

1996 NATIONAL MATCHES

PISTOL AWARDS BULLETIN

TO ALL COMPETITORS

WHERE DO YOUR ENTRY FEES GO?

All fees paid by Competitors at Camp Perry go directly to Competitions Division to pay for the conduct of the National Matches. Among the expenses associated with the Championships are:

- A. Expenses for Volunteers.
- B. Reimbursement to the Director of Civilian Marksmanship.
- C. Awards for the NRA Championships.
- D. Inventory for NRA Sales and NRA Mementoes.
- E. Salaries for employees including the Range Crew, Print Office and Stats.
- F. Selected Range Operations functions.
- G. All administrative costs for this remote operation.

The cost to NRA to conduct the National Matches is approximately $1.2 million dollars annually. NRA has made, and will continue to make, every effort to maintain or reduce expenses. This year, for example, the awards package for the Championships has increased from roughly $100 thousand last year to well over $180 thousand this year thanks to the efforts of your NRA Staff and the kind cooperation of the shooting industry interested in the Championships. Match fees, however, did not increase for 1996. Additionally, many local merchants have donated to the Championships because of their intense interest in the viability of this historic event remaining here at Camp Perry.

NRA will continue to search for corporations and individuals who are willing to underwrite the expenses of the Championships. If you have any ideas please write to NRA Competitions Division at 11250 Waples Mill Road, Fairfax, Virginia 22030.

NRA's leadership is committed to maintaining a balanced budget again in 1996. The Match Staff sincerely appreciates what you pay to attend this premier shooting Championship. If there is any concern or issue you would like to discuss, please use the Camp Perry Suggestion Form. The forms are reviewed by Match Staff.

NRA wants and needs your support. Competitors are the Association's foundation. Without the active Competitor, NRA's purposes would diminish significantly. NRA will listen to members' concerns and will respond. The Association is a membership organization and knows it!
