CMP NATIONAL AIR RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIP

Letter of Thank You

On behalf of the Civilian Marksmanship Program, we would like to thank you for participating in our annual CMP Three-Position National Championship. A total of 1,756 juniors entered the CMP Postal Match last fall, including shooters from 4-H, Scouts, American Legion, club or JROTC air rifle programs. CMP staff scored each postal target, with high-scoring athletes invited on to the Regional Championships in April. The top teams and individuals were then selected to compete in the National Three-Position Championship at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center at Camp Perry, Ohio.

The CMP Three-Position Air Rifle Championships are conducted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. As in years past, Larry and Brenda Potterfield of the MidwayUSA Foundation provided generous fund donations to winning teams of the CMP 3P National event to be used towards each team's endowment account with the organization – a 501c(3) public charity that helps communities and organizations raise funds to support youth shooting teams and activities today and into the future. Additionally, the CMP awarded $1,000 scholarships to the Top 3 senior competitors of each discipline.

CMP staff and administrators would like to extend our thanks to coaches, volunteers, parents and guardians for devoting their time and energy during these events. Congratulations to all.

To view, download, print or purchase CMP photos from the event, log onto <https://cmp1.zenfolio.com/f637511788>.

We look forward to seeing the new group of talented junior athletes that will undoubtedly arise through the next CMP Three-Position Championships, beginning this fall!

Leininger, Fraser Top the Podium at the 2019 CMP Three-Position Sporter Nationals

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Sarah Leininger, 18, of Nation Ford Marine Corps JROTC in South Carolina, claimed the overall win in the Civilian Marksmanship Program's (CMP) National Three-Position Air Rifle Championship – fired June 29 at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center in Ohio. Leininger gave a remarkable Finals performance during the event that allowed her to soar above her competition, etching a score of 660.3 to secure the championship title by more than 10 points.

Leininger entered the Finals competition of the day, which follows the qualification round, in second place behind Jaden-Ann Fraser, 17, of Volunteer High School in Tennessee, who won the 2019 National Junior Olympic event the day before and the National JROTC Championship back in March. Leininger stayed calm in the Final, firing a score of 97.3 with five shots in the 10-ring to rise to the top spot and grab the overall win.

“Usually before a match, I’m relaxed and calm, but for some reason I was nervous for this one,” she said.

But as she became more comfortable in her position and got her footing down, the nerves melted away. Her mind was filled with the breathing exercises and other techniques she’s learned during her training. Although she admits her hands were shaking with every trigger pull, she stayed confident enough to capture the championship title.

“I feel like I did good,” she said, with a smile.

A graduated senior, Leininger will be joining a pre-dental program and plans to move on to dental school in the hopes of one day becoming a dentist. She would also still like to participate in marksmanship as a hobby.

Coming in second place in the CMP event was teammate Kayla Kalenza, 16, with a score of 649.8, climbing just above the third place finisher, Kayla Walker, 17, of South Panola in Mississippi, who ended her competition run with a score of 649.3.

Leininger and Kalenza combined scores with fellow teammates Nick Noto and Deonte Hayes to achieve an overall score of 2229-76x for the team championship title for the second consecutive year. Fraser’s Volunteer High School followed in second with a score of 2197-84x, as Des Moines North Marine Corps JROTC Gold trailed only by x-count for the third place position, with a score of 2197-77x.

The National Air Rifle Championship is a three-position event, where sporter and precision competitors fire two days of competition – the Junior Olympic Nationals, followed by the CMP Nationals. Competitors fire qualifying scores each day, with the Top 8 competing in a final on the line to determine winners. The top male and female competitor over the two days also receive places on the USA Shooting junior team.

Jaden-Ann Fraser, a record-setting competitor, won the Junior Olympics sporter title for the second year.

“I’ve had a crazy, wonderful year,” she said.

Fraser, who wishes to continue her marksmanship career into the future after she graduates, will be returning to her Volunteer High School team next year as a precision competitor – broadening her abilities as an athlete.

“Every year I seem to struggle with the CMP match, so hopefully next year I’m going to do better with that. That’s my goal,” she said as she laughed. “I just want to explore new things, hopefully precision will be fun, and I'm just hoping for the best."

Outside of her own successes, Fraser also recognized the accomplishments of her teammates, remarking at how fulfilled she was to have been able to spend the season with such a motivated group of peers.

"I was really excited to come here with my team because this past year we lost a lot of kids, so it meant a lot to us to compete, and I couldn't be any more proud that we did so good. I'm just so proud of them," she said. "We came in, we were determined for a reason, and I feel we accomplished that."

Coming in second in the Junior Olympic event was Riley Mills, 16, of Canon City High School Army JROTC in Colorado, with a score of 657.7. CMP Nationals winner Sarah Leininger claimed the third place spot only one point behind Mills, with a score of 656.6.

Mirroring the CMP Nationals competition, Nation Ford (2230-80x) and Volunteer (2203-76x) high schools took first and second, respectively, in the Junior Olympic Team category, while Zion Benton earned third, with a score of 2201-70x.

In addition to the thousands of dollars in monetary endowment awards provided to winning teams from Midway-USA, the CMP provides $1,000 scholarships to the Top 3 highest scoring graduated seniors of the event. Sarah Leininger, Sam Lumbra of Tempe Union High School in Arizona and Kayla Walker of South Panola High School in Mississippi were among this year's winners.

Leininger, Fraser Top the Podium at the 2019 CMP Three-Position Sporter Nationals

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – Gavin Perkowski, 17, of the Great Trail Musketeers from Ohio, claimed the overall win at the 2019 National Three-Position Air Rifle Championship, marking an overall score of 692.8. The event was conducted by the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) at the Gary Anderson CMP Competition Center July 14-15, with over 280 individual high school athletes.

Following just one-tenth behind Perkowski in second place was Vittoria Watts, 14, of Lincoln Lead Heads in California, with a score of 692.7, followed by Grace Taschuk, 18, of the Bolt Action American Legion Post 334 Jr. Rifle Club in Minnesota with 691.8.

Taschuk came to the event with a unique piece of apparel on her head – a visor signed by 19 Olympic athletes, including the great Lones Wigger, who was a two-time gold medalist and a member of Team USA from 1968 to 1980.

nior Olympics, she medaled in her age group and was awarded by none other than Lones Wigger himself, who later gave her another medal when she became older.

“He definitely holds a special place,” she said. “It’s amazing.”

She started the endeavor after seeing a friend from Minnesota who originally started the tradition. Taschuk thought it was a great idea and began collecting signatures at different events. Helping her fill the visor was her coach, Pete Durben, who attended the 1992 Olympics. He would introduce Taschuk to his friends, allowing her to get in close and nab those autographs.

She admits that the visor is now “a little grimy,” but that’s only because she’s worn it at every match she’s ever shot – and she doesn’t plan on letting it go any time soon.

"I'm keeping it for myself – I'm a little selfish with it," she said with a laugh.

Winning teams of the CMP Three-Position event included second place team Lincoln Lead Heads from California and Capitol City Junior Rifle Club from Washington in third. Taking home the overall team honor was Spokane JRC Gold from Washington, led by members Taylor Christian, Cassidy Wilson, Ben Tafoya and Zachary Pearsall.

Grace Taschuk and Philip Becker were the recipients of the USA Shooting team spots.

Top teams of the event were Lincoln Lead Heads, Texas Hill Country Shooters from Texas and Dallastown MCJROTC from Pennsylvania.

Following the lead of last year's event with even more participation in 2019, an SH2 competition was also held for para-athletes during the National Championship. Winning the match and setting a new 3x20 plus Final National Record of 696.2 was Madison Champion, 17, of Greenville High School Navy JROTC in Texas. Champion also incredibly fired four more National Records at the event: 3x20 score of 594-47x, 20 Shots Kneeling score of 198-16x, 20 Shots Standing score of 197-12x and a Finals Score of 102.2.
