- Open Carry v. Concealed Carry
- Carry positions: pros & cons
- Dress for success
- What to say & when to say it
- Target identification
- Close Quarters considerations
- Multiple threat concerns
- One-hand shooting techniques
- Safe deployment techniques
- What to do before and after
- Contact with police
- Protecting those you love
- Drill rehearsals for protecting loved ones
- And more

The course is limited to 12 participants. In order to attend, you must complete registration by contacting the instructor Greg Bettis at Rustebadge@bellsouth.net.

Student fee: $150 per person. Group rate: $130 per person for two or more.

Once you have successfully registered, you will be contacted by the training coordinator with additional course information.

Each applicant will be required to complete a CMP liability waiver. Anyone prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm is ineligible to participate. You must be a minimum of 21-yoa to attend the class.

Firearm, caliber and holster-type must be approved by the instructor prior to class. Do you have a question about what equipment should bring? No problem, just contact us and we'll be happy to discuss.

Student equipment list: handgun, 100-rds of training ammunition, brimmed hat, closed-toe shoes, holster (no pocket/shoulder holsters), belt for holster, drinks/snacks.

Please remember, this is a live fire course and ear & eye protection are required on the range. The course will include standing, walking, and other minimal physical activity.

Details will accompany successful registration.
