record of 594-22X. This is the second consecutive year SSG Cooper has won the match, having fired a record-breaking score last year with CPL Matthew Rawlings.
- California Grizzly Team Heidi's Dream, consisting of Sagen Maddalena and Lane Ichord, who won the National Trophy Junior Team Match and set a new National Match Record with a score of 974-32X.

The CMP extends sincere thanks to everyone who made significant contributions to another great National Matches. Be sure to see the complete list of Acknowledgements and Thanks on page 3 where we identify the organizations, school and clinic leaders, award donors and ammunition suppliers that were indispensable in making this year's matches so successful. Photo galleries may be viewed on our photo website at cmp1.zenfolio.com. We encourage you to download and share your photos.

We certainly thank all of you for coming to Camp Perry this year. In 2014 and 2015, we will be seeing significant changes to the National Match schedule as we make room for the inclusion of the World Rifle Championships, being held at Camp Perry. Please take the time to review the new schedule listed on page 96. Though the order of events is different, we still expect the same amount of competition, camaraderie and fun that has made the National Matches so memorable over the years.

We hope to see you back at Camp Perry for the 2014 National Trophy Rifle Matches and CMP Games events.

National Trophy Rifle Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

Troy Lawton Wins President's Rifle Trophy Match in Civilian-Heavy Final

By Steve Cooper, CMP Marketing Manager

CAMP PERRY, OH – Troy Lawton fought off a determined defending champion Jared Perry to capture the 2013 President's Rifle Trophy Match here on Monday, 29 July with a qualification-plus-final aggregate score of 395-18X.

Lawton, 50, of Columbus, GA, maintained his three-point lead in the 10-shot final in front of a couple hundred spectators at the 600-yard line on Rodriguez Range. Perry, 33, of Porterville, CA, finished with an aggregate score of 392-15X. Last year Perry set the match-plus-final record with a 398-16X.

"It was a great day, a fun match," Lawton said, shortly after being doused by the requisite celebratory cooler of ice water. "Offhand went well but I had one peek into the nine ring at 600," he said, referring to the third stage of qualifying on Viale Range.

Lawton shot an offhand score of 98-4X; cleaned his 300-yard rapid fire string (100) with 4Xs, and fired a 99-6X in his qualifying 600-yard prone slow fire stage prior to the final.

"I love the final, and just had fun with it," an elated Lawton said after picking up his trophy plaque while being showered with congratulations from friends and fellow shooters.

Lawton led a civilian-heavy field of competitors in the final. There were 10 non-military finalists, earning places in the top six positions, including Justin Utley, 28, of Mineola, TX (392-11X), who finished third. He fired a 100-2X in the final, tying Perry overall but dropping to third in an X-ring tiebreaker. Junior Isaac Dow, 20, of Grand Junction, CO, placed fourth (392-11X).

Dow was followed closely by Keith Stephens (391-9X), 41, of College Station, TX, and Jeffrey Lindblom (391-7X), 39, of Columbia, MO.

Isaac Dow was the high junior in the match and Dwight Becherer was the high-scoring senior (289-6X). SGT Amanda Elsenboss (387-9X), US Army, was the high woman in the President's Rifle Trophy Match.

Troy Lawton, of Columbus, Georgia led all shooters to capture the 2013 President's Rifle Trophy Match with a qualification-plus-final aggregate score of 395-18X.

Junior competitor Isaac Dow, of Grand Junction, Colorado, placed fourth (392-11X) and was the high junior competitor in the match.

SGT Amanda Elsenboss, US Army, was the high-scoring woman competitor in the 2013 President's Rifle Trophy Match, placing 11th overall. CMP Vice Chairman Cris Stone congratulates Elsenboss at the conclusion of ceremonies on the firing line.

Swearingen and Others Fire Record Scores During 2013 National Trophy Individual Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The National Trophy Individual (NTI) Rifle Match was fired on the Rodriguez and Viale ranges on Tuesday, July 30 by a group of over 1,000 hopeful shooters. The sun finally showed itself through the clouds, bringing the heat and making the day seem more like the Ohio summer days with which match goers are more familiar.

The NTI was first fired in 1904 and has grown to become one of the most prestigious National Trophy events. Shooters are given the opportunity to earn their EIC points during the competition. There are a multitude of trophy opportunities involved with the match – individually awarded for military, civilian, age and gender associations.

Winning his name on the coveted Daniel Boone Trophy for his overall win was SSgt Eric Swearingen, USMCR, 30, of El Cajon, CA, with an outstanding score of 497-23X. Trailing close behind was PFC Nick Mowrer, USAR, 24, of Ramsay, MT, who fired a 496-19X for second. MSG Robert Mango, USAR, 39, of Kaneohe, HI, claimed the third place spot with his score of 495-20X.

SSgt Swearingen also earned a place on the Citizen Soldier Trophy for Reserve shooters. Mowrer took second in the Reserve competition, while Mango held third. Swearingen set a new record for the Citizen Soldier Trophy competition, outshooting the previous record of 497-22X fired by MAJ. Jay A. Williams, USAR, in 2001.

“I can’t really think about setting records. I really just go out there and shoot. It’s what I do,” he said, modestly.

The National Guard Association Trophy, awarded to National Guard competitors, was won by SSG John Coggs, ARNG, 28, of Middletown, CT, with a score of 493-12X. SSgt. Leigh Jenks III, ANG, 39, of Underhill, VT, who holds the current record for the Trophy for his score of 498-24X in 2011, claimed a second place finish at this year’s event – firing a 487-16X. Third place was captured by MSgt. Edward Altmeyer, ANG, 37, of Moon Twp., PA, with his score of 485-21X.

Justin Utley, 28, of Mineola, TX, won first place in the contest for the Police Rifle Trophy, awarded to those competitors who are trained as police officers. Utley fired a 494-21X, setting a new record for the Trophy that was previously set by Mark Heffer in 2001 with his score of 492-21X. MSgt. Altmeyer received second place, followed closely behind by John Laws III, who fired a 485-11X for third.

Utley also received a place on the Nathan Hale Trophy, awarded to civilian competitors, after scoring first overall in the category. Sara Rozanski, 35, of Toledo, OH, nearly caught Utley when she fired her score of 494-18X, but fell short to earn a respectable second place spot. Ryan Vander Poppen, 41, of Fennville, MI, landed in third place with his score of 493-18X.

The Golden Eagle Trophy, awarded to the top junior competitions, was won by Joseph Hendricks Jr., 17, of Wexford, PA, with his score of 488-17X. Nearly catching Hendricks Jr.’s lead was Isaac Dow, 19, of Grand Junction, CO, who fired a 488-15X for second place, followed by Mary London, 19, of Statesville, NC, with her score of 486-9X for third.

PFC Mowrer finally earned himself a first place finish with the Association of the U.S. Army Trophy, awarded to the overall Active, Reserve or National Guard Army competitor. MSG Mango took the second place spot, while SSG Brandon Green, 28, of Box Springs, GA, claimed third with his score of 493-21X.

SSgt. Swearingen once again claimed the overall spot, capturing first in the Coast Artillery Trophy competition for Active or Reserve U.S. Marine Corps competitors. Swearingen also set a new record for the Trophy, previously set by SSgt. Jason Benedict in 2007 with his score of 497-22X. MSgt. Julia Watson, 37, of Provo, UT, earned a second place position with her score of 495-14X, while Sgt. Jimmie Long, USMC, 27, of Quantico, VA, fired a 493-17X for third.

Sgt. Long shot an impressive 200-8X in the NTI Prone SF position from 600 yards. The competitors around him shook his hand and congratulated him on his fantastic performance.

“I’m usually pretty good on my stomach,” he said. “I’m pretty happy with that score. I wish I would’ve done better on my feet! But I’ve had a good week.”

In the Lt. Paul J. Roberts Memorial Trophy, awarded to Active, Reserve or National Guard U.S. Air Force competitors, was overtaken by SSgt. Leigh Jenks. Jenks also currently holds

During the match, shooters carefully watched the wind as it rapidly changed speed and direction on the unpredictable Camp Perry ranges.

The National Trophy Individual Match is one of the most prestigious events during the CMP National Matches. Having first been fired in 1904, the NTI has hosted over 100 years of talented shooters.

the record for the Trophy after firing a 498-24X in 2011. MSgt. Altmeyer, ANG, took the second place spot, while TSgt. Stuart Mackey, ANG, 39, of West Valley City, UT, took the third place position with his score of 482-10X.

The 25th Infantry Division Trophy, given to Active, Reserve or National Guard Army Infantry competitors, was awarded to MSG Mango. SGT. Augustus Dunfey, 29, USA, of Phenix City, AL, claimed second place with a 493-13X, followed extremely closely behind by SSG. John Cogshall, ARNG, who fired a 493-12X for third.

LCDR Joseph Zerby, USN, 44, of Hughesville, MD, won the overall place in the Capt. Joe Earle Wyatt Trophy competition, given to the top Active or Reserve Navy competitor, after firing a 488-13X. CDR Matt Bartel, 41, USN, of Severna Park, MD, shot a 486-13X for second place, while MIDN Ian Leszczynski, 20, USN, of Grosse Point, MI, claimed third with his score of 475-12X.

Winning the CMP Senior Trophy, for those competitors born in 1951 or earlier, was awarded to David Sullivan, 60, of Erie, CO, with his score of 492-20X. Sullivan set a new record after breaking the previous record of 492-15X, set by Ed Mank in 2009. Coming in the second place position was Donald Bauer, 62, of Mendota, IL, with 484-15X, just in front of Richard Kussman, 51, of Forest Hill, MD, who fired a 484-12X for third.

The Women's Rifle Trophy, awarded to the overall civilian or service woman, was earned by MSgt. Watson. Second place top female was Sara Rozanski, with her score of 494-18x, while SGT.

Amanda Elsenboss, USA, 24, of Woodbury, CT, fired a 491-24X to claim the third place position.

Starting as a junior at the National Matches, MSgt. Watson has been coming to the Camp Perry ranges for 21 years. During that time, she has won multiple awards and honors, including the many she achieved during CMP Week. But, as she says, it's never enough.

"As a shooter, you're never satisfied. Even if you win, you still look back and think about what you could've done better. That's how I felt this week," she said, with a smile. "I'm happy with how I did, but I know I can still do better."

A group of over 1,000 shooters packed the Rodriguez and Viale ranges at Camp Perry with their gear and hopes as they waited for their turn on the firing line.

MSgt Julia Watson won the Women's Rifle Trophy and was also the overall winner of the Individual Service Rifle Aggregate. The aggregate consisted of scores from the President's, NTI, NTT and Hearst Doubles matches.

Team Cooper-Dunfey Sets New Record in Hearst Doubles Competition

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – United States Army Marksmanship Unit members SSG Tyrel Cooper, 28, of Fort Benning, GA, and SGT Augustus Dunfey, 29, of Phenix City, AL, set a new record and claimed the top prize in the Hearst Doubles Team Match, held July 31. SSG Cooper had recorded the previous record at last year’s matches with CPL Matthew Rawlings, with their score of 593-21x. The team of Cooper and Dunfey fired a 594-22x to win the William Randolph Hearst Trophy.

“It was just another day at the office,” said SSG Cooper. “It’s cool to win it back to back and to set a record with someone else.”

Breaking a record once, let alone two years in a row, wasn’t something that Cooper anticipated. According to him, it’s something a shooter shouldn’t even think about, let alone expect.

“When it comes to shooting, you can’t think of breaking a record because as soon as you think about that, it gets in the back of your mind and you start shooting bad. The only time I started thinking about it was when we got done shooting,” he said. “Dunfey was excited. He was really excited to have his name on a record.”

Though now forever immortalized in the record books, the team of Dunfey and Cooper are actually a fairly recent pair. As Cooper says, they have the sort of working relationship that has become beneficial to the both of them in unexpected ways.

“This is my first year shooting with Dunfey. We push each other,” he said. “In this match, it’s only two shooters, and you can make it or break it very quickly. It really surprised me how well we did.”

Cooper also snagged the overall individual ranking, with his score of 297-13x, while Dun-fey claimed second with a close score of 297-9x. SSgt. Timothy Snyder, USMC, 31, of Nuevo, CA, came up just short for third overall, firing a 296-11x.

Taking the second place position in the overall team competition was the team of Snyder and Lyons, consisting of SSgt. Timothy Snyder and SSgt. James Lyons, USMC, 28, of Quantico, VA, with their score of 588-20x. The team of Watson and Swearingen took third in the competition, firing a 587-19x. Members of the team are SSgt. Eric Swearingen, 30, of El Cajon, CA, and MSgt. Julia Watson, 37, of Provo, UT.

The Hearst Doubles Rifle Team Match has been fired at the National Matches since 2006. During the match, two-person teams go head-to-head in a 30-shot course of fire using service rifles. Both members of the team must fire 10 slow standing shots at 200 yards, 10 rapid prone from standing 300 yards and 10 slow prone at 600 yards, on the same target. As other National Trophy Rifle Matches, shooters are not permitted sighters before firing their record shots.

The team of Snyder-Lyons, SSgt. Timothy Snyder and SSgt. James Lyons, came in second in the match with their combined score of 588-20x.

Members of the M1 for Vets team took part in the match.

Shooter Donates Organ to Save Hearst Doubles Partner

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – Tim Boyle and Mark Schoess had been to Camp Perry before, but the 2013 National Matches was different. For them, it was more than just about the shooting – it was the pinnacle point in a long journey the two had taken over the past year. Standing on the firing line for the Hearst Doubles Match, the pair gazed downrange at the target, thinking of all of the things that had made that moment possible.

“I had signed up for the Vintage Sniper Match for this year, but in one of our phone conversations, Mark mentioned that he was signed up for the Hearst,” said Tim Boyle, 58, of Kensington, MN. “So I cancelled my Vintage Sniper and signed up for the Hearst. It was a great idea that had just never dawned on me. And it should have.”

About 10 years ago, Tim went in for a physical while applying for additional life insurance and failed. His creatinine blood test, which measures kidney function, came back low. After tracking his kidneys for a number of years and participating in an ultrasound test, Tim was diagnosed with polycystic kidney disease (PKD), consisting of noncancerous cysts surrounding the organ, in 2003. He went on the donor list in 2009.

“I was hopeful for a donor, but it’s about a five year wait. So, another December would come and go – and I never really thought it wasn’t going to happen, and I never wanted to get my hopes up that it was going to happen,” Tim said.

Mark Schoess, 54, of Stacy, MN, first met Tim as a member of the Minnesota Service Rifle Shooting Team. The two shot together at the Gopher Rifle & Revolver Club in Harris, MN – Mark’s home range. Mark went with the team to Camp Perry for the first time five years ago, where he and Tim shared a dorm together and got to know each other as roommates.

Back in Minnesota, the pair began to see each other occasionally at local matches. Though the two live in separate parts of the state, coincidentally, Tim’s home is about 10 miles from where Mark’s grandparents lived and where his parents currently have a lake home.

“In a way, it’s almost like he’s from my hometown – like a generation removed,” Mark said. “We’re not that far apart in age, and I immediately learned what a great guy he was. Just a really funny, helpful, great guy.”

In 2012, Tim’s nephrologist (kidney doctor) had been monitoring his creatinine levels, which had been getting lower and lower. Finally, they spiked. The Friday before the team was set to head out to Camp Perry, the nephrologist contacted Tim and told him he needed to be prepped right away for dialysis.

Mark and Tim finished the match with a 542-6x. Tim led in the team’s individual scoring.

“I didn’t want to deal with that because I thought I could get one more Camp Perry in,” Tim said. “When I got an email with the team roster and saw my name on it, I was backed into a corner. I had to call our coach and tell him that I had to back out because I have a kidney disease and have to go in for dialysis. He didn’t even know that I had a disease.”

Tim then sent an extensive email to the rest of his team, letting them know that he wouldn’t be able to attend the Matches. It was the first his team had learned of his struggle.

“When we got the email from Tim, I was stunned. I had no idea about it – nobody knew. He had hidden it from the team. It was like I had gotten hit by a bat or something. I just couldn’t believe it,” Mark said. “I didn’t know much about PKD, but with some research I learned that it’s the most common disease that nobody knows about.”

Along with being in the dark about the disease Tim carried, Mark didn’t know anything about kidney donation. All he could do was hope for the best – hope for a miracle for his shooting friend.

After the Camp Perry trip in 2012, Mark went to spend some time with his parent’s at their cabin. Because it was so close to Tim, Mark decided to drop in on him to see how he was doing.

“We had a pleasant afternoon talking kidneys, guns and whatnot. I didn’t want to give him any impression that I was going to donate, but I just wanted to find out what it took and what the procedure was to get tested,” Mark said.

Tim gave Mark an 800 number for the University of Minnesota Medical Center of Fairview, which happens to be one of the top transplant centers in the world – having conducted more than 7,000 kidney transplants since their first successful transplant 50 years ago. After thinking it through, Mark called the number.

He had to answer a series of questions, followed by undergoing a series of blood work. In early December 2012, he had to endure a rigorous day of testing to determine whether or not he would be healthy and fit enough to become a donor. But by Christmas, he learned that he had passed.

“I called Tim on Christmas and let him know. He had no idea that I was even getting tested,” Mark said. “I told him I want to do what I can to make him better. Of course I think he was a bit shocked, but also very, very grateful.”

“That was –,” Tim paused as his eyes began to well up with tears. He stared off into the distance, trying to search for the words. After a few silent moments and a hard swallow, he collected himself and continued with his story. “I was extraordinarily humbled. I can’t express my feelings. I always had faith that a donor would occur, but I expected it to be a deceased donor, not someone that I knew reasonably well.”

“It was definitely a shock. I might have even gotten emotional,” Tim went on to say, with a smile.

“When Mark called me about doing it, he said let’s do it soon, like the end of January, because we don’t want it to affect our rifle practice,” Tim said with a laugh. “I thought it was indicative of his mindset, which was let’s just get this out of the way so we can move on with what’s important with our lives.”

On January 30, 2013, Mark and Tim were placed on adjacent operating tables and underwent the life-changing surgery. “My wife was very supportive. I do have a strong faith, and I had been praying about it,” Mark said.

“My wife asked me right before I went into pre-op if I was nervous, and I said no. She was a bit shocked by that. But I really had a very calm feeling about it.”

After six hours of surgery, the procedure was done. When he awoke, Tim immediately noticed the difference in his body. Unfortunately for Mark, it’s typical for the donor to have a tougher recovery period than the recipient. Though tired and still in some pain, Mark was pleased to see the results of the surgery.

“The day after the surgery, I was still flat on my back, and Tim came waltzing in my room. He looked like a new man,” Mark said. “He’s a very strong person, and a great man in character. At that moment he was 100 percent.”

With his life now back on track, Tim didn’t waste any time signing up for the 2013 National Trophy Rifle Matches at Camp Perry. Although he had spent months getting back into the habit of shooting with his new kidney, he’s still in shock that he made it to the Matches.

“I can’t believe I’m here,” he said after firing in the Hearst Doubles Match with Mark. “I did average, believe it or not. Maybe even a little better than I did in 2011. I’m not as fatigued, my stamina is back up – they say it’s about a Mark (foreground) suggested that he and Tim (background) shoot in the Hearst Doubles Match as a way of celebrating Tim’s recovery and the journey they took together.

“Mark suggested to schedule the surgery in January so that the pair would have enough time to recover in time to shoot in the National Matches.

“I always had faith that a donor would occur, but I expected it to be a deceased donor, not someone that I knew reasonably well,” Tim said.

year recovery after the transplant, I’m about 6 months into it, and it’s all golden.”

Out of 272 shooters that competed in the Hearst Doubles Match, Mark and Tim finished at a respectable 113, firing a combined score of 542-6x. Tim led the pair with his individual score.

Though coming back to Camp Perry was never a question in Tim’s mind, his wife was a little apprehensive. She called him every day to see how he was holding up and to make sure he was staying healthy. With each phone call, he honestly reassured her that he was enjoying himself and doing just fine.

“I don’t need to misrepresent myself. Everything is going great. And next year is going to be even better,” he said. “I’m better than I’ve ever been.”

The sport of shooting has a way of bringing people together. In this case, strangers who knew nothing of one another except a common interest found each other becoming a significant part of each other’s lives.

“The real story is Mark. The donor is the key player in this. There’s no question about it. The recipient, they’re just that – a recipient of someone else’s unbelievable gift,” Tim said. “The more we can get that out there – that gift is something that you can’t describe, because we donate time and money, but a body part, you can’t get any more personal than that.”

With tears in his eyes once more, Tim expressed his gratitude for his renewed self, saying, “I’m indebted the rest of my life. Not just to Mark, but to society in general.”

For Mark, the doctors say his missing kidney shouldn’t affect his life in any way. But, as Mark knows, his missing kidney has affected his life more than he ever could have imagined.

“I didn’t even think about donating at first, because I didn’t really know much about it. A lifelong friend of mine, after I told him about Tim, looked at me and said, ‘Well, give him a kidney!’ And I looked at him, and it dawned on me. At that moment, it was the catalyst for doing it,” he said. “I would encourage other people, if they know someone who doesn’t have a family member or a loved one who can donate, if you’re fit enough to donate and save a life, do so.”

Joined together on the firing line and forever joined as friends, the bond between Tim and Mark is unbreakable. Their friendship is now rooted to the deepest part of their hearts – and a kidney.

“There’s nothing I wouldn’t do for Mark. We wouldn’t have come so close without this. We don’t talk about it though. We just work really well together,” Tim said.

“I know Tim and I will always be friends. If we live another 30, 40 years, we will still be friends,” Mark added. “Even though I’ve only known Tim for a few years, just in the first few days of knowing him, I felt very close to him. And I feel like he’s the same old Tim again now.”

USAMU Narrowly Wins National Trophy Team Match, 'Heidi's Dream' Comes True at Junior Team Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The six-man United States Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU) Praslick team took the role of overall champion in the National Trophy Rifle Team Match, fired on August 1 on Viale Range at Camp Perry, with a score of 2936-88x. The USAMU team outshot the All Guard Gold team by only one point in the competition, serving as a reminder of the amount of talent on the line that day.

“It was one of the most challenging six-man team matches I’ve ever seen,” said USAMU coach Emil Praslick. “Everyone was strong on the line out there, and the wind created a real challenge, but in the end my team performed well and did what they needed to do.”

Team members of the winning team are SFC Daniel Peters, SSG Tyrel Cooper, SSG Brandon Green, CPT Ryan Calhoun, SGT Augusts Dunfey and SFC Joel Micholick.

The All Guard Gold team fired a 2935-98x, just shy of first place. Team members are SSG John Cogshall, SSgt. Leight Jenks, CW3 David Kerin, TSgt. Stuart Mackey, MSgt. Gregory Blackstock and SSG Cody Shields. Claiming the third place spot was the U.S. Army Reserve Gold team, with a score of 2921-81x. Members are PFC Nick Mowrer, MSG Robert Mango, CPT Samuel Freeman, SFC Leslie Lewis, SGT Kristoffer Friend and LTC Cletus Paumier.

In other trophy action, the Hilton Trophy, for Reserve or National Guard teams involved in the match, was the All Guard Gold team. Coal- inga Team Oman took the Soldier of Marathon Trophy, awarded to the top civilian team. Mem- bers Jared Perry, Chad Kurgan, Sagen Mad- dalena, Jim O’Connell, Robert Taylor and Lane Ichord fired a combined score of 2915-86x to

Claiming the Minuteman Trophy, awarded to the top junior team, was the California Grizzly Team Seeley, with a score of 2850-66x. Team members are Kevin Tandoc, Kasey Nelson, Forrest Greenwood, Bradley Pappageorge, Morgan Owen and Hugh Braly.

The Pershing Trophy is awarded to highest overall individual competitor in the competi- tion. MSgt. Julia Watson, USMCR, 37, of Pro- vo, UT, won the trophy with her score of 498- 25x. The Rattlesnake Trophy, earned by Army Colors flapped in the wind behind the firing line during the National Team Trophy Match on Viale Range as teams brought their state and team flags to fly.

The California Grizzlies team wore pink ribbons on their hats in remembrance of a dedicated mother of one of their junior shooters who recently lost her battle with cancer.

The National Trophy Junior Team Match consists of two-person teams that follow the National Match Course of Fire. Juniors fire from prone, sitting and standing positions.

Active, Reserve or National Guard competitors, was won by SSG John Coggshall, 28, ARNG, of Middletown, CT, with his score of 497-20x. SSgt. Leigh Jenks III, ANG, earned the General Thomas White Trophy with his score of 493-16x. The trophy is awarded to the top Air Force Active, Reserve or National Guard competitor.

The National Trophy Team Match was first fired in 1903. Teams consist of six shooters, with the requirement of one member being a "new shooter." No sighters are permitted during the match, as teams fire from standing and prone positions at 200, 300 and 600 yards.

The CA Grizzly Team Heidi's Dream, consisting of Sagen Maddalena, 19, of Groveland, CA, and Lane Ichord, 19, of Waterford, CA, took the first place spot in the National Trophy Junior Team Match, held July 31 on Rodriguez Range at Camp Perry. Firing a 974-32x, the team not only received their names on the Freedom's Fire Trophy, but also set a new national record. The previous record of 968-21x was set by the California Grizzly Berger team back in 2012.

The name "Heidi's Dream" was chosen in memory of a mother of a former Grizzly shooter who recently lost her battle with cancer. She was an avid supporter of the California Grizzly Rifle Club, and always enjoyed watching them succeed. The team wore pink ribbons on their hats as a reminder of the woman who pushed them to be the best shooters they could be, and on the day of the Junior Team Match, they were.

Coming in second place was fellow Grizzly Team, Team RCBS, consisting of Forrest Greenwood, 17, of Ceres, CA, an Morgan Owen, 17, of Sonora, CA, firing a 965-22x. Brothers Morgan and Fredric Fadeley of Phoenix, AZ, comprised the Desert Sharpshooters Fadeley team. Morgan, 18, fired a 488-13x, while Frederic, 20, contributed a score of 476-13x to give the team an aggregate score of 964-26x – securing them the third place spot in the competition.

The CMP National Trophy Junior Team Match is a two-person team match that follows National Match Course of Fire, firing from standing, sitting and prone positions at 200, 300 and 600 yards. The competition awards the best junior shooting team in the nation for outscoring all other junior teams with hard work, dedication and determination.

Some junior teams showed their spirit by flying their flags as they shot on the line during the match.

USAMU Wins “Rattle Battle” for Fourth Consecutive Year

CAMP PERRY, OH – A crowd of spectators gathered with cameras and phones in hand, like paparazzi stalking a group of celebrities. Nearly stumbling over one another, they pointed the devices toward the line of shooters on the ground, who were waiting to fire their first round in their prone positions. Those watching knew they were witnessing one of the most precise teams in the country with a reputation of being the best. That day, they lived up to the hype.

The United States Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU) claimed the overall Infantry Trophy in the “Rattle Battle,” held August 2. Team members SSG Tyrel Cooper, SSG Brandon Green, SFC Joel Micholick, SFC Daniel Peters, SGT Kevin Trickett and SGT Nathan Verbickas fired a 1362 for the win. The team is coached by Emil Praslick.

“This is always a nerve wracking match,” said Coach Praslick. “But we read the wind correctly, and everyone did what they needed to do, and we came out with the win.”

The National Trophy Infantry Team Math (NTIT) began in 1922. The match consists of teams firing 384 rounds of ammunition at silhouette targets from 600, 500, 300 and 200 yards away until all of the rounds are used. Because of the quick firing and movement from firing point to firing point with gear in tow, the NTIT has been nicknamed the “Rattle Battle.” The match has become a challenge to shooters and is one of the most exciting competitions for spectators to witness.

Though the windy conditions mentioned by Coach Praslick created issues during the match for all of the shooters on the line that day, for one shooter, it wasn’t the only complication.

“My rifle malfunctioned twice during the match. I couldn’t believe it,” said SFC Peters. “But, somehow I got it fixed and kept on shooting. It turned out alright.”

Peters and the rest of his USAMU team managed to get off all of their rounds at the 500 mark, having no need to continue shooting at the 300 and 200 yard lines. Once finished, the team casually removed their jackets and gloves, setting them in a pile next to their rifles on the 500 line as they confidently walked to the 300 to watch the rest of the teams use up their own rounds. Smiles from the AMU shooters as they looked at each other showed that they knew they had once again dominated the day.

The California Grizzlies O’Connell claimed the second place spot with an aggregate score of 1242. The team is coached by Bradley Pappageorge and consists of Hugh Braly, Forrest Greenwood, Lane Ichord, Sagen Maddalena, Morgan Owen and Kevin Tandoc. Rounding out the top three was USMC Scarlet with a score of 1223. Team members are Cpl. Ryan Cox, CPL Antonio Di-

The USAMU team, followed by a slew of spectators, won the NTIT match for the fourth year in a row.

Coaches kneel behind their teams on the firing line to inform their teams of placement and wind changes.

Conza, Sgt. Jimmie Long, Sgt. Thomas Perez, SSgt. Sean Pickel and SSgt. Timothy Snyder. The team is coached by CPL Neil Sookdeo.

The California Grizzlies also received the Leatherneck Trophy, earned by the top Civilian team of the match, as well as the Junior Infantry Team Trophy.

Shooters followed the American Flag as a guide from firing line to firing line.

Competitors fire upon silhouette targets from distances of 600, 500, 300 and 200 yards.

The Grizzlies O’Connell etched its name into history in 2009 when they became the first junior team to ever win the NTIT and only the second Civilian team to win the competition in the match’s existence. Since then, the US-AMU has overtaken the match, winning by a 50-plus point margin each year.

Adding to the accolades given during the match, the Celtic Chieftain Trophy is awarded to all eligible Reserve Component Teams in the NTIT. Winning this year’s trophy is the U.S. Army Reserve Gold team with a score of 1196. Members are SSG John Arcularius Jr., CPT Samuel Freeman, SFC Leslie Lewis, MSG Robert Mango, PFC Nick Mowrer and SGM Douglas Withus. Coach MSG Norman Anderson guides the team. GCA Michiana claimed the Infantry Trophy M1 Garand Award, for the overall team firing M1 Garands.

The California Grizzlies O’Connell team took second in the NTIT. In 2009, the team became the first Civilian team since 1930 to win the match.

McClain Wins M16 Match Despite Wet Conditions at 2013 Small Arms Firing School

By Steve Cooper, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – “It could be worse – it could be raining harder!” said a still dripping first time Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) participant Christine Hemmer, 42, of Castalia, OH, after the torrential downpour that soaked the SAFS shooters during their EIC match practice on Saturday, July 27 on Viale Range.

More than 720 shooters participated in the SAFS class during the National Matches at Camp Perry. The school is a mix of class work and hands-on coaching by USAMU, Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marine and Navy Active and National Guard and Reserve instructors. Rifle students learn the fundamentals, training methods and mental approaches to competitive shooting. Participants also have the opportunity to live fire in the prone, sitting and standing positions from 200 yards.

Though her first experience with SAFS was a wet one, Christine Hemmer said she still enjoyed being out firing on the range. She was sharing the day with her husband, Jeffrey, who was also participating in the school.

“I’m excited to get up there. It’s going to be fun,” she said as she dried out and waited for her relay to be called. “I’m just glad my husband was in the pits when it rained so I didn’t have to hear him whine about it!”

Scott Chin, 40, of Gibraltar, MI, was also a first timer. He could have done without the soggy weather, but he was still amazed by the masses of shooters the school seems to draw.

“It’s a little cold out here with the wind, but I can’t believe how many people are here. It’s really great,” he said.

Rifle SAFS is open to all U.S. citizens who are over the minimum age of 12 – the experienced and the beginning shooters alike. Veterans of the sport can acquire new ways to improve their scores in the competition they love while also learning beside new shooters who are just starting to fall in love with the sport.

Joseph Ferline, 79, of Lakewood, OH, brought his grandson, Alex Carr, 19, to try Robert McClain won first place overall in the M16 EIC Match, held on the last day of the school. Very excited McClain also received a new Colt Match Target 6700 5.56 Rifle, donated by Colt Manufacturing. Ms. Judith Legerski, CMP Chairman, was the presenter.

out the Small Arms Firing School. Since his grandson is new to the sport, Ferline thought there would be no better way for him to learn the ways of competition shooting than to be exposed to the world of the National Matches at Camp Perry, instructed by some of the best shooters in the country.

“His mother doesn’t like shooting. She said to make sure he stays safe. I told her that this is the safest place in the world!” Ferline said as he laughed. “And this is a great school. These guys really know what they’re talking about.”

Ferline watched his grandson as he took the line. Equipped with yellow shooting glasses, protective ear muffs and a smile, Alex took his prone position. An attentive grandpa kept good on his word to Alex’s mother, staying close with a watchful eye, but knowing all the while that his grandson was about to have the time of his life.

After his prone, standing and sitting positions were over, Alex met with Ferline, who was eagerly awaiting to hear about his experience.

More than 720 shooters attended the Rifle Small Arms Firing School during the National Matches. Classroom instruction was conducted before students had the opportunity to live fire on Viale Range.

Besides elements on the firing line, SAFS students also learned how to pull targets and score in the pits.

USAMU, Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Navy and National Guard instructors were on hand to show students the fundamentals of competition rifle shooting.

A torrential downpour momentarily postponed firing on the range during the school, but instruction resumed immediately after the rain finally stopped falling.

“The standing was really hard! But it was fun,” Alex said after reuniting with his grandpa. After the day of instruction was complete, SAFS students fired in a true M16 EIC Match on Sunday, July 28. Participants had the opportunity to earn introductory 4-point legs towards becoming a Distinguished shooter.

Robert McClain, 15, of Walkersville, WV took home the overall first place prize in the M16 Match, firing a 390-14x. Coming in second was Makayla Douthit, 15, of Walden, CO, with a score of 388-10x, followed by Jeremy Bogdany, 37, of Felton, PA, who fired a 387-19x for third.

McClain was surprised on stage during the awards ceremony with a new Colt Match Target 6700 5.56 Rifle, donated by Colt Manufacturing. He was put into shock as he was handed the rifle, gazing at it with wide eyes and a smile. The gun McClain was offered on stage was meant for photo op purposes only, but he was so excited to have the new rifle in his hands that he nearly walked off stage with it, gaining laughs and applause from the crowd.

A total of 61 competitors received their first 4 EIC points during the M16 EIC Match. The cut-score was 369-6X.

Christine Hemmer of Castalia, OH, and her husband, Jeffrey, decided to brave the weather to attend the school.

Alex Carr of Lakewood, OH, attended SAFS for the first time, under the supervision of his grandpa, Joseph Ferline. Carr said he learned a lot from his SAFS instructor and was very glad he decided to attend the school.

SAFS coaches helped students learn with hands-on techniques. The instructors were patient and willing to answer any questions the students may have had.

CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Rifle Clinic Teaches Fundamentals of Shooting and Life to Junior Shooters

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – At the Small Arms Firing School in 2011, new shooter Matt Lovre’s dad told him that if he beat the man next to him on the line, he’d buy him his own AR. The man, though equipped with a top-of-the-line shooting jacket, head gear and all of the other gadgets and gizmos, was outshot by a newbie that day – and Matt got a new gun.

“Two years later, here we are,” said Matt’s dad, Matt Sr., as he watched his son participate in the CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Rifle Clinic held July 26, 27 and 28, just prior to the start of the highpower events at the 2013 National Matches.

The clinic is geared toward youth marksmen who are involved in service rifle shooting or are members of state association junior highpower teams. This year, the clinics were conducted to a class of over 150 junior shooters.

Shooters who participate in the clinic must have some prior highpower rifle competition experience and must have attended the Rifle Small Arms Firing School or the Eastern Junior Highpower Clinic at Butner, NC.

“This is such an inexpensive way to learn. My son loves it,” Matt Sr. went on.

The clinic is organized by the Civilian Marksmanship Program and led by members of the U.S. Marine Corps Rifle Team. Classroom instruction was held in the Camp Perry Clubhouse by USMC Rifle shooters Cpl. Neil Sookdeo, Sgt. Joshua Peterson, Ryan Richileau, 16, of Plain City, OH, was the top eligible competitor in the USMC Clinic EIC Rifle Match and earned his first four EIC points. Eleven other clinic participants also earned their first EIC points.

SSgt. Sean Pickle and SSgt. Mark Altendorf before live firing began.

SSgts. Pickel and Altendorf each discussed elements of rifle competition outside of gun handling, such as pit procedures, sportsmanship and mental health, as well as briefly covering weapons maintenance. Cpl. Sookdeo touched on topics like fundamentals and the effects of weather, while Sgt. Peterson, chief instructor for the course at Camp Perry, briefed the class on rifle safety, zeroing and positioning.

“The biggest thing we want to teach the juniors is responsibility, safety, and since they obviously they get to meet a lot of others, we want them to learn to be nice to each other,” said Sgt. Peterson. “But, firearms safety is one of the most important things we teach them, because of recent events in the country.”

Along with the fundamentals of rifle mechanics, Sgt. Peterson said they also want to teach elements to the juniors that can be used on and off the range.

“They like competition, and we stress competition, mental management, attention to detail, and things like that can actually carry on through the rest of their lives,” he said. “They may not think about it now, but Morgan Fadeley, who has attended the clinic five times, won the overall gold in the EIC Match, held at the end of instruction.

USMC instructors used fun and engaging techniques to better show the fundamentals of rifle shooting.

Sgt. Peterson, right, was the lead instructor for the course. He and his team set out to teach the juniors responsibility, safety, fundamentals and respect during the course.

10 years from now, they'll be able to say, 'Hey, I learned things like that when I was shooting.'"

Having also taught in the Marine Corps, Sgt. Peterson has a lot of experience instructing others. To him, it's more than a job – it's a way of shaping the futures of these young shooters.

"I get a lot of satisfaction seeing the light in their eyes and the smiles on their faces when they come off and they've shot a good score. Not necessarily a winning score, but even if they've bettered themselves in some way," he said.

Once class work was completed, days two and three were spent on the range, firing from 200, 300 and 600 yards while being coached by a Marine Shooter. Juniors were also given the opportunity to shoot in an Introductory Excellence-In-Competition Match (EIC). Qualified shooters were eligible to compete for 4 introductory EIC points, which are the same points offered in the Rifle Small Arms Firing School.

Winning this year's match was Morgan Fadeley, 18, of Phoenix, AZ, with a score of 382-6x. Fadeley has taken the clinic five times in the past, but this was his first time winning the EIC Match.

"I really like this clinic. That's why I keep coming back. I'm going to keep doing it until I age out," he said with a smile.

Coming in second place was Morgan Owen, 17, of Sonora, CA, with a score of 381-8x. Ryan Richileau, 16, of Plain City, OH, fired a 381-7x for the third place spot. Richileau was also the top competitor with no EIC points and earned his first 4 EIC points. Eleven other junior shooters received their first 4 points. The cut-score was 368-1X.

Matt Lovre decided to attend the clinic after having shot in the Small Arms Rifle School in 2011. He said he enjoyed the clinic and would like to move on to the Advanced course within the next few years.

Marine Corps shooters were on hand to instruct the juniors on proper techniques on and off the line.

Remington hosted a pizza party for the junior clinic attendees before awards were given on the final day of instruction.

Roxburgh and Crew Bring Intense Training to Advanced Highpower Clinic Participants at National Matches

By Ashley Brugnone CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – “When this is complete, you will be forever changed,” said retired U.S. Marine GySgt. Ken Roxburgh to a roomful of wide-eyed shooters at the start of the Advanced Remington-Bushmaster Highpower Rifle Clinic, sponsored by CMP.

The clinic was held the weekend of July 26, 27 and 28 during the 110th National Matches at Camp Perry. A group of 44 adult shooters were in attendance to better their service rifle skills and knowledge from the guidance of Roxburgh and his team.

Lead instructor for the rifle clinic, Roxburgh is a former Non-Commissioned Officer in charge of the USMC Shooting Teams and is currently the director of Remington’s Highpower Programs. In 1981, he began as the leader of the CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Clinic. After he joined Remington in 2007, he decided the following year it was time to create a clinic for more advanced shooters – thus the birth of the Advanced Remington-Bushmaster Highpower Rifle Clinic.

“Remington’s success is because of the American consumer. This clinic is a way for us to pay back the shooters – to make them more successful competitive marksman,” he said.

Stemmed from his Marine roots, Roxburgh often exerts an energetic and straightforward teaching style, somewhat unorthodox to general methods.

“He was very intense,” said Daniel Helwig, 56, of Racine, WI, on Roxburgh’s instructive techniques. A smile on Helwig’s face as he talked about the clinic showed that he wasn’t fearful of the military-like style, but rather admirable of the experience. “I think you need that confidence to teach. My head is about to explode from all of the knowledge I’ve gained.”

The clinic offers instruction on competition techniques and advanced teachings for service rifles and works parallel to the USMC Junior Service Rifle Clinic. A highly trained and skilled group of 13 service rifle shooters from the Remington-Bushmaster Team led the clinic with classroom instruction and dry fire drills. Participants spent the final day listening to a panel of expert shooters and discussing key topics. No live fire is held during the clinic.

“We’ve got a really good crew here – some very qualified marksmanship instructors,” said Roxburgh. “They are the ambassadors of marksmanship and can associate with shooters on and off the range, since they shoot right next to each other during matches.”

Roxburgh and his team conduct local, state, regional and national clinics, just like the one held at Camp Perry during the National Matches. Adults and juniors alike are permitted to attend the advanced clinic. The team can also be found holding the clinic at some individual clubs, touching on subjects such as:

- Rifle Safety and Weapons Handling
- Aiming and Trigger Control
- Techniques of Slow and Rapid Firing

Nathan Evagash received his Distinguished badge during the clinic, given by Roxburgh.

Roxburgh and his instructors offered hands-on training techniques outside in the covered Petrarca Range, although no live fire was conducted during the course.

“I absolutely loved the clinic. This was my fourth time taking it,” said Jim Mervyn, 39, of Sumpter Township, MI.

Mervyn said he had been trapped at the Expert level of shooting for far too long. He couldn’t seem to find a way to break into the Master level – until he took the clinic.

“I was stuck. After I took the clinic, it gave me what I needed to make that jump to Master,” he said. “The clinic says ‘Advanced,’ but every shooter should take it because it stresses the importance of fundamentals. I learned a whole lot my first time taking it, and since then I’ve picked up nuggets of knowledge. It changed my shooting abilities overnight.”

Though tough and ruthless in his teachings, Roxburgh is also encouraging and displays genuine pride in all that his shooters accomplish. On the last day of the clinic, he even took the time out to specially award one of his shooters a Distinguished badge.

“I earned it two weeks ago, but they gave it to me today. I’ve been working towards it my whole life,” said Nathan Evagash, 19, of Glenshaw, PA, after the conclusion of the clinic. “I really liked coming here. It was interesting.”

In addition to all of the other elements that have made the clinic a success for the past six years at Camp Perry, Roxburgh says it is meant to promote participation in match shooting. He knows through his tough training techniques and the fundamentally sound advice offered through his instructors, his students will leave with a wealth of knowledge and increased confidence as they enter ranges in the future.

“It’s great that CMP provides this place for them,” he said. “CMP is an awesome organization.”

The Remington-Bushmaster Rifle Clinic are also held in the fall during the Western CMP Games and Creedmoor Cup Matches in Phoenix, AZ, and in the spring during the Eastern CMP Games and Creedmoor Cup Matches at Camp Butner, NC.

Besides classwork and hands-on training, the class was also given a written exam before the conclusion of the course.

The students were individually handed certificates as they “graduated” from the class.

Talented Live Bugler Brings New Sound to Opening Morning Rituals at National Matches

By Ashley Brugnone CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – It’s a familiar routine to regular National Match goers. The dew lingers on the blades of grass as light from the barely-risen sun cascades across the targets in the distance. A silence, then, promptly at 6:55 a.m., an exploding boom resonates through the thick morning air as the cannon is fired to start the day. Softly and strongly, the sound of the National Anthem begins to play across the ranges. But this year, to the surprise of many, it wasn’t a recording being played, but a live trumpeter from the tower.

Benjamin Brooks, 60, of Houston, TX, grew up in a military family. The uniform he wears symbolizes the sort of devotion he has towards those who have served and those currently serving. The “U.S.” pin around his collar was off of his father’s uniform. Another pin on his chest with the words “In Honor of Those Who Have Served” is the base of three rows of colorful ribbons, each significant to a military event related to members of his family and shooters he has met during his performances.

“Every time I perform, there are other things going through my mind other than honoring those who are there,” he said.

A patch on his left sleeve signifies his involvement with Bugles Across America, an organization that, along with Brooks, believes that veterans who pass away deserve live Taps. As senior bugler for the Texas Honor Guard, Brooks performs 100 to 150 funeral services a year.

“I would do more if I had time. Or, I joke, when I win the lottery, then I can do them all the time,” he said as he laughed.

He began playing the trumpet in the 7th grade, as a result of his mother’s side of the family being so musically inclined. She challenged him to find an instrument he would enjoy.

“I chose the trumpet because I liked the way it sounded, and I was kind of a natural for it,” he said.

Brooks took to the instrument quickly, receiving lessons in 7th and 8th grade then learning the rest on his own. He knows all 57 bugle calls, the standard for buglers, which he began doing while he was in Boy

His uniform includes a Bugles Across America beret, patch and colorful ribbons representing past military events. He also wears a “U.S.” pin on his shirt collar, in honor of his father.

Scouts around the age of 14.

His talents led him to becoming the drum major with his high school band before enrolling at the University of Texas, where he joined the Longhorn Band and became a section leader.

Brooks enjoyed his time at the university so much that he still returns to his Alma Mater to play with the Longhorn Alumni Band that plays at halftime once a year, serving as the lead trumpeter.

When he’s not playing the trumpet or bugling, he’s a civil engineer in Houston, specializing in tennis courts with his company Patriot Court Systems he created in 2001. He builds, repairs and resurfaces over 200 courts a year.

“It’s particularly fun because I work for myself and I can do stuff like bugling because I control the company,” he said.

Besides being a trumpeter, Brooks is also a veteran participant of the National Matches. After playing the National Anthem each morning, Brooks was quickly transported to the firing line for a day of shooting.

Brooks was given gifts of appreciation for the beautiful trumpet playing that added a truly patriotic ambiance to this year’s National Matches.

Talented Live Bugler Brings New Sound to Opening Morning Rituals at National Matches Continued

In total, he owns 13 trumpets. Some he uses for studio work, for a larger sound, and others he uses for their different qualities, like the flugle horn, for a deeper sound, and a piccolo trumpet for playing in the upper register when he does church work. “

My wife thinks I’m nuts, but I think it’s fun,” he said with a smile.

To keep his lips in shape, he practices almost 20-30 minutes each day. He also finds the pastime relaxing and fun, and it allows him to play with few interruptions and lack of concentration.

Besides bellowing out across the range of Camp Perry, he has been known to play the National Anthem at military events, professional baseball games and for whoever else may be interested in hearing his trumpet skills.

“I do these things throughout the year, and it’s just because I want to,” he said. “I think it’s the right thing to do, and typically it honors those who I’m there serving.”

Brooks is so adaptable to performing at any time that he carries a handmade French Besson, which he calls his “truck trumpet,” and uniform with him in the back of his pickup so he’s ready in case he is asked to play while on the go.

“I can be called en route, and I can pull over and perform as needed if we need to honor a veteran. I have no problem doing that.”

Thus how his impromptu performance at Camp Perry came to be.

During the Saturday check-in of high power week, he went to the CMP office and asked if they were interested in a live National Anthem being played. At first, CMP members were puzzled and asked how that would be possible. Brooks mentioned that he was a trumpet player and would do it solo.

After a short discussion within the CMP office, he received a call while in the pits with the good news that they would be interested in him playing live. He was then quickly reprimanded by the pit officer for being on his cell phone.

“She was just doing her job. It’s alright,” he said with a laugh. “But at the end of that squadded practice, I came over, and we did a sound test.”

They placed helpers at the high end of Rodriguez, the low end of Viale and in the pits to see if the sound of his playing could be heard. If it was no good, they would hold their thumbs down, and if it was good, they were to take their hats off and wave them in the air. He played the bugle call “Retire the Colors,” which is played when the flag is lowered.

The sound was phenomenal. Everyone waved their hats, but those on the range who didn’t know what was going on looked around in confusion, then quickly stood at attention as the call was played.

“Everyone was standing around Camp Perry going, ‘What do we do now? What do we do now?’ It was hilarious!” said Brooks. “The two sergeants standing with me said, ‘I think we’ve got a winner here.’”

The following Monday morning, he was out on the range, sounding in the start of the day. Since he was still shooting in the matches, he had to get his gear to the line, grab his trumpet and head to the tower, followed by a rush back to the firing line to shoot.

“This has been particularly fun because I know a lot of these shooters. The Texas shooters have been bragging on me, so people will come up to me and say, ‘Is it true? Are you doing this live? That’s incredible!’ And I say good, I’ve accomplished my mission then,” he said. “That’s what it’s all about. It’s been an honor to do that this week.”

Brooks came to Camp Perry for the first time in the mid-1990s, working with the Texas State Rifle Team. Family issues kept him away from the National Matches for a few years, but now that his kids are grown and he and his wife are “empty nesters,” he has time to return to his passion of shooting.

“This was definitely on my bucket list,” he said. “I had dreams of doing this even back in the ‘90s. At that time though I was new to high power shooting, and I was trying to stay focused. But over the years, I thought it would be something I needed to do.”

He would also like to play at Arlington Cemetery, still in the works, and is set to play Taps on the U.S.S. Arizona at Pearl Harbor within the next five years.

“I was thrilled that I was given the opportunity to play at Camp Perry. I was pleased with the immediate result of how it sounded, and it was fun to do each morning. I thank the communications group for being so helpful and cooperative so that I could do that and still shoot. And I’ll be back,” he said with a grin.

Benjamin Brooks of Houston, TX, used his professional trumpeter skills to play the National Anthem live from the Rodriguez Range tower after the firing of the cannon each morning. He played with the instrument he calls his “truck trumpet.”

Taking first place honors in this year's Vintage Sniper Rifle Team Match was the Hornady Over the Hill Gang consisting of Robert Schanen and Jerome Van Treeck.

CAMP PERRY, OH – The Hornady Over the Hill Gang outshot the rest of the competitors to take the first place spot in the Vintage Sniper Rifle Team Match, held July 31 during the 2013 National Matches. Robert Schanen, 64, of Brookfield, WI, and Jerome Van Treeck, 66, of Racine, WI, shot a combined score of 394-13x to claim the honor.

Second place was obtained by the two-man team of Douglas Armstrong, 53, of Lexington, NC, and Glendale Rutherford, 61, of Tallapoosa, GA, with an aggregate score of 393-18x. The team currently holds the Vintage Sniper record score of 398-17x, set during the 2012 Matches.

Sooner Schooner nearly caught Rutherford-Armstrong, but fell short, losing in the x-count with a score of 393-14x. Jerry Penn, 63, of Edmoug, OK, and Wesley Fentress, 28, of Oklahoma City, OK, are the members of the team.

The most important award of the day was given to SGM Doug Withus, USAR, 54, of Lagrangeville, NY, and SSG John Arcularius, USAR, 39, of Stafford, VA, who won the new coveted “Best Dressed” prize. The pair garnished themselves in Ghillie suits, blending into the grassy range during their prone positions and resembling Sasquatch brothers as they moved firing lines.

“I’ve never done anything like this before. It’s so much fun,” said SGM Withus. “We just wanted an excuse to dress up.”

Andrew Giegold, 62, of Garrett, IN, didn’t know if he would be able to shoot in the Vintage Sniper Match after just recently having surgery on his right shoulder. But, having attended the National Matches for years, he wasn’t about to let Robert Depp of Owensboro, KY suffered an injury as a Marine Sniper in Vietnam, rendering him completely paralyzed from the neck down. a healing wound keep him from the firing line.

“My doctor told me I could shoot again starting August 1. Well, here I am,” he said with a smile on his face. “I kept flinching my shoulder at first, and it was really messing me up. But I just calmed down and realized that it didn’t hurt, and I shot much better. I just have to get back into the habit. I’m a little rusty.”

D’Arcy Egan, 67, a writer for the Cleveland Plain Dealer, also decided to make a place for himself on the firing line during the match. Having never shot the match before, Egan attended a clinic held the night before the match and was paired up with veteran shooter and Air National Guard Shooting Team member Stuart Mackey.

Egan later furnished a story of his experience shooting in his first-ever Vintage Rifle match, saying in the article,

“Our combined score was definitely not good enough for an award, but I’d already declared myself a winner for the chance to enjoy an afternoon with a friendly group of shooters.”

Whether in it for the competition, the outfits, tradition or a new experience, the Vintage Sniper Match has undoubtedly become a favorite amongst the National Match events. It continues to grow in popularity year after year and is expected to further develop in future events.

D’Arcy Egan, a writer from the Cleveland Plain Dealer, shot in the Vintage Sniper Rifle Team Match for the first time. He enjoyed spending the afternoon with a friendly group of shooters and wrote an article for the local newspaper, http://www.cleveland.com/outdoors/index.ssf/2013/08/top_marksmen_and_everyday_shoo.html#incart_river.

In the more relaxed setting of the Vintage Sniper Match, shooters even take the time to sit back and smile.

CMP Games Matches Continue to Stir Fun at National Matches

By Steve Cooper, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The birth of the CMP Games Matches began 14 years ago, when the John C. Garand Match was introduced. The match was meant to attract the “average” shooter to competition target shooting – and it did.

Because of the thousands of shooters that began to participate in the Garand Match, CMP stemmed out into creating other events that could similarly produce camaraderie, fun and challenges. Thus came the M1 Carbine Match, Springfield, Vintage Military and Vintage Sniper Matches. The popularity of the CMP Games Matches soon led their induction into the National Matches at Camp Perry, where they are still fired today.

The M1 Carbine Match was fired on August 2 on Rodriguez Range during one of the sunniest days of the 2013 National Matches. Many Carbine enthusiasts were on the range that day, not looking to earn a medal, but just aiming for a good time.

“Nobody is actually good at shooting this gun. It’s all over the place. You just shoot it because it’s fun,” said Steve Cooper, 56, of Elyria, OH.

First-time Carbine shooters Angelynn Hernandez, 15, of Odessa, FL, and her sister Danielle, 21, came off of the line looking as if they were filled with joy – and relief in knowing that their relay was finally over.

“My shoulder is a little sore now. I didn’t realize how much the gun would be pushing against it,” Angelynn said, smiling as she rubbed her injury. “But it was still a lot of fun.”

Her sister Danielle added, “It was a lot harder than I thought, but I’m ready to do it again.”

Mark Looney, 56, of Springfield, OH, was the overall winner in the M1 Carbine Match, with his score of 372-6x. John Henderson, 53, of Sonora, CA, took the second place position, just one point behind Looney, with an aggregate score of 371-9x. Coming in third place was Robert Winding, 53, of South Bend, IN, firing a 369-3x.

Andrew Williams, 18, of Granby, MA, was the High Junior, with a combined score of 354-2x, while William Aten, 61, of Kingwood, TX, took the High Senior spot with his score of 368-6x. Aten also set a new senior record, previously set by George Wilson with a score of 366-06x in 2009.

Michigan competitors Daniel McSorley and Ryan Vander Poppen pose with picture plaques and rifles after the Saturday Festival Closing Awards Ceremony.

Doug Pascale, of Sterling, VA, shot his Arisaka 99 rifle in the Vintage Military Rifle Match. Doug’s grandfather, Sgt Adam Ruppe, brought the rifle back from the Battle of Leyte Gulf in 1944. The rifle has been on display in the Pascale household and Doug decided to bring it to Camp Perry to the National Matches this year.

Father and son, LeRoy Ornat, 72, of Mishawaka, IN, and Glenn Ornat, 40, of Wakarusa, IN, enjoyed their time together at Camp Perry for the National CMP Games Events. They both participated in the M1 Carbine, Springfield Rifle and John C. Garand Match.

The Springfield Match was fired on August 3, along with the Vintage Military and the Garand Matches. The Springfield event turned out to be a neck and neck competition, as the top two places were only divided by the x-count.

Daniel McSorley, 51, of Caledonia, MI, fired a 292-7x to squeak out a first place win overall, narrowly beating Roy Mitchell Jr., 42, of Parma, OH, who fired a 292-2x. Harold Pate, 52, of Fort Worth, TX, recorded an aggregate score of 291-8x for third.

Briar Mullally, 16, of Essexville, MI, was the High Junior of the match, firing a 283-3x, while John Chubb, 60, of Knoxville, TN, fired a 288-5x to receive the High Senior award. Chubb also won the 3-Gun Aggregate award, having posted an aggregate score of 853-13x after firing in the Springfield, Vintage Military and Garand matches.

The Vintage Military Rifle Match was an even tougher battle, where the top three places were separated by the x-count.

In the end, Christopher Beal, 31, of Lewis Center, OH, was the overall leader with his score of 289-8x. Franco Scarpino, 66, of Pembroke, MA, fell just behind Beal, firing a score of 289-6x, while Lee McKinney, 66, of Rio Rico, AZ, slipped to third place by only one x, with a score of 289-5x.

Austin Farnsel, 20, of Berkey, OH, fired a 271-2x to become the High Junior of the match, while Franco Scarpino claimed the High Senior award. Though only beating McKinney by one x-count during the competition, Scarpino also broke the High Senior Record of 288-7x, interestingly enough set by McKinney back in 2009.

Familiar and fresh faces were present on the line during the ever-popular John C. Garand match. Even the police chief of Port Clinton, where Camp Perry is located, stopped out to fire a few rounds on the range.

Chief Robert Hickman of the Port Clinton Police Department also shot in the match, firing his M1 rifle for the first time in the 20 years that he's owned it.

"I got talked into coming out here by the mayor," said Chief Robert Hickman. "I've had my own Garand for about 20 years now and have never shot it. I hit the target, which is good, and I stayed out of the dirt. It was fun."

Ryan Vander Poppen, 41, of Fen-ville, MI, claimed the Garand Trophy, firing a 292-11x to become the overall leader in the As-Issued Garand Match. Eric Polesovsky, 35, of Toledo, OH, took the second place position with 291-10x, nudging just above Douglas Armstrong, 53, of Lexington, NC, who fired a 291-8x for third.

Robert Davis, 20, of Wichita Falls, TX, was the High Junior of the Garand Match, with a score of 285-9x, while George Gurick Jr., 65, of Farmington, NH, was the High Senior, firing a 291-3x.

Heavy fog postponed the early morning relays of the matches on August 3. Shooting was delayed for about an hour until the fog finally lifted and the targets could be seen.

John Spickard of Lebanon, TN (right) and Alvin Scott of Old Hickory, TN (left) have been shooting together for 30 years, demonstrating the sort of lifelong friendships the sport of riflery can bring.

Some shooters added more fun to the day by splashing on a little face paint.

Guy Welever and his son Burke, both of Hudson, OH, shot together for the first time since Burke's return from a stay in Denmark.

Shooters Leave Distinct Marks with Scores and Muddy Shoes During National Match Rimfire Sporter Competition

By Ashley Brugnone CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The name “Swamp Perry” held true again at this year’s National Match Rimfire Sporter Competition, held July 21, 2013 on the soggy Viale Range, left muddied from recent rain that has drowned the Northwest Ohio area. Though veteran National Match goers generally come prepared for the wet mess that is typically expected, not all were prepared for the waterlogged conditions.

“I was going to bring my Army boots this year, but I didn’t think I’d need them, so I just brought my tennis shoes. Now I’m wishing I had them,” said Jeffrey Knop, 53, of Brighton, MI, as he stood on the damp range grass during the match.

While some ill-prepared shooters spent the day with soaked feet, others improvised.

“This was an act of desperation,” said Till Curry, 73, of Milton, WV, who fashioned his own pair of “rain boots” out of two garbage bags wrapped around his feet. “I had a vision of my wife, who would go into a grocery store when it was raining and buy bags to put on her feet. I thought it would work here.”

Ron Villanueva of Parma Heights, OH, took home the overall awards for both the T-Class and the Tactical Class. Villanueva shot a score of 593-28x in the T-Class and 593-28x in the Tactical Class.

Though the water dampened their feet, it couldn’t dampen their spirits or their abilities to shoot outstanding scores.

Ben Cleland, 20, of Swanton, OH, shot an aggregate score of 581-21x to come out on top of the O-Class. Cleland also managed to snag the High Junior award in the class and receives a Savage rifle donated by Savage Arms. Hanging close in second place was the silver medal in the O-Class, Steven Slee, 49, of Dimondale, MI, with a combined score of 581-19x. Don Moore, 63, of Chattanooga, TN, brought home the bronze, firing a 580-23x.

Leading the T-Class was Ron Villanueva, 68, of Parma Heights, OH, with his score of 593-28x. Robert Ripple, 49, of Newark, OH, secured the second place spot with an aggregate score of 592-33x, while Lucas Boord, 23, of New Stanton, PA, came in third with a combined score of 591-31x. Samuel Payne, 14, of Kingston, GA, was the High Junior and High 4-H Jr Shooter in the T-Class, firing a 586-23x. Samuel will receive a Remington rifle donated by Remington. Samuel was also the High 4-H Jr Shooter in the O-Class.

Villanueva also earned himself a gold medal in the Tactical Class, coming in ahead of the rest with his score of 595-29x. Peter Yarbro, 38, of Mishawaka, IN, trailed behind in second place with a score of 589-23x, followed by William Flagg, 53, of Ashland, VA, who fired a 587-29x for third. Steven Stewart, 19, of Troy, MI, received the High Junior award with his combined score of 569-11x.

In Women’s Rankings, Amanda LaBeff, 31, of Saginaw, MI, topped the O-Class with an aggregate score of 549-8x. Natalie Harper, 21, of Dublin, GA, achieved the High Women’s award in the T-Class with her score of 587-20x. Leading the women in the Tactical Class was Denise Miller, 39, of Coshocton, OH, who fired a score of 576-15x.

Ben Cleland of Swanton, OH, won the overall award in the O-Class with an aggregate score of 581-21x.

Don Moore snatched the High Senior award for the O-Class with his score of 580-23x, as well as in the T-Class, firing a 584-22x. Mark Montgomery, 61, of Gibsonburg, OH, was the High Senior in the Tactical Class with his aggregate score of 585-18x.

Steven Stewart (right) of Troy, MI, received the High Junior award in the Tactical class, with his score of 569-11x. Stewart was handed his award by CMP board member Mrs. Marsha Beasley.

The National Rimfire Sporter Match also allows Youth-Adult Partner Teams to compete. The combo brother team from Georgia Zach and Samuel Payne won both the O-Class and T-Class team events firing scores of 1103-14X and 1172-52X. In the Tactical Team Match, Dennis Rodgers and Brandon Lutz from New Brighton, PA, fired a 1062-9X to place first.

Lapua was a sponsor for the National Rimfire Sporter Match donating 50 rounds of smallbore ammunition to each competitor. Thank you Lapua for your continued support.

Rimfire Sporter is one of the fastest growing shooting sports in the United States today. The course of fire is designed so veteran and beginner shooters alike are able to understand basic gun safety, marksmanship and target shooting practices. It is meant to be a fun and relaxed shooting experience for all who take part.

The CMP's Rimfire Sporter Matches are fired with .22 caliber rifles weighing under 7 ½ lbs and can be classified in the T-Class (Telescopic), the O-Class (Open sights) or the Tactical Class. Prone slow-fire, prone rapid, sitting or kneeling slow-fire and sitting or kneeling rapid-fire are fired at 50 yards and standing slow-fire and standing rapid fire are fired at 25 yards. CMP Affiliated Clubs sanctioned Rimfire Sporter Matches around the U.S. Visit <http://www.thecmp.org/Competitions/Rimfire.htm> for more information.

Jeff Knop (left) of Brighton, MI, ended the match with soaked feet, thanks to the many puddles of standing water around the range.

Natalie Harper of Dublin, GA, received the High Women's award in the T-Class with her score of 587-20x.

Samuel Payne (center) and Zach Payne (right) won the Youth Adult Partner Match in the O-Class with their combined score of 1103-14x.

Don Moore of Chattanooga, TN, received the High Senior award in both the O-Class, with a score of 580-23x, as well as the T-Class, firing a 584-22x.

Till Curry (left) of Milton, WV, got crafty with two garbage bags to avoid muddy shoes during the standing phase of the match.

National Matches Air Gun Events Return Despite Renovations at CMP Marksmanship Center

By Ashley Brugnone CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The 6th annual National Matches Air Gun Events were held at a disheveled CMP Marksmanship Center at Camp Perry July 8 through August 3. Construction equipment, mounds of dirt and building materials surrounded the center as a renovation project, expected to be finished in 2014, left half of the building unusable for match goers. Fortunately, the air gun range within was still able to house the popular National Match air pistol and rifle events.

The Air Rifle Events consisted of the 20 Shot Standing Re-Entry (sporter, match and NMAR rifles), 20 Shot Novice Prone Re-Entry (sporter), 20 Shot AiR 15 Rifle Standing Re-Entry, AiR 15 Challenge with Top 20 Shoot Off, Air Rifle 30 Shot Match (precision) and the 60 Shot Air Rifle Match.

Brooke Nofzinger, 12, of Fremont, OH, overtook the 20 Shot Sporter Standing match with her score of 196, followed by Jessica Gibson, 14, of Evergreen, OH in second with 195. Brian Tabares, 22, of Emporia, KS, filled the third place position, firing a 190.

Timothy Sorg, 23, of Churubusco, IN, shot a 161 for first place in the NMAR Match Rifle 20 Shot Standing match, while Chuck Norris, 25, of Groveport, OH, followed closely with a 160 for second place. Dominic Greco, 15, of Atl. Highlands, NJ, took third with his score of 131.

Shooters fired upon the MegaLink electronic targets in air-conditioned CMP Marksmanship Center, though the rest of the building, under construction, was without power.

Standing participants were also involved in a “Top Center Shot” competition, where the shooter with the closest center shot is awarded a cash prize. Jose Vazquez, 42, of Toa Baja, Puerto Rico, won the contest with his score of 10.9 in a 0.7138 radius.

Charles Sherer, 10, of Middle Point, OH, fired an impressive 200-10x for first place in the 20 Shot Novice Prone match. The second place score of 197-7x was fired by Luke Young, 10, of Delphos, OH, followed by Brooke Nofzinger in third with her score of 196-8x.

Sagen Maddalena, 20, of Groveland, CA, won the 20 Shot AiR Rifle Standing event with a score of 194-4x. In second was Ken Van Huis, 47, of Holland, MI, with 192-1x, followed closely by Michael Chirco, 16, of St. Louis, MO, with 191-4x for third.

Troy Lawton, 50, of Columbus, GA, led the AiR 15 Challenge going into the Shoot Off with a score of 198-11x, followed by Justin Utley, 28, of Mineola, TX, in second and SSgt Leigh Jenks, 39, of the Air

The CMP Marksmanship Center’s large monitors allow spectators to see shot-by-shot scoring as the match is happening.

Those participating in the events were able to rent one of the National Match Air Rifles from CMP for use during the competitions. A large quantity of Daisy M853 sporter rifles were also available for use.

In the end, Lawton held on to earn first place in the shoot off with his score of 198-5x. Lawton also received a check for $500 from the CMP. Coming in second was Nick Till, 39, of Howell, MI, with a score of 197-7x. He was also awarded a check from CMP, in the amount of $300. Receiving third place and a $200 from the CMP was Paul Kerr, 32, of Cleveland Heights, OH, with his score of 196-3x, followed by SSG Tyrel Cooper, 28, of the United States Army Marksmanship Unit, with his score of 195-4x for fourth place. SSG Cooper was given a check for $125.
