

FINAL RESULTS 2014 NATIONAL TROPHY RIFLE MATCHES

CMP's First Shot Ceremony Observes WWII Battles, Triumphs of Decorated Olympian

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – The Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) ceremonial First Shot Ceremony on July 7, 2014 at Rodriguez Range in Camp Perry, OH, celebrated more than the beginnings of the National Matches – it also commemorated the sacrifices of America's Greatest Generation. The date of the ceremony coincidentally fell on the day two significant World War II battles transpired, sparking the need to honor the overlapping historical moments through words, sights and reenactments.

Exactly 70 years ago, on July 7, 1944, American military personnel were active in both the European and Pacific theatres during World War II. That day in Normandy, France, U.S. forces were advancing upon the town of Saint Lo in an attempt to liberate it from the Germans. In another part of the world, that same day, U.S. forces resisted the largest banzai charge of the Pacific War on the island of Saipan.

With Sherman tanks battling for more than three weeks to free Saint Lo, the U.S. 29th Infantry, with the help of the 30th and 35th Divisions, infiltrated and ran off the German troops. On Saipan, the Japanese engaged the U.S. Army and Marine Units, wounding and killing some 650 soldiers of the 1st and 2nd Battalions of the 105th Infantry Regiment. However, with fierce resistance, Saipan was officially under U.S. control two days later.

Equipment similar to that used in each battle were on static display during the First Shot Ceremony, including a World War II AMTRAC – an amphibious beach landing craft, on loan from Tom Price of Bowling Green, OH. The vehicle was used in the Clint Eastwood film, "Flags of Our Fathers", and was the same type used during the Battle of Saipan.

Other vintage vehicles used during the battles, such as an M4 Sherman Tank, were mobilized as the crowd watched in awe. The tank, known as "Thunderbolt," proudly and confidently rolled down the gravel road between Rodriguez and Petrarca ranges, followed by the Toledo-made Willy's Jeeps to complete the ground parade.

Thunderbolt was present at the ceremony courtesy of the Allen County Museum and Historical Society in Lima, OH, while the Jeeps were on loan from the Firelands Military Vehicle Group.

As the vehicles patrolled the grounds towards the stands, the crowd looked to the skies as the aerial show began. A Navy TBM Avenger torpedo bomber gracefully buzzed through the cloudy skies, trailed by a B-25 medium-range bomber, "Yankee Warrior." Both planes made a booming entrance as they cascaded through the air above.

A pair of World War II German Flak Guns, from the Liberty Aviation Museum and private owner Chris Weiss, rat-ta-tat-tatted as the planes jetted through the clouds, simulating an anti-aircraft resistance to the bombers.

The torpedo bomber is owned by Charlie Cartledge and was flown from Port Clinton's Liberty Aviation Museum. Yankee Warrior hails from the Yankee Aviation Museum and was flown from Willow Run Airport in Belleville, MI.

The wind from the blustery day howled as the ground and aerial performances met to reenact a World War II raid. Reenactors in authentic military helmets and uniforms rode tall in the vehicles as the planes flew overhead. Carefully placed pyrotechnic bombs and controlled smoke exploded alongside the range berms, simulating a true air invasion.

Once the planes made their passes and the ground troop applied its resistance, the crowd roared and once again drew their attention to the center of the ceremony field as the presentation of the colors began. The CMP was honored and privileged to have the American flag that flies over Camp Perry for the duration of the 2014 National Matches hand-carried by two lives that were personally touched by the happenings of World War II.

The CMP was honored to have World War II veteran Jack Price deliver the colors. Price was present at the invasion of Normandy and also served in the South Pacific.

Gary Anderson showed perfect poise as he delivered the ceremonial First Shot to kick off the National Matches.

When the matches concluded on 2 August, 6,849 individual shooters had participated in the 2014 CMP National Matches rifle events and schools.

As always, the matches featured lots of great shooting by talented heroes that included:

- SGT Augustus Dunfey, USA, of Phenix City, AL, who won the President's Rifle Trophy with his score of 393-14X. SGT Dunfey had the highest score of 96 to move into the lead during the final stage of the President's Match.

Making history as overall champions of the 2014 match was the Virginia Firearms Education and Marksmanship, Inc. (VFEMI), with a score of 1359. Their score also set a new National Match Record for the Leatherneck Trophy.
- 18-year-old Morgan Owen of Sonora, CA, who was the overall junior in the 2014 National Trophy Rifle Matches. Owen fired an aggregate score of 1257-28X.
- CMP Games Matches winners Brian Williams, M1 Carbine; Jeffery Schafer Sr., Springfield Rifle; Mark Aussieker, Vintage Military Rifle; Larry Sollars II, John C. Garand Match; and Capt Nick Roberge, USMC, Unlimited Garand Match. Larry Sollars II also set a new National Match Record in the Garand Match - 393-9X.

- SSG Brandon Green, USA, was the Overall Individual Service Rifle Champion with a score of 1577068. Keith Stephens, of College Station, TX, was the high civilian shooter with a score of 1562-49. Keith also set two National Match records - the National Civilian Rifle Team, 495-23X, and the Pietroforte Trophy, 985-35X.

The CMP extends sincere thanks to everyone who made significant contributions to another great National Matches. Be sure to see the complete list of Acknowledgements and Thanks on page 3 where we identify the organizations, school and clinic leaders, award donors and ammunition suppliers that were indispensable in making this year's matches so successful. Photo galleries may be viewed on our photo website at cmp1.zenfolio.com. We encourage you to download and share your photos.

We certainly thank all of you for coming to Camp Perry this year. Again in 2015, we will continue with the significant changes to the National Match schedule as we make room for the inclusion of the World Rifle Championships, being held at Camp Perry. Please take the time to review the 2015 schedule on the CMP website. Though the order of events is different, we still expect the same amount of competition, camaraderie and fun that has made the National Matches so memorable over the years.

We hope to see you back at Camp Perry for the 2015 National Trophy Rifle Matches and CMP Games events.

National Trophy Rifle Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

Mr. Jack Price, a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II who served both at the Normandy Invasion and later in the South Pacific confidently walked across the ceremony field as the audience respectfully praised him with applause. Mr. Price handed off the folded colors to Mrs. Susie Charlton – the daughter of the late U.S. Marine Raider PFC Robert Lano, of Port Clinton. Mr. Lano fought in the Battle of Saipan. Mrs. Charlton marched the flag to the pole for the color guards to slowly hoist into the air.

As the flag flapped in the breeze, the 122nd Army Band played the National Anthem. After distinguished guests were acknowledged, the First Shot Speaker, Gary Anderson, was introduced to the crowd. Anderson is known as one of the best shooters in American history, making his presence at the First Shot Ceremony something truly memorable for all in attendance.

Anderson began his marksmanship career in the fields of Nebraska as a boy, eventually moving on to become a member of the elite U.S. Army Marksmanship Unit at Fort Benning, GA, in 1959.

As his skills flourished and improved, he went on to produce two Olympic gold medals, seven World Championships, six World Records and 16 National Championships. No American has ever won more three-position rifle titles than Gary Anderson.

As Director of Civilian Marksmanship Emeritus, Anderson continues to influence juniors in shooting sports in the United States and around the world. Under his direction, the CMP installed eleven new events to the National Matches, helping to increase the participation from 2,250 to 5,000, as well as expanding the opportunities for eager competitors.

In 2012, he was awarded the International Olympic Committee's (IOC) Olympic Order. The Order is the highest award given by the IOC and is awarded to individuals for distinguished contributions to the Olympic Movement.

On July 7, 2014, the new Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center was dedicated in Anderson's honor. The center, located at Camp Perry, houses classrooms and a world-class air rifle range for the future development of junior marksmen everywhere.

For the ceremony, Anderson dusted off a rifle from his personal collection that was used to win two NRA National Highpower Rifle Championships, one NRA National Long Range Rifle Championship, three President's Rifle matches and many National match trophies. It was also used to shoot the national record target (1971, 200 yards standing, 200-15x).

As Anderson stood behind the bench that held the ceremonial First Shot rifle, he slowly buttoned and latched his shooting jacket and placed his ear muffs on his head. Photographers gathered to his left and right, anticipating the incredible photo opportunity of the honored guest firing his celebrated rifle. He lifted the sights to his eye, aligned the shot with the ceremonial target downrange and pulled the trigger. A pyrotechnical explosion burst the target into pieces as the crowd cheered.

Though the CMP traditionally offers the ceremonial First Shot rifle to the First Shot Speaker, this year, it was the Speaker who offered the rifle to the CMP. The donated rifle will be on permanent display within the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center.

The CMP presented Anderson a granite paver with his name and the First Shot date engraved upon it. The paver will be placed in his honor at the new CMP Talladega Marksmanship Park in Alabama – currently under construction.

Veteran Jack Price handed off the colors to Susie Charlton, whose father served at the Battle of Saipan.

A fleet of vintage vehicles rolled towards the crowd, driven by World War II reenactors. A M4 Sherman tank led the pack, followed by Toledo-made Willy's Jeeps.

After Anderson returned to his seat, the 122nd Army Band raised their instruments and began to play the Armed Forces Salute. One by one, veterans and current military service men and women stood as their branch's salute was played. Once the final note played, a resounding boom echoed throughout the ranges as the Sherman tank fired two volleys towards Lake Erie.

And so, with pomp, circumstance, honorable guests and many pyrotechnical explosions, the 2014 National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches officially opened. Good luck to all participants, and enjoy the communal and competitive excitement the season brings!

Dunfey Bests Teammates Through Windy Conditions to Win Prestigious President's Rifle Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Shifting winds made for an exciting finish to the always-anticipated President's Rifle Match, fired on July 22 at the National Matches. A group of 1,126 competitive marksmen ascended the firing line at Camp Perry for a chance to become members of the historic President's Hundred or even receive his or her name engraved on the esteemed President's Rifle Trophy.

During the match, competitors follow the President's Rifle Match Course of Fire, consisting of standing, as well as slow and rapid fire prone positions at 200, 300 and 600 yards. First fired in 1903, the event is arguably the most prestigious event offered for individual rifleman during the National Match season.

Another feat competitors are eager to obtain is becoming a member of the President's Hundred – reserved for the Top 100 competitors of the match. Marksmen who achieve this triumph receive commemorative medallions and certificates for their accomplishment.

Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU) member SPC Joseph Hall, 28, of Box Springs, GA, led the match going into the top 20 final stage. Having recently switched from International air rifle competition to the highpower service rifle unit in March, Hall showed great skill through his transition, recording an outstanding score of 298-10x.

Though Hall was in the lead at the conclusion of the regular Course of Fire, he still needed to finish ahead of the pack in the famous President's Rifle top 20 final stage in order to be named the overall winner.

The final stage compiles the 20 best shooters of the match in a shot-by-shot competition from 600 yards in the prone position. The Top 20 fire single shots in a time limit of 50 seconds. Once time is up, scorekeepers mark the shot on large targets behind the shooters that are visible to the crowd, making the final stage exciting for competitors and spectators alike.

After a hard fought match against brutal wind gusts, AMU member SGT Augustus Dunfey, 30, of Phenix City, AL, arose as the top marksmen in the final stage, recording an impressive score of 96-0x in the difficult conditions to earn a score of 393-14x overall. "This match is extremely important to me," he said. "The President's 100 is one of the most, if not the most, prestigious match of the National Matches, so it's an honor."

SGT Augustus Dunfey of the AMU fought with focus and determination to win the final and receive his name engraved on the President's Rifle Trophy. BG Mark Arnold presented SGT Dunfey a rifle donated by Colt Manufacturing.

SPC Joseph Hall finished the match in first place during the match before falling to third place overall in the final behind teammates Dunfey and Green. Hall has reason to be proud of his accomplishment, having only been a member of the AMU service rifle team since March.

With large targets and single-shot structure, the final stage is designed to be a spectator-friendly event. Many media members, teammates and other guests gather in eager crowds to witness who will become the next champion.

Beginning the final stage in second place, Dunfey remained focused on his target downrange and fired away.

"I was surprised," he said. "I dropped a point early but I was trying to not pay attention to the score. I was just trying to put one in the middle."

Next to him along the firing line were five of his AMU teammates. Though they are encouraged to work together as a unit, they are also trained to compete against each other as individuals. The amount of talent on the team allows tough competition training on a daily basis.

"We train hours and hours every day against each other, but (coach) SGT Praslik always tells us to just come out to the firing line, and our biggest competition is our teammates," explained Dunfey. "Every day we come out here and we try to shoot against ourselves. If we can beat each other, then we can win a match. That's what I tried to do."

Nash Neubauer, 20, of Amston, CT, was the High Junior of the match, coming in sixth place overall. His first time firing the President's Rifle Match, he earned his spot as a member of the esteemed President's Hundred.

"It's an honor to be up there with all of the people I've looked up to. It's an amazing feeling," he said. "I was happy to be able to accomplish what I set out to do."

His coach, Bradford Palmer, stood behind Neubauer as he watched his young marksman fire alongside some of the best riflemen in the country. As any mentor would react, Palmer was beaming from ear to ear at his junior's accomplishment.

"It felt wonderful to see him up on the line. I'm very proud of him," Palmer said. "We've been working hard, and it paid off."

High Senior of the event was Richard Zolnowsky, 62, of Wagner, SD, with a score of 376-14x, including the final stage. Zolnowsky was the only senior to fire in the final stage. High Woman was MSgt. Julia Carlson, 38, of Provo, UT, with a score of 381-11x. Carlson finished in ninth place overall in the final.

Nash Neubauer was the High Junior of the event, finishing in sixth place. His first time firing in the match, Neubauer was honored to earn his place in the President's Hundred. His coach, Bradley Palmer, was there to support his young shooter.

Coming in second place in the match behind Dunfey was SSG Brandon Green, 29, of Box Springs, GA, with a score of 388-15x, followed by Hall, who finished with an overall score of 386-14x.

Large targets placed on stands behind each shooter displayed the shot-by-shot scores. After each 60-second time period, scorers placed numbered markers on the targets to show where the shot was fired.

SSG Brandon Green of the AMU finished in second place in the match, ending with an outstanding score of 388-15x. SSG Green was the 2014 Overall Rifle Individual Champion.

Competitors Display Marksmanhip Excellence During NTI, NTT and Junior Team Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – Each year, the National Trophy Individual (NTI), National Trophy Team (NTT) and National Trophy Junior Team matches become three of the most telling events during the competition season: sifting out which teams and individuals have earned the right to be named the best of the year.

The NTI first began in 1904 and quickly became one of the most sought-after events of the National Trophy Matches. The overall marksman of the match receives his or her name etched into the famous Daniel Boone Trophy, on permanent display at Camp Perry. During this year's National Matches, 928 competitors fought on July 23 for their chance to be named champion.

Winning the NTI was Navy CDR Matt Bartel, 42, of Severna Park, MD, who fired a 494-22x. Following closely in second place was Army SGT Kevin Trickett, 26, of Phenix City, AL, with a score of 494-19x, while civilian Eric Sundholm, 32, of Hillsboro, AL, fired 494-17x for third. CDR Bartel also received a MT6700 rifle donated by Colt Manufacturing.

Sundholm, as High Civilian, also earned the coveted Nathan Hale Trophy. Forrest Greenwood, 18, of Ceres, CA, fired a 483-15x to receive the Golden Eagle Trophy, awarded to the High Junior of the match.

The NTT was first fired at the inaugural National Matches in 1903. Six-person teams follow a National Match Course of Fire from 200, 300 and 600 yards.

Winners of the match receive such coveted trophies as the Soldier of Marathon for Civilians, the Pershing Trophy for the High Individual and the National Trophy for the overall team. This year, over 50 teams competed in the match, fired on July 21.

Winning the NTT and claiming the National Trophy was United States Army Marksman Unit Team Praslick, with a score of 2957-109x. Firing members are SSG Brandon Green, SPC Joseph Hall, SGT Augustus Dunfey, SGT Amanda Elsenboss, SFC Joel Micholick and SPC David Bahten. SFC Emil Praslick serves as coach, with SFC Robert Scoup as captain.

In second place was United States Marine Corps (USMC) Reserve team with a score of 2944-107x, followed by USMC Gold, with a score of 2933-101x.

The highest-scoring civilian team of the match, earning the Soldier of Marathon Trophy, was TSRA Gold, with a score of 2907-90x. Members are Justin Utley, Kyle Hoelscher, Randall Scheibel, John Hefner, John Ilzhofer and Keith Stephens. The team was coached by Stephens and team captain was Kenneth Gaby. Stephens was also the highest overall individual of the match, firing a 495-23x. For his impressive score, Stephens received his name engraved on the Pershing Trophy.

Winning the Minuteman Trophy, for the highest junior team, was CA – Coalinga Thumpers, with a score of 2853-71x. Members are Jacob Nelson, Morgan Owen, Lane Ichord, Forrest Greenwood, Joshua Bick and Kasey Nelson. The team was coached by Dirk Seeley and team captain was Lane Ichord. The team also received an A2 Service Rifle donated by Rock River.

The National Trophy Junior Team Match is a two-person team match, following the same Course of Fire as the NTT. This year's match, fired on July 18, included 84 teams vying for the Freedom's Fire Trophy.

The winning overall team was CA Hodgdon, with a score of 970-28x. Team members are Morgan Owen, 18, of Sonora, CA, and Jacob Nelson, 16, of Escondido, CA. The team is coached by Jim O'Connell.

In second place was Verne Conant, 18, of Billerica, MA, and Olivia Fabrizio, 19, of Lynn, MA, a.k.a. Reading Rifle & Revolver #1, with a score of 963-30x. Conant was also the highest overall individual of the match, firing a score of 490-17x.

Daniel Hall, 18, and Josh Hanrahan, 16, of Green Bay, WI, WI Force Cheddar, recorded a score of 963-21x for third.

Talented juniors from all corners of the country meet on the firing line at the National Trophy Rifle Matches at Camp Perry each year to display their hard work and determination, as well as to gather amongst friends with the common passions.

Freeman and Friend Overtake Difficult Hearst Doubles Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – On the morning of July 18, a throng of over 500 eager marksmen dug their feet into the dirt of the firing line on Camp Perry's Viale Range to earn the right to be called champions of the 2014 Hearst Doubles Match. This year, the match hosted 269 teams on the firing line.

The match was first introduced as a National Trophy Rifle Match back in 2006. Since then, it has become one of the most prestigious events during the National Match season. Winners receive their names permanently engraved on the coveted William Randolph Hearst Trophy. Promoting excellence, perseverance and teamwork, the event is open to marksmen of all ages.

Cole Humber, 16, of Nashua, NH, and his partner Patrick Cabrera, 15, of Hudson, NH, had never fired in the Hearst Doubles before, without really much of an idea of what to expect. Their coach was also shooting at the same time, leaving the pair without the helpful knowledge of their mentor on the firing line. Luckily, surrounding veterans of the match were friendly enough to offer their own tips to the two up-and-coming juniors.

"This match is a challenge, that's for sure," said Humber. "You don't get any sighters, so you'd better hope you had everything sighted in before you came here. But it's a lot of fun too."

Bryan Dailey, 35, of Cumming, GA, and his partner, Troy Lawton, 51, of Columbus, GA, finished in eighth place overall and were the second-highest civilian team in the match. With so many military servicemen firing in the CMP Matches, some may feel intimidated on the firing line. But, in Dailey's mind, there's really only one competitor to worry about.

Over 500 competitors fired in this year's Hearst Doubles Match.

"We're competing against ourselves. We don't have any control over anyone else," he said. "We chugged along and both shot about our own personal averages, so you can't ask much more than that."

Two-person teams fire a 30-shot Course of Fire with service rifles from 200, 300 and 600 yards, with no sighters. Teams alternate firing on the same target at the same time.

Winning the Hearst Doubles was the team of Freeman-Friend, consisting of U.S. Army Reserve members SGT Kristoffer Friend, 28, of Stamford, CT, and CPT Samuel Freeman, 30, of Hendersonville, NC. The pair fired a combined score of 587-21x.

The record score of 594-22x for the Hearst Doubles was set by SSG Tyrel Cooper and SGT Augustus Dunfey in 2013.

Falling short of Freeman-Friend by only one point was the U.S. Marine Corps (USMC) team of Pennington-Bailey, which fired an aggregate score of 586-21x. Members of the team were LCpl. James Pennington, 26, of Bowlus, MN, and Sgt. Kyle Bailey, 25, of Quantico, VA.

Only two x's behind Penning-Bailey was fellow USMC team Peterson-Snyder. SSgt. Timothy Snyder, 32, of Fredericksburg, VA, and SGT Joseph Peterson, 30, of Fredericksburg, VA, fired a combined score of 586-18x for third.

Snyder was the second highest individual shooter of the match, with his score of 296-7x. SFC Daniel Dorosheff, 40, of High Springs, FL, Army Reserve, was the overall leading individual, recording an impressive score of 297-13x. Dorosheff's team finished in 11th place.

During the match, competitors fire from 200, 300 and 600 yards.

The Hearst Doubles is a two-person team match, where each member alternates firing.

Civilian Teams Emerge as Leaders in the 2014 National Trophy Infantry Team Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – On July 20, for only the third time in the event's 92-year existence, a civilian team outshot the rest in the National Trophy Infantry Team (NTIT) match. Nicknamed the "Rattle Battle" for the quick strings of rapid fire the match demands, the NTIT hosts civilian, junior and military teams – requiring an astounding amount of concentration and camaraderie for success.

Making history as overall champions of the 2014 match was the Virginia Firearms Education and Marksmanship, Inc. (VFEMI), with a score of 1359. Team members are Alvin Bethel, John Boynton, Clyde Bryant, James Otto, Roman Podshivalov and Gregory Spitzer. The team is coached by David Kozikowski, while Jon Geel serves as Captain. VFEMI is only the third civilian team in the history of the NTIT to earn the overall title.

"To be on the top of the winning civilian list is one thing, but to be on the top of the list over everyone – it's unbelievable," said team member John Boynton, 50, of Springfield, VA.

Because of their home location in Virginia, the team has the advantage of being able to practice at the nearby Marine Corps base at Quantico. Now, with their recent win, the team may have to look for new facilities to hone their skills.

"We're fortunate to have that facility so close. We can't brag there now or we might get disinvented for beating the Marine Corps team," said Boynton, jokingly.

The NTIT was first fired in 1922. Previously, only two Civilian teams had won the match: the Nebraska Civilian team in 1930 and the California Grizzlies Junior Team in 2009. Civilians led the competition this year, coming in the top three places.

The "Rattle Battle" is unique to other events because of its emphasis on fast, accurate firing in a team setting. This year, 37 teams fired in the event.

Junior teams also make their ways to the firing line for the NTIT, like the Michigunners, based out of Michigan. The team practices all year for the Rattle Battle match, with the guidance of Lewis Gaddie. According to him, there's more than just strategy that goes into properly training for the event.

"We want them to have fun, but we want them to do their job," he said. "They take their shooting very seriously. We try to teach them from their mistakes. But they still have fun."

His first year helping coach the junior team for the Rattle Battle, Gaddie explains that there's a definite difference between training juniors rather than adults.

"The maturity level is different. The kids actually listen better than the adults do," he said, with a laugh. "The adults have a tendency to be a little hard-headed."

"It's great seeing the juniors out here," said

Many different teams participate in the Rattle Battle because of the excitement the match can bring. Even wounded veterans form a team to compete in the fun and challenging event.

Lewis Gaddie and his junior team, the Michigunners, finished eighth in the Junior Infantry Team competition. This was the first year Gaddie helped coach juniors for the Rattle Battle.

During the NTIT, teams fire off 384 rounds from the 600, 400, 300 and 200 yard lines until all of their ammo is used. The match requires an incredible amount of focus and accuracy.

Winning the NTIT was the civilian team VFEMI. The team is only the third civilian team in over 90 years to defeat military marksmanship units in the match.

John Spickard, 71, of Lebanon, TN, who helped coach the Snake Bit ORSA team in the match.

Spickard is a veteran of the NTIT, having fired in it many times before. This year, he served as coach instead of shooter in order to help cultivate other marksmen for the future of the event and allow others to enjoy the fun and excitement it guarantees.

"I like to let someone else shoot," he said. "We just want to shoot a good score and have smiles on our faces and have a good time."

Coming in second place in the match was civilian team Coalinga Killer Rabbits of California, with a score of 1270. Following in third was yet another civilian team, TSRA Gold of Texas, with a score of 1243.

The CA Grizzlies Motherlode led the junior competition, with a score of 1100. Members are Sophie Christensen, Sean Depolo, Andrew Miller, Kasey Nelson, Hollie Swenson and Peter Tidball. The team is led by coach Miles Grove and captain Cheyanne Acebo.

All Guard Gold finishing 5th overall and the top Reserve team earning the Celtic Chieftain Trophy with a score of 1204. Members are MSGT Edward Altmeyer, ARNG, SSG John Coggshall, ARNG, SSgt Leigh Jenkins, ANG, CW3 David Kerin, ARNG, SSG Jonathan O'Neal, ARNG and TSgt Daniel Rodriguez, ANG. The team is led by coach CW4 Rick Tanner, ARNG, and captain MSgt Garey Diefenderfer, ANG.

Coaches stand behind the competitors on the firing line to call wind and give guidance throughout the match.

One of the most important elements of the NTIT is ammunition. An appealing and unique part of the match is that teams are not required to fire from different positions – with their only objective being to fire until they've exhausted their rounds.

Each year, members of the junior team from California find themselves in a hairy (sometimes hair-LESS) situation, as they break out their razors to stand out amongst the other competitors.

The NTIT is one of the most anticipated events during the National Match season. With its rapid nature and intense competition between civilian and military teams, the event is considered one of the most popular spectator-friendly matches at Camp Perry.

Students Earn Valuable Experiences with Friendly Competition During 2014 Small Arms Firing School

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – Under sunny skies and pleasant conditions, the extremely popular Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) was held July 16-17 during the National Trophy Rifle Matches at Camp Perry. More than 460 new and experienced marksmen attended the course.

Melissa Alexander, 35, of Hillsboro, OH, chose to take part in the SAFS course after her son, Jacob, 13, decided he wanted to attend the National Matches. Though she was apprehensive at first, she said she now feels signing up for the course was a very worthwhile decision.

"It's my first experience with highpower, and I learned all kinds of things on technique and how to be more accurate," she said. "I was very nervous at the beginning, but once you get into it, you find that the rifle isn't nearly as bad as you might think. It's very easy to use."

2LT Daniel Chappell, 23, of Dexter, MO, took the SAFS course for the second year in a row. As a member of the rifle team at Arkansas State University, he uses the opportunity to participate in SAFS as a way of earning some extra practice from top instructors.

"There's a lot of good experience here, and a lot of good learning," he said. "The one-on-one instruction is some of the best I've ever received."

Students in the course learn basic instruction and firing practices, as well as competition skills on the firing line with the AR-15 service rifle. Highly qualified instructors from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and other military shooting teams educate participants with classroom and hands-on training.

"I was on the first relay, and I was scared. I was petrified," said Pat Modrich, 57, of Tyngsboro, MA. "But the guys there were absolutely phenomenal coaches. You could not have asked for any better. I cannot say enough about that. They deserve a lot of Kudos."

Modrich shot alongside her friend, Christine Humber, who was also taking SAFS for the first time. Not only was Humber, 47, of Nashua, NH, Christine Humber of Nashua, NH, managed to take the entire course in her casted leg. Though somewhat uncomfortable at times, she still enjoyed the class.

Members of the Army Marksmanship Unit and other military shooting teams served as instructors for the course.

a newbie to highpower shooting, but she also had to complete the entire course with a cast she was forced to wear on her leg from a recent injury. Though a little less spring in her step, she didn't allow her accessory to stop her from competing.

"And have my son ridicule me? Are you kidding me?" she said as she smiled. "The standing didn't feel great, but it was still enjoyable. I think I did pretty well considering."

The conclusion of the school features a true Rifle Excellence-In-Competition (EIC) match, where competitors have the opportunity to earn introductory 4-point legs towards an esteemed Distinguished Badge.

With their first EIC match behind them, Modrich and Humber were only left with reflection on their new experience – and their scorecards to compare who shot the best.

"She beat me," said Humber as she pointed to Modrich. "But next year, when I don't have this boot – game on!" she added, with a laugh.

Olivia Fabrizio, 19, of Lynn, MA, was the overall winner of the Rifle EIC competition with an aggregate score 393-16x. She had an outstanding performance during the match, recording perfect scores of 100 in both slow and Instructors led with hands-on coaching on the firing line.

Participants in the school had the opportunity to fire real AR-15 rifles to practice handling the firearm. Students also competed in a true M16 Match.

Neubauer and Graw Top EIC Match During CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Clinic

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – On July 15-17, a group of 147 junior marksmen gathered at Camp Perry to take part in the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP)/United States Marine Corps (USMC) Junior Highpower Clinic. The course is designed to enhance rifle knowledge and skill, both mechanically and during competition. Juniors just beginning their rifling careers and those looking to further develop their abilities participate in the course year after year.

“I took this because I wanted to get better, and I think I accomplished that,” said Nathaniel Lapp, 14, of Strongsville, OH. “Before, I was dry fire practicing every day, and this has given me more knowledge in windage and things like that.”

The clinic offers advanced instruction on service rifle technique from members of the U.S. Marine Corps Rifle Team, with support from the CMP. Clinic-goers receive classroom training as well as hands-on experience at the range from the 200-, 300- and 600-yard firing lines. Juniors must complete the Small Arms Firing School before attending the USMC Clinic.

“Everything here went pretty well. I had a crossfire from the 600, which wasn’t good, but I still came off better than my average from there, so I was happy,” said Charlie

Participants in the USMC clinic received classroom education from the instructors before heading out on the range for dry and live firing.

Pistole, 18, of Bumpass, VA. “The instructors were very good and patient. I’ll most likely take this clinic again.”

On the final day of the course, all juniors compete in a true Excellence-In-Competition (EIC) Match. The top 10 percent of competitors who have not received previous points have an opportunity to receive their introductory leg points towards earning a Distinguished Badge.

Obtaining his first EIC points was Jack Graw, 15, of Murrysville, PA, who fired

In the overall match, including competitors who have received previous EIC points, Nash Neubauer, 20, of Amston, CT, led the pack. Following Neubauer in second place was Lane Ichord, 20, of Waterford, CA, with a score of 478-12x. Jacob Nelson, 16, of Escondido, CA, earned the third place spot with his score of 478-10x.

A group of 147 juniors attended the United States Marine Corps clinic, held at Camp Perry during the 2014 National Matches. The first day begins with dry firing and snapping into position.

Members of the USMC shooting team used hands-on instruction on the firing line to guide juniors through competition techniques and safety practices.

Junior participants fired in a true EIC match, under the observation of instructors. Competitors fired from 200, 300 and 600 yards.

Participants Receive Tools for Success at Advanced CMP-Remington Highpower Clinic

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – A place for excelling in competition, the National Matches at Camp Perry have also gained the reputation of being a place to find the tools to reach that excellence. On July 15-17, a group of 52 men and women attended the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) Remington Advanced Highpower Clinic in the hopes of incorporating even more rifling wisdom into their competitive routines.

The clinic offers advanced instruction in service rifle competition techniques from members of the Remington-Bushmaster Team, with support from the CMP. Students within the course receive classroom instruction as well as dry-firing practice and guided discussion. Adults and juniors are both permitted to attend the advanced clinic.

Retired U.S. Marine and former Non-Commissioned Officer in charge of the USMC Shooting Teams, Kenneth Roxburgh, serves as lead instructor for the course. Roxburgh began as leader of the CMP-USMC Junior Highpower Clinic. After joining Remington in 2007, he had the idea within his mind to create a course for marksmen of all ages wanting to further enhance their rifling skills. The idea manifested into the Advanced Remington Highpower Rifle Clinic.

"Our goal at Remington is to provide quality marksmanship training at fundamental and advanced levels of instruction," said Roxburgh. "We do this with formal classroom instruction using power point and conventional techniques of platform instruction."

Roxburgh and his team of highly qualified instructors conduct local, state, regional and national clinics, just like the one held at Camp Perry during the National Matches. The team can also be found holding the clinic at some individual clubs, touching on some subjects such as:

- Rifle Safety and Weapons Handling
- Aiming and Trigger Control
- Techniques of Slow and Rapid Firing
- Effects of Weather
- Advanced Wind Reading
- Match Etiquette
- Team Shooting
- Courses of Fire
- Care and Cleaning of Match Rifles and Equipment

"At Remington, we take marksmanship instruction very seriously, and so do all of our students who complete the course. I know that senior CMP leadership does too," said Roxburgh. "It is a very rewarding interaction for me and my fellow instructors at Remington."

Outside of the classroom, students are also given guided dry firing practice out on the range.

At the conclusion of the class, students are administered an examination to gauge the quality of instruction and the overall success of the clinic. Some questions are mandatory and must be answered in order to pass. Examinations can also be administered orally to ensure that each student is given the proper opportunity to absorb the material.

"This year, we had three non-English speaking soldiers that attended the clinic and received all periods of instruction in English," Roxburgh explained. "They used handheld devices to record lectures and demonstrations and to photograph power point material, and they also asked frequent questions to others who could translate."

Recruiting the help of a Spanish-speaking Marine from the Marine Corps Rifle Team and one of the Remington instructors, the soldiers were given the test orally and ultimately passed to complete the course.

"I was very proud of the can-do, gung-ho attitudes displayed by the students and instructors, and I was proud to be part of the outstanding marksmanship community present at Camp Perry," said Roxburgh. "It was really something to see them (students and instructors) working together toward the accomplishment of a common goal."

Members of the Remington-Bushmaster Team also demonstrated proper rifle cleaning and maintenance along with equipment care.

When exams are completed and all students have passed, each earns a special certificate of recognition. Though meant as a memento, the real keepsake of the clinic is the amount of knowledge that can be carried back home and onto the firing line in the future.

"We are very proud of the course content and feel that any student that attends our clinic will be forever changed with regard to their overall knowledge, confidence and capabilities as a high-power rifle marksman," said Roxburgh. "It is always a pleasure to work with the highly competent and professional CMP staff at Camp Perry and other ranges throughout the U.S."

Retired U.S. Marine Ken Roxburgh (standing) is the lead instructor for the course. He and his skilled team offer insightful demonstrations as well as hands-on guidance throughout the course.

At the conclusion of the course, instructors and CMP staff are proud to distribute certificates of completion to the hard-working group of students.

Team Double D Sets New Record in Fan Favored Vintage Sniper Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – On July 18, neatly placed sand bags greeted hundreds of competitors at each firing point as they readied themselves to compete in the CMP Games Vintage Sniper Match. A group of 470 individuals fired in the event.

Brad Sodders, 49, and his son Davis, 15, have shot the Vintage Sniper Match since it began. Last year, the pair nabbed a silver medal in the event, while taking home a bronze this year.

"We like that we get to do it together," said Brad.

"I like the sandbag," added Davis. "I like that you don't have to do the different positions here like you do in other events. I enjoy it more that way."

Michael Wallace, 57, of Stafford, VA, fired in the match for the first time by sheer happenstance. After Jeff Green's partner couldn't make it to Camp Perry as planned, Wallace was more than happy to step in.

"I'm really glad I did," said Wallace. "This is the best."

"This match is absolutely fantastic," added Green, 60, of Midlothian, VA. "And the wind was really steady. I was surprised. It wasn't too bad out there."

For Paul Patel, 54, of Damascus, MD, the Vintage Sniper has more to offer than Winning the Vintage Sniper match was Team Double D – Douglas Armstrong and Glendale Rutherford, who both fired a record-breaking score of 398-23x. Armstrong was also the high individual of the match.

the usual National Match events. Having finished in third in the match, he says, here, everyone has the same chance to come out of top.

"It's got action," he said. "It's more than just marksmanship, since you're part of a team. And it's great that all ages can come out and compete against each other. Getting to use the scope kind of evens things out for everyone, competitively."

Two-person teams fire 10 rounds each from 300 and 600 yards, with scoped vintage military rifles in the prone position. Each team member alternates turns as shooter and spotter. The match requires quick accuracy and precise communication between partners.

Team Double D, consisting of Douglas Armstrong, 54, of Lexington, NC, and Glendale Rutherford, 62, of Tallapoosa, GA, fired a record-breaking score of 398-23x. Armstrong was also the individual leader of the match, cleaning each stage with perfect scores of 100 at both the 300 and 600 yard lines.

In second place was Bob's Gun and Ammo. Team members William Van Treeck, 28, of Racine, WI, and Shawn Steliga, 47, of Wauwatosa, WI, fired an impressive aggregate score of 397-19x. Rounding out the top three teams was Hard Leg #1, with a score of 392-19x. Firing members were Paul Patel and Howard Burill, 53, of Mt. Airy, MD.

Members of two-person teams take turns as shooter and spotter at each distance. Each member is responsible for guiding his or her teammate to achieve the optimum score.

Marksman fire from 300 and 600 yards during the event. Each rifle is equipped with sniper scopes to provide a more authentic feel to the match and further accuracy.

Some competitors, such as SFC Leslie Lewis and SSG John Arcularius Jr., USAR, dress up in outfits such as Ghillie suits or clothing from the eras their rifles were used, in order to add a little more fun to the event.

Each team chooses their unique names to stand out from the rest of the pack. Some teams even go as far as creating their own exclusive “uniforms” for the match.

Competitors use scoped, as-issued vintage sniper rifles or replica rifles from the Korean War, World War II or earlier eras set atop provided sandbags.

During this year's popular Vintage Sniper Match, 470 individuals approached the firing line in two-person teams to compete in the event.

Sollars Fires Record-Breaking Score in Popular John C. Garand Match

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Larry Sollars was the overall winner during the Garand Match. He also recorded a new match record, with his score of 293-9x.

CAMP PERRY, OH – Through the rainy mist of July 19, a swarm of 1,080 competitors fired in the As-Issued John C. Garand Match at the 2014 National Rifle Matches at Camp Perry. Though marksmen fought through foggy glasses and wet triggers during the rainy morning, the soggy weather eventually subsided to clear skies to the always-eager Garand crowd.

Milton Beckwith, 89, of Wethersfield, CT, still managed to find his way to the firing line, even through the rain. Beckman has been attending the National Matches at Camp Perry since 1954. Then, he was a talented pistol shooter – earning his Distinguished Pistol badge in 1969.

As he grew older, his shoulder began to hurt, and he could no longer hold the pistol out in front of him. That's when he switched to rifle. Now, he still finds time to shoot every week at the Fin, Fur and Feather Club in Chaplin, CT.

"I just like to shoot," said Beckman, with a smile.

His wife, Connie, 86, wasn't thrilled about the idea of her husband making the trip all the way to Camp Perry for the 60th year, but, according to him, it's the only time of year she can get anything done.

"She likes to get rid of me. She has things around the house that I won't let be done – things painted this color or that color. So while I'm away, that happens," he joked.

Jason Kozora, 28, of Columbus, OH, and his step-dad, Craig Downing, 50, of Cleveland, OH, built the M1 he fired in the match from a CMP barrel and receiver and other pieces and parts. Together, the pair has constructed about 20 rifles together. The M1 Garand took nearly 2 years to build.

"It's just something I enjoy doing," said Kozora. "I'd rather be doing this than work."

Competitors in the National John C. Garand Match fire "as-issued" U.S. M1

Competitors in the John C. Garand Match fire "as-issued" U.S. M1 Garands through a course of fire that is easily completed by both new and experienced marksmen.

Garands through a Course of Fire that is designed in a way that allows experienced and inexperienced marksmen to easily complete. Because of this, the match attracts a large number of recreation-oriented shooters to enjoy a day of camaraderie, history and competition.

Winning the overall match was Larry Sollars, 43, of Cumming, GA. Sollars also set a new record for the event, with a score of 293-9x. The previous record of 293-6x was fired by Kurt Palmer in 2009.

"I was shocked," Sollars said. "I knew the score was good when I finished, but I didn't think it was a match winner. I thought surely someone would shoot better."

Sollars and his friends were out eating lunch after the match when the group informed him that he was actually in first place. After that, he started to keep an eye on Competition Tracker throughout the day.

"Late in the day, I finally realized that it was a new record too. It was incredible," he said.

Though he earned his name in the record books, it almost wasn't meant to be. Sollars wasn't even going to shoot in the match, but his friend, Ben Franklin, 56, of Woodstock, GA, convinced Sollars that he should, since he happened to arrive to his hotel a day early and had nothing to do.

"When he saw the rain outside, he was quick to point out that it was my idea to shoot the match," Franklin joked. "But it cleared up as soon as we started. He really owes his win to me."

Proving his skill with a Garand, Sollars has advice for anyone else looking to master any CMP Games Match.

"Come out to shoot and have a good time. Don't set your expectations out of sight. Just shoot your scores. Shoot your game. It helps relieve some of the pressure. Don't put too much pressure on yourself," he said.

Coming in second place in the match and winning the High Senior Award was Robert Steketee, 64, of Haslett, MI, with a score of 292-11x. Kenneth Davis, 60, of Lucasville, OH, followed closely in third with a score of 292-8x. Robert Hudson II, of Halifax, VA, was the High Junior with a score of 285-8X.

New this year was the Grand Senior Award awarded to the high competitor (70+). Of the 68 competitors that were 70+, Michael Jozefov Jr. of Brunswick, OH, earned top honors firing a 278-4X.

Jason Kozora and his step-dad, Craig Downing, built the M1 Garand Kozora used during the match. The two have built around 20 rifles together.

Soggy weather put a damper on the early relays of the Garand match, but competitors and spectators still managed to find their ways to the Camp Perry ranges.

Milton Beckwith, 89, has been coming to Camp Perry since 1954. With the help of members of his home shooting club in Connecticut, he still manages to make the trip to the National Matches every year.

Aussieker Earns Overall Title in Only Second Bout with Vintage Military Match, Williams Overtakes Carbine

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, OH – Mark Aussieker, 43, of Wenona, IL, who fired a 288-5x to become the overall winner in the Vintage Military Match, modestly explained his feelings about claiming the title by jokingly stating, “I’m kind of a big deal.”

Only his second time firing in the event, Aussieker used his 1917 to achieve his win. Now with his “big deal” status, the new champion has a few words of simple advice to anyone looking to claim the title in the future.

“People just need to get out there and do it. All it takes is practice,” he said. “Shoot as many of these matches as possible.”

Competitors in the Vintage Military Match must use “as-issued” U.S. Krag, M1917 or manually operated foreign military rifles, while those in the Springfield Match must fire “as-issued” M1903 or M1903A3 rifles. This year, 421 competitors fired in the Vintage Military Match, while 671 competitors took the line in the Springfield Match – both shot concurrently on July 19 and 20.

Coming in second in the Vintage Military event was Victor Betzold, 59, of Bel Air, MD, with a score of 286-7x – earned using his Enfield P17. Following just short of Betzold by one “x” was Dennis Shay, 60, of Andover, NY, with a score of 286-6x. Shay used his Venezuelan Mauser in the event.

Besides coming in second overall, Betzold was also the High Senior of the event. Gabe Rampsy, 16, of Bremen, GA, was the High Junior, with a score of 273-2x.

Also deciding to make a few memories with a CMP Games event was Mike Buono, 52, of Mifflintown, PA, and his brother Tony, 66, of Melbourne, FL, who both fired in the vintage match this year. Mike used his 1895 Mauser in the match, which he shared with Tony.

“I got a bronze medal, which isn’t stellar, but for me, it’s pretty good,” said Mike, with a smile.

Tony, a Navy and Vietnam veteran, fired competitively for the first time since his days shooting in the military. Though running into some challenges during his performance, Tony still managed to enjoy the match.

Victor Betzold had an outstanding showing at the 2014 CMP Games matches, winning the National Garand-Springfield-Vintage Military 3-Gun Aggregate with a score of 862-19x. He was also the High Senior in both the Vintage Military and Springfield matches.

Mark Aussieker was the overall winner of the Vintage Military Match, firing a score of 288-5x. Surprisingly, it was only his second time firing in a vintage event.

Brothers Mike (left) and Tony (right) Buono fired together in the Springfield Match. Tony’s first time firing since his Navy days, he felt challenged by the competition setting, but still managed to achieve a smile on his face.

“It takes a little getting used to. I cross fired once, but that happens,” he said with a grin. “I had fun.”

Even the reigning champion agrees that some of the CMP Games Matches are just too good to pass up. They add an extra element of character to the already prestigious National Matches.

“I really like to shoot vintage matches. They’re my favorite to shoot,” he said. “I’m trying to go Distinguished, but I can’t come to Camp Perry and not shoot the vintage matches.”

Leading the Springfield Match was Jeffery Schafer, 54, of Saint John, IN, with a score of 294-12x. Roy Leidy, 51, of Northampton, PA, fired a 293-8x for second, while Richard Bodine, 55, of Frederick, PA, recorded a score of 292-8x for third.

High Junior of the event was again Gabe Rampy, with a score of 282-3x. Victor Betzold earned the High Senior award, firing a 288-8x.

With his outstanding showings in the Garand, Springfield and Vintage Military Matches, Betzold not only stayed at the top of the overall lists but also received the 3-Gun Aggregate award, with his combined scores of 862-19x in the matches.

The Carbine Match was held on July 21 to a group of 418 competitors. The Carbine Match was brought back to the National Match schedule in 2006 after a 50-year hiatus. With all firing completed at 100 yards with an M1 Carbine, the match has become a fun and challenging event for marksmen of all ages.

Winning the Carbine Match was Brian Williams, 40, of Granby, GA,

A group of 418 competitors fired in the M1 Carbine Match on July 21. Known as one of CMP's more easy-going events, many compete in the Carbine Match for the thrill and challenge it brings.

with a score of 371-4x. Following close in second was Mark Stout, 45, of Waterford, MI, with 370-3x. John Henderson, 54, of Sonora, CA, fired a 368-5x for third.

High Junior of the event was Ian Brown, 17, of Mansfield, OH, with a score of 360-7x, while William Aten, 62, of Kingwood, TX, earned the title of High Senior of the event after firing 367-9x. Aten also finished fifth overall.

Competitors in the Springfield-Vintage Military Match fire as-issued M1903, M1903A3, U.S. Krag, M1917 or other manually operated foreign military rifles during the event.
