

HOME RANGE APPRECIATION SERIES

To fill the void of the unfortunate withdrawal of the 2020 National Matches from the annual schedule, the Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) have prepared a solution that will allow all of our competitors to compete with one another during the summer months, from the comfort of their local ranges.

The CMP "Home Range Appreciation Series" is a collection of rifle, pistol, CMP Games, smallbore and air rifle competitions (open to both adult and junior athletes), that will be fired in local club matches and compared against overall scores from around the nation.

We are looking for companies to donate prizes, giveaways and/or gift certificates to the competitors who take part in the CMP Home Range Appreciation Series. Companies may also offer to become a T-Shirt Sponsor for this event.

- Companies who are T-Shirt Sponsors will have their logo on our special Home Range Appreciation Series T-Shirt.
- T-Shirt sponsors will also have their company logo listed as a main sponsor on the Home Range Appreciation Series Webpage.
- Companies who donate awards will also be listed on the webpage and on the T-Shirt via a smaller logo.
- Recognition will be given to donating companies in a follow-up article about the event.
- We will also have feature articles on companies that donate or become T-Shirt Sponsors.
