2003 Centennial National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

A Message from the DCM:

2003 was a special year in the history of the National Matches. The first National Matches were held at Sea Girt, NJ in 1903. This year, 100 years later, we celebrated the Centennial of these matches at Camp Perry. During our Centennial Celebration on August 9, at the end of the National Trophy Matches, this tribute to the National Matches and the Civilian Marksmanship Program was read. Its words are worth pondering as we end one century and begin another.

Throughout human history, marksmanship has been a means of survival and common defense--skilled marksmanship was admired and celebrated--the quest to become a skilled marksman became a passion, a way of life and a means of human growth and fulfillment.

100 years ago, in 1903, the history of marksmanship in America took a dramatic step forward. The vision for this historic change came from many, including the Secretary of War, Elihu Root; the NRA President, General Bird Spencer; several Senators and Congressmen, and President Theodore Roosevelt. They envisioned an America that would be stronger and safer and better--if more could be done to teach American soldiers and citizens to shoot skillfully.

Their vision created the National Matches and the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Now a century of marksmanship excellence has grown from this vision. The National Matches became a great American tradition, attracting thousands, promoting training and celebrating excellence. In its first century, the Civilian Marksmanship Program reached legions of youth and adults with opportunities to learn and know the benefits of being safe, skilled marksmen.

This evening we proudly stand in the shadow of our past 100 years. The vision of the new CMP is that "every youth in America has the opportunity to learn gun safety and marksmanship." Tonight we celebrate what our founders dreamed of in 1903; we celebrate all that marksmanship leaders and participants have built in 100 years and we celebrate the exciting challenge of striving to realize our new vision in the next century.

The National Matches and the Civilian Marksmanship Program have become great American institutions truly worthy of celebration.

In 2004, we will begin a second century of marksmanship excellence that we hope will be even greater.

Gary Anderson
Director of Civilian Marksmanship

ON THE COVER—CMP CENTENNIAL PAINTING

The 2003 National Matches marked the Centennial of the first National Matches and the founding of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, the predecessor to today's Civilian Marksmanship Program. To commemorate this Centennial, the CMP commissioned renowned Wyoming artist Jerry Antolik to create an original oil painting that was unveiled after the First Shot Ceremony on 14 July. The Centennial Painting is now on permanent display in the CMP lobby.

The oil on canvas painting is a collage of historic scenes from the National Matches. Most prominent in the piece is one of the lighthouse towers at the entrance to Camp Perry that have become National Matches landmarks for shooters all over the nation. The painting features Alice Bull firing her 1903 Springfield rifle in the kneeling position in the late 1930s. Mrs. Bull was the first woman to earn the Distinguished Rifleman Badge and make the President's 100. Two scenes show soldiers firing the Krag rifle in 1903, in sitting and prone positions. In the background, in front of CMP Headquarters in the old Arcade Building, an early military team is posing for a traditional National Matches team photo. Also depicted is a moment every shooter at the National Matches dreams of, the presentation of the President's Trophy. Further in the background, behind the Headquarters building, the famous Camp Perry firing line appears. Full color posters and post cards reproduced from the painting, suitable for framing, are available for purchase from the CMP E-Store <http://estore.odcmp.com/store/catalog/catalog.aspx?pg=catalogList&cat=MEM>.

2003 Centennial National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. national championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U.S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

The Civilian Marksmanship Program publishes this Official 2003 Centennial National Trophy Matches Results Bulletin as part of its programs to promote competitive shooting. Other current CMP competition programs include:

- Conduct of the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches as part of the annual National Matches.
- Publication of CMP Competition Rules to govern the National Trophy Matches and service rifle and service pistol shooting in the U. S.
- Publication of U. S. Army Marksmanship Unit Guides on Service Pistol, Service Rifle, International Rifle and International Skeet and Trap.
- Production of U. S. Army Marksmanship Unit Training Videos on bull's-eye pistol and highpower service rifle.
- Awarding of Distinguished Rifleman, Distinguished Pistol Shot and Distinguished International Shooters Badges.
- Sanctioning of Excellence-In-Competition Matches in service pistol and service rifle.
- Conduct of recreational and historic reenactment matches known as CMP Games events that include the John C. Garand Match, the Springfield/Military Bolt Rifle Match and the Rimfire Sporter Match.
- Sanctioning of Club Matches for Garand, Springfield, Military Bolt Rifle and Rimfire Sporter competitions.
- Sanctioning of Club Rifle Clinics (highpower rifle, M1, rimfire sporter).

2003 Centennial National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

2003 First Shot Ceremony

"Let's Make These Good Weeks": The Centennial First Shot Ceremony

With the flags of fifty states waving in the ever-present wind off of Lake Erie and the National Anthem being played by the 122nd Army National Guard Band, an air of ceremony and celebration reminiscent of the Fourth of July permeated Camp Perry on July 14th, as the U.S. Coast Guard Color Guard from Marblehead station posted the colors to begin the First Shot Ceremony of the 100th National Rifle and Pistol Matches.

And perhaps the ceremony and even the whole of the National Matches can best be summed up by one petition spoken by Colonel Ken Daft, Ohio National Guard State Chaplain, during the invocation at the beginning of the ceremony. "Let's make these good weeks," he stated and indeed that is all that can be asked of the time at Camp Perry. Let's make these good weeks of sportsmanship. Let's make these good weeks of tradition. Let's make these good weeks of competition and comradery. And above all, let's make these good weeks of safety and enjoyment.

During each recent First Shot Ceremony, a notable official, shooter or public officer has been asked to fire the First Shot. In 2001, Olympic Gold Medalist Nancy Johnson fired the first shot. In 2002, Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army, J.B. Hudson had the honors. The Centennial Triple Distinguished shooter Bill Blankenship fires the first shot of the 2003 Centennial National Matches with an 1898 Krag rifle. Blankenship is a world champion, six-time National Champion and the first former Camp Perry champion to fire the First Shot. The Krag Rifle was the standard competition rifle in the first 1903 National Matches.

First Shot was historic, for it was the first time that a past Camp Perry champion had fired the shot to begin competition. Six time National Pistol Champion and triple Distinguished shooter Bill Blankenship, setting aside his pistol shooting past, stepped to the firing line and shouldered an 1898 Krag rifle (representative of the service rifle used in the first National Matches in 1903) and in one squeeze of the trigger ushered in a new century of competition at Camp Perry. Mr. Blankenship spoke of many good days and weeks at Camp Perry and the role shooting has played in his life.

The 2003 First Shot ceremony was historic for a number of reasons. Bill Blankenship was the first former champion given the honor of firing the First Shot. The ceremony was the start of the 100th National Matches. Most importantly the 2003 First Shot ceremony will be most remembered as the beginning of a new century in the shooting sports in an era when shooting will face more challenges than ever before. The National Matches, due in part to the efforts of the Civilian Marksmanship Program and the National Rifle Association, show the world that the shooting sports are a viable and valuable tradition which, if lost, would leave a gap in the sporting world and even the traditions of the United States. So, let's make these good weeks. For good years follow good weeks and in time, another century of sportsmanship, tradition, competition, comradery and safety will come to pass.

The 122nd Army National Guard Band from the Rick- enbacker Air National Guard Base, Columbus, Ohio, performed during the First Shot Ceremony.

The Guns of the National Matches: A Century at Arms

If you are a new or young shooter, you may be unaware of the fact that there were accurate rifles and pistols being fired in the National Matches long before the advent of today's M-16/AR-15 rifles, Beretta 9mm service pistols, or today's modern smallbore match rifles, highpower space guns and optical-sighted match pistols. Many fine scores—scores that have yet to be topped—were fired with such out of date firearms as the Winchester Model 52 and Model 70 match rifles, M1 Garands, H&R single shot pistols, the Stevens Walnut Hill and M-14 service rifles. In this year of the Centennial of the National Matches, a unique display was organized that told the interesting stories of these fine guns and the roles they played in the history of the National Matches.

To show today's shooters what their predecessors brought to the National Matches, the CMP and Ohio Gun Collector's Association proudly offered a unique exhibition called The Guns of the National Matches: A Century at Arms during the 2003 Centennial National Matches.

The Guns of the National Matches was a unique and comprehensive display of target rifles, pistols and revolvers and National Matches memorabilia. The exhibition told the story of the evolution of the guns used during the National Matches, from the Krag rifle, which most competitors fired in the first 1903 National Matches, to National Match M1s and M14s, to today's modern M-16-type target rifles. Target pistols on display included early M1911 pistols, Colt Woodsmen, Colt and Smith & Wesson revolvers, H&R USRA single shots, High Standard and Ruger semi-autos. Rifles and pistols used by National Champions like Bill Blankenship, Jimmy Clark and Gary Anderson were featured in the exhibition. The M1903 Springfield used by George "Dad" Farr to fire 71 consecutive bullseyes in the 1921 Wimbledon Cup competition was a display highlight that brought the legend of Dad Farr and the story behind the rifle to life. A visitor favorite, the Farr Rifle became a gathering place throughout the Matches for shooters, gun collectors and eager listeners to meet, exchange stories and enjoy the camaraderie of people who share a love for competitive shooting and its rich history.

With a fabulous collection of firearms and historic guns used by past champions and competitors, the exhibit was created to educate visitors on the history of Camp Perry and the National Matches. The CMP and OGCA also assembled a collection of historic photos, documents and memorabilia associated with the Matches. On display were record targets, shooting equipment from over the years and photos of the competitors and people who made the National Matches such a unique American institution.

During the 2003 National Matches, over 3900 persons, an average of 126 people a day, visited the Guns of the National Matches: A Century at Arms display. The exhibit was made possible through the generous donations of time, money and items from private collections of many Ohio Gun Collector's Association members and other individuals. Without their help, this exhibit would not have been possible. The CMP expresses its sincere thanks to these individuals and to the Ohio Gun Collectors Association for making this special and very popular exhibition possible.

2003 Centennial National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

CMP and National Match Centennial Celebration

In 1903 when President Theodore Roosevelt proposed an organization to better prepare American citizens for the possibility of war through marksmanship practice, he may not have envisioned the Civilian Marksmanship program that exists today, or the National Rifle and Pistol Matches as they exist today...but we're sure he would have been "Dee-lighted!" with them both. The 2003 National Rifle and Pistol Matches, celebrated this year from 14 July to 9 August, were a fitting capstone to the past century of American competitive shooting and a bright beginning to another century to come.

The Centennial Year of the CMP and the National Matches culminated with a Centennial Celebration on August 9 during the most popular day of the National Matches – the day of the John C. Garand Match. Nearly 1400 shooters were on hand to compete in this largest event of the National Matches. Elsewhere on the ranges nearly 600 military and civilian competitors were completing the fast-paced Infantry Trophy Match. From the World War II veterans in their original uniforms to the young men and women stepping up to the firing line, M-1 Garand or M-16 in hand, the proof that Roosevelt's idea and vision were successful was evident everywhere.

From the grilled chicken barbecue that fed all competitors to the United States Army Golden Knights Parachute exhibition, to the final awards ceremony of the National Trophy Rifle Matches, to the unveiling of a new addition to the National Trophy Collection and the finale to the day's celebration that featured a tribute and 21-gun salute to honor past heroes of Camp Perry and the National Matches, the Centennial Celebration was a fitting way for those in attendance to remember the previous 100 years of competition and marksmanship in the National Matches. There are few who will forget the sight of the lone jumper, freefalling in to within what seemed to be mere hundreds of feet of the ground before opening her parachute and unveiling an American Flag. Her fellow Golden Knights soon followed, displaying their world-renowned skill to the delight of the crowd below. There were moments of silence and stillness as a special tribute was read in honor of Camp Perry competitors who went on to sacrifice their lives for the United States. And surely there was not one person there who did not feel emotion as seven United States Army Marksmanship Unit rifleman fired a traditional 21-gun salute in honor of these great Americans. When the celebration continued, there were more awards and accolades to hand out as the newest addition to the National Trophy Collection was unveiled and awarded and new champions were applauded.

The celebration seemed to go on and on into the night, as shooters swapped stories and reminisced about past years of glory at Camp Perry, as well as years where glory wasn't theirs to be had. Slowly and reluctantly, they finally disbanded and headed back to their huts or hotels, for there was more to do tomorrow, more glory to be won, more lessons to be learned, more friends to make and more shots to fire. Yes, Roosevelt would be "Dee-lighted!"

Trophy Unveiled in Honor of Marine Corps Scout/Sniper Carlos Hathcock

The trophy was unveiled on August 9th during the CMP awards ceremony.

The GySgt Carlos Hathcock Trophy was awarded for the first time to Sgt Jerome Bostick (second from right) as the Marine Corps competitor with the highest score in the aggregate of the President's Match, the National Trophy Individual Rifle Match and the National Trophy Team Match, 1278-55. On-hand to unveil the trophy were Gunnery Sergeant Carlos Hathcock, III, the son of Carlos Hathcock (second from left), Col. G.C. Bourgeois (far right), the Commander of the USMC Weapons Training Battalion at Quantico, VA and Jim Vose (far left), one of the men instrumental in the creation of the trophy.

Whether you are a shooter who participates in serious competition or merely enjoys it as a relaxing hobby, it would be difficult to believe you have not encountered the name Carlos Hathcock in articles or books discussing great riflemen in American history. Gunnery Sergeant Hathcock's exploits in the Viet Nam War have been told and retold until they have taken on legendary proportions similar to the legends of other noted marksmen like Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone. Hathcock was a very successful sniper in the Viet Nam war, with kill totals to prove it. However, one thing that everyone who was lucky enough to know Carlos Hathcock will tell you, the man was humble, and simply wanted to be known as a Marine scout/sniper and instructor of scout/snipers. He knew by passing on his knowledge about the dangerous job of the scout/sniper that he could save the lives of many of the men he taught. Much like what Gary Cooper, portraying Alvin York, stated in the classic movie Sergeant York, Hathcock knew his skill with a rifle would save many more lives than they took.

For Jim Vose of Maine and Ken Odom of Indiana, both former Marines, the idea of creating a trophy to honor Carlos Hathcock, seemed like an idea that was long overdue. Since Hathcock's death in 1999 from multiple sclerosis, debate concerning a fitting tribute in the National Matches to this humble, heroic veteran abounded. Friends and Marines who served with him, as well as grateful citizens, believed something should be done. Yet, it was Vose and Odom, who had never met Hathcock, who set the ball rolling for a wonderful tribute.

Few people realize that Hathcock's exploits pulling triggers didn't just happen on the battlefield. In the 1965 National Matches, a young Corporal Hathcock won the prestigious Wimbledon Cup with a score of 100-17v. To commemorate the life and shooting skill of this American hero, Vose and Odom envisioned a trophy to be placed in competition in the National Trophy Collection housed in CMP headquarters at Camp Perry. Vose, a jeweler by trade, began researching sculptors all over the country and finally settled on one near his own home in Maine. Months and many donations from citizens and the shooting industry later, the Hathcock Trophy was finished and shipped to Camp Perry in time to be part of the Centennial Celebration of the National Matches. The trophy will hold a place of honor in the National Trophy Collection and will inspire future shooters from the military and civilian ranks to strive to achieve the level of excellence that Carlos Hathcock achieved in his shooting career.

"Winner of the "Wimbledon Cup " Cpl Carlos N. Hathcock, USMC, National Matches, Camp Perry, Ohio, August 26, 1965.

2003 Centennial National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

FINAL RESULTS 2003 CMP GAMES MATCHES

These scenes from the 2003 National CMP Games competitions that included the Rimfire Sporter Match on July 26, the Springfield/Vintage Military Rifle Match on August 8 and the John C. Garand Match on August 9 demonstrate why these new shooting games are both fun and continue to grow in popularity. They don't require a lot of special equipment and the equipment is readily available. They emphasize fun, camaraderie and history. The top prizes are gold, silver and bronze medals that all participants can aspire to win. Highlights from the 2003 CMP Games events at the National Matches included over 600 shooters in the Springfield/Vintage Military Rifle Match, a record 1344 shooters in the Garand Match and a big increase in the 2nd Rimfire Sporter Match. The two Rimfire Sporter shooters in the lower left photo, Ronald Springsteen and Chad Cleland, became the first two shooters to fire scores over 590 x 600 in this event.

Before every Rimfire Sporter Match a clinic and safety briefing is conducted at the range. Clinic instruction covers Rimfire Sporter Rifle rules, safety instructions and competition procedures. The clinics also offer important tips on how to shoot the Rimfire Sporter course of fire. All triggers are weighed before the match to ensure they are capable of lifting three pounds when cocked. The overall weight of the rifle must not be more than 7.5 lbs.

Rifle: Winners of the 2003 President's Rifle Match and the 2003 National Trophy Individual Rifle Match, Mr. Stanton Noon and Sgt Jerome Bostick, USMC presented Distinguished Rifleman Badges during a special recognition ceremony at the 2003 National Matches to shooters who earned their badges during the previous year.

"The great body of our citizens shoot less as time goes on. We should encourage rifle practice among schoolboys, and indeed among all classes, as well as in the military services by every means in our power. Thus, and not otherwise, may we be able to assist in preserving peace in the world...The first step - in the direction of preparation to avert war if possible, and to be fit for war if it should come - is to teach men to shoot!"

-President Theodore Roosevelt's last message to Congress

1903 - With the support of President Theodore Roosevelt, the 57th Congress passes a bill that is the foundation of the National Matches. Creating the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice

1903 - The first National Match is held at Sea Girt

1905 - On March 3, 1905 another act of Congress authorized "That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to sell ... rifles belonging to the United States as are not necessary for the equipment of the Army and the organized militia, for the use of rifle clubs formed under regulations prepared by the national board for the promotion of rifle practice..."

1907 - The National Matches are held at Camp Perry

1916 - The National Defense Act of 1916 authorized the participation of civilian teams from each state in the National Matches

1917 - The first Small Arms Firing School is held at the National Matches
