

Model Match Program: Here is a model to use in preparing a match program for your competition. Providing a program is highly recommended for all competitions (see Rule 5.6). Having a written program is required for a sanctioned competition. To prepare a program for your competition, use the headers shown here and provide the information required.

MODEL OFFICIAL PROGRAM

(NAME OF COMPETITION)

LOCATION City where the competition will be held.

DATE When the competition will be held.

SPONSOR The team, club or group that is hosting or conducting the competition.

EVENTS See Rule 5.3. Describe the specific course(s) of fire that will be fired. Will there be individual and/or team competition? Will there be an individual final?

TIME SCHEDULE List the start time for the competition or start times for different relays.

EQUIPMENT CLASSES See Rules 3.3, 4.1. Will there be separate competition classes for Sporter and Precision air rifles or is this an open competition?

COMPETITION OPEN TO See Rules 3.1, 3.2. Specify the groups of competitors that are eligible to compete. Is the competition open to all high school or school age competitors? If the competition is in a restricted match for specific groups or for teams, clearly identify the group(s) who are eligible to enter.

RULES The National Standard Three-Position Air Rifle Rules will apply. State any other special rules that are required at your range or that will apply at this competition. For example, is the wearing of eye protection required? Note that any special rules may not contravene the National Standard Rules (see Rule 5.6). If there are any unusual range features that competitors should know about in advance, describe them.

AWARDS Describe awards that will be provided. If there are special awards for certain categories of competitors, describe them.

RANGE LOCATION Give clear directions to range.

ENTRY FEES State the amount of the entry fee required for each individual or team to participate. Must entry fees be paid in advance or can they be paid on the day of the competition.

HOW TO ENTER List the name, mailing address, email address and phone number of the person who should receive entries. A special entry form may be part of the competition program.

ACCOMODATIONS If some competitors are expected to remain overnight while attending the competition, provide information about nearby motels and restaurants to assist them in their planning.

OTHER Include any other specific information that will interest competitors and teams in your competition or that will assist them in preparing to participate in the competition.
