

WINTER HOME RANGE INDOOR SERIES

The CMP "Winter Home Range Series" is a collection of indoor .22 pistol, smallbore and air rifle competitions (open to both adult and junior athletes), that will be fired in local club matches and compared against overall scores from around the nation.

We are looking for companies to donate prizes, giveaways and/or gift certificates to the competitors who take part in the CMP Home Range Appreciation Series.

- Companies who donate awards will also be listed on the webpage.
- Recognition will be given to donating companies in a follow-up article about the event.
- We will also have feature articles on companies that donate.
